Top Dressing Is Highly Beneficial To Alfalfa and Pasture

In Boosting Yields and Prolonging Life of Crops, Says Bill Davis.

The use of fertilizers as a top dressing on pasture and alfalfa fields is the greatest help in boosting yields and prolonging the life of these crops, according to Bill Davis, County Agent.

Alfalfa fields should be top dressed with 500 pounds per acre of an 0-10-20 fertilizer immediately after the first cutting each year. This fertilizer replaces the phosphorous and potash removed from the soil in the hay crops.

Pastures should be top dressed every other year with 400 pounds per acre of 0-12-12 fertilizer or 250 pounds per acre of 0-20-20 fertilizer to replace the phosphorous and potash removed by grazing steaks. Good stands of legumes should be established in pastures to furnish nitrogen to the grass crop.

These recommendations apply mainly to low phosphate soil. It is also suggested that farmers have soils tested in the county laboratory to determine more accurately the lime and fertilizer requirements of their fields.

Local Fruit Growers Urged To Spray Crop Diligently

To Crop Insects And Diseases; Spray Formulas Given by County Agent.

With prospects of good fruit crops this year growers are urged to spray religiously to control insects and diseases, according to Bill Davis, County Agent.

Plum Curculio are now active from Henderson south and west in the state, although numbers taken by jarring have been few. This indicates that the cool spring has retarded emergence and possibly the peach, freeze-out last year retarded the number of curculio. Each grower must analyze his own curculio problem and spray accordingly. Indications are that in the northern Kentucky area the first curculio spray will be needed by the time the shucks start to split. Wettable sulphur in each spray will help reduce brown rot at harvest and wettable sulphur when peaches are about the size of a nickel will help prevent peach scab.

When cedar or quince rust is a problem in apples, 1/2 to 1 pound of ferrous sulphate should be added to the pink, bloom, calyx and first cover sprays. Cedar-apples are thick on many cedar trees this spring and these diseases could be serious. If wet weather prevails during apple bloom, spray of (1) wettable sulphur, (2) wettable sulphur plus ferrous sulfate (24-10 strength), will be needed for apple scab protection against apple and pear fire blight. Apple growers should not neglect the calyx spray when 3/4 of the petals have fallen. Follow this with the first and second cover sprays.

School Boy Struck By Truck In Front Of Home Monday

Condition Reported As Good At St. Elizabeth Hospital.

Gary Dawn, son of Roy Dawn, Burlington-Florence Road, two miles from Burlington, was injured Monday afternoon when he was struck by a truck, after alighting from a school bus in front of his home.

The child, who is eleven years old was rushed to St. Elizabeth Hospital by Deputy Sheriff Byron Kinman, who was called to the scene of the accident. The child suffered a brain concussion, multiple cuts and bruises. The boy lapsed into unconsciousness at frequent intervals Monday night, it was reported.

Sheriff Easton, stated that the youth alighted from the bus across the road from his home, then ran around the back of the bus and was struck by a truck traveling in the opposite direction from the bus. The boy was hurled 21 feet when struck by the truck, according to reports. His condition is reported as good Tuesday morning.

Eugene Heddon, 20, of near Burlington, driver of the truck was arrested on a charge of unlawfully passing a school bus. Kentucky laws require traffic in both directions to halt when a school bus is taking on or discharging passengers.

Heddon was arraigned before Judge C. L. Cropper in Boone County Court, and released on $500 bond, pending the outcome of the Dawn boy's injuries.

Wool Growers Urged To Sign With Local Pool

Clip For 1952 Will Be Sold In June, According To Reports.

Boone County wool growers are urged to sign up with the wool pool for 1952, according to the sales committee.

The 1952 clip will be sold in June this year. The 1951 clip was held until fall in an effort to obtain higher prices. History of the wool market has shown that wool is higher in October than near shearing time. Last year's unusual market in the spring was brought about by heavy government buying and stockpiling and the situation reversed in the fall. The committee acting in good faith and on the advice of those who study the markets were caught in an unusual situation and as a consequence the 1951 clip is still on hand and will be sold with the 1952 clip.

During the existence of the Pool for over 40 years the pool price for wool has averaged $2.00 to $3.00 higher than other sale prices and has meant many dollars in the pockets of Boone County growers.

The committee asks that growers continue in the pool even after last year's difficulties and make immediate plans to contact their solicitor for signing their clip.

Hensley Named Master Commissioner of County

R. S. Hensley, Boone Circuit Court was named Master Commissioner of Boone County, to succeed A. D. Yelton, who resigned the post at the opening of the April session of Boone Circuit Court. Judge J. Yager appointed Hensley April 22nd.

Burlington Seniors Will Present Play

The senior class of Burlington high school will present "Be Yourself," a three-act comedy, May 2nd, 8:00 p. m. at the school gymnasium.

Make way for the Keton family of Rainbow Falls. They've joined in the big push, and here they are located in sunny California, very much intent upon crashing the movies. And do they crash them! The crash they make is the next thing to the one heard round the world. It may not get them right into pictures, but it gets the audience into a laughing mood—and right away, because this Keton family is one family bent on succeeding.

There's Papa Kelton, he's employed as a milkman while awaiting his big break, but so far, it has been only milk bottles! And there's Manna Kelton, an aspiring playwright with ideas, ambition, and three effervescent daughters who, with their friends, proceed to sweep the whole place in a turmoil all the time. No wonder Manna's plays haven't broken any records on Broadway. No wonder Manna's plays have never been on Broadway—what with adolescents exploding all over the place every time she starts to concentrate.

And there's Beatrice, daughter Beatrice, who was cut out for the movies, but apparently cut out wrong, she can't even get in a mob scene for a Bugs Bunny picture. And there's the little one of the family, who finally succeeds—succeeds in getting the whole family practically booted out of their apartment (the last in town) and into a tent. There's the eldest daughter, Julie, the only really sensible one of the whole crew. And there are all of the neighbors, who apparently use the Kelton domicile as the sub of this, fair city and charge in and out like nobody's business.

A three-act play depicting the adventures, misadventures, and the struggles of the Kelton clan... a down-to-earth play about a down-to-earth family in an almost legendary city.

Practice Session

Mr. Walton also announced that all teams were invited to the Burlington field on Thursday night, May 1, (tonight) for a practice session under the lights.

Advance information on the meet indicates that there are some outstanding prospects among the high school youngsters. New Haven has a youngster who is consistently throwing the shot forty yards, Burlington has two throwers who are pressing the ten second mark on the 100-yard dash, Hebron has a girl who is throwing the baseball an astonishing distance and Walton has a miler who is nearing record performance during practice sessions.

A number of former greats in the track and field line will be on hand to help judge and score the meet. (Scoring will be on the basis 5-1). Among those scheduled to help are C. G. Response To Red Cross Appeal Very Gratifying, Report County Chairman Extends Thanks To Workers and Citizens of County.

"I desire to express my appreciation to the wonderful people of Boone County for their fine cooperation and wonderful generosity in the recent Red Cross fund drive," Byron B. Kinman, Boone County Deputy Sheriff and fund drive chairman, said yesterday. "While it is true that some solicitors got off to a slow start, with solicitors in some communities still working," Mr. Kinman continued, "the response thus far has been very gratifying."

"If you have not as yet contributed, please do so, as the need for funds is very urgent. You may send your check to Mrs. Elizabeth G. Nestor, Executive Secretary, American Red Cross, Florence, Ky. She will see that your community is properly credited," he added.

Mr. Kinman said that he hoped to get around to all the precinct chairmen and thank them all personally, so that they could, in turn express his thanks for the fine work done by all the solicitors.

"The wonderful people in Boone County can always be counted on to come through," he concluded.

Beach Acquitted On Murder Charge In Circuit Court

Commonwealth Witness Reverses Story When Put On Witness Stand.

Aubrey Beach, who was arraigned in Judge Ward Yager's Court Friday on a charge of murder was acquitted by a 12-man jury after deliberating only twenty-five minutes.

Beach was indicted in August in a joint indictment with Andrew Doyle and again by the April grand jury of Boone Circuit Court in connection with the robbery-murder of Melvin Townsend, at the latter's filling station on U. S. 42 near Union on July 21, 1951.

Andrew Doyle, Paxton, Ill., now serving a life sentence at Eddyville Reformatory, had named Beach in a signed confession as his accomplice in the robbery and shooting.

Doyle, however, when put on the witness stand by Harlan Hellman, Commonwealth Attorney, and William McEvoy, County Attorney, denied Beach had anything to do with the holdup. Doyle's wife, Syvella, an elder sister of Beach, also was put on the stand by the Commonwealth. She became hysterical and wailed: "I don't know" to every question put to her by the prosecution.

Beach was returned to Burlington jail to await disposition of an appeal of a one-year prison sentence received at the August term of Circuit Court at Burlington. He was convicted on a charge of grand larceny involving theft of a tractor from a Verona farmer, Cecil Dean, indicted on a charge of child desertion was ordered to pay $125.00 per week for the support of his children until further order of the court. All payments were to be made through R. S. Hensley, Boone Circuit Court Clerk.

Mr. Hensley stated that thirty-six civil cases were disposed of during the April session of Boone Circuit.

Sympathy is extended the family of Clem V. Kendall, 85 for whom services were held April 22 from the Stith funeral home, Florence, the Rev. Herman Andros officiating. A retired farmer, Mr. Kendall was for many years a resident of the Florence community. At the time of his death he was at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Harry Osterbrook of Ludlow. He also leaves a son Marvin Kendall, of Walton and three grandchildren. Burial was in Hopeful Cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Graham and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Miller were Thursday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Miller.

Hospital. Mrs. Shotwell is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Burton, of Erlanger.

Friends of Dr. H. C. Kenney, Erlanger dentist regret that he is a patient in Booth Hospital. His condition was reported as slightly improved Saturday.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Cam Kennedy who celebrated their golden wedding anniversary Sunday with "open house" from 2 to 5 at the Walton Christian Church. Prior to moving to Walton 2 years ago, the Kennedys were residents of the Florence community a number of years. We join in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy many more anniversaries together.

Miss Wanda Clifton eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Clifton was one of 24 in the graduating class of Deaconess Hospital school of nursing. Rev. John K. Mitchell of the North Presbyterian Church delivered the commencement address at Wilson Memorial auditorium, North Carolina, where the exercises were held Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ramey are parents of an infant son born April 24 at St. Elizabeth Hospital.

early in the evening and enroute home Mrs. Ogg noticed cars parked around the church. They paused to investigate and upon entering the dimly lighted room found a group of about 100 guests singing "Happy Birthday" and a table laden with beautiful and useful gifts. Rev. Ogg serenaded his wife with the song "I Love You Truly" following which he pinned at her shoulder his gift, a lovely corsage of red roses. Mrs. Larry Miller rendered a vocal solo "The End of a Perfect Day." Refreshments of ice cream, cake and coffee were served. Mrs. Ogg was very happy over the surprise and said this was one of the nicest things that ever happened to her. The guests departed wishing her many happy returns of the day.

Boone County Soil Conservation Notes

Jack Purdy of Waterloo community plans to do some pasture improvement this year. He is selecting orchard grass as a primary grass and ladino clover as his primary legume. He plans to make a good seed bed and lime at rate of 2½ tons per acre, and apply superphosphate at rate of 500 lbs. per acre. Mr. Purdy is considering subsoiling a ridge that has poor internal drainage. He has used rock phosphate on some steep pasture land, and he believes he has received excellent results. It was applied at rate of 100 pounds per acre.

Francis J. O'Leary, whose farm is located on Lawrenceburg Ferry Road, has requested a complete soil and water conservation farm plan. Mr. O'Leary plans to plant some pine trees on a 2-acre plot of his farm, this will be used for Christmas trees. John Wilson is operating Mr. O'Leary's farm.

Nelson Sears and Charles Reeves of Hebron community have requested assistance in selecting and locating ponds for stock water. Mr. Reeves intends to stock his lake with fish.

Mr. Emmett Elliott and son Ralph of Bullittsville community are putting in some diversion ditches to keep water off badly eroded gullies until they can get them seeded and fertilized. Mr. Elliott has been getting excellent results from Ky. 31 Fescue pastures. He seeds some every time he seeds a new pasture.

Edgar and Robert Graves, of Hebron community have had their 14-acre corn field staked out for contour cultivation. They are leaving all natural draws and waterways in grass.

Joe Meyers and Charles Gordon, of Burlington community have requested a complete soil and water conservation farm plan. They are seeding alfalfa and orchard grass for hay and orchard grass and ladino clover for pasture.

Eric Hussey, farm manager, of Al Heiman's farm in Hebron community plans to do some irrigation on pastures and crops this year. Hubert Odor, soil scientist, and Floyd Kells, soil conservationist, have made a survey to start this project. The technical planning will start in May under a trained engineer from the Soil Conservation Service.

Alva Woods of Big Bone plans to continue subsoiling his crop land. He subsoiled 3 acres late last fall, and after examining results over the winter has decided to continue this practice.

G. V. Seiler, of Hebron has bush and bog harrowed approximately 15 acres for pasture establishment this spring. He is selecting a primary pasture mixture of orchard grass and ladino clover.

Emery Gullion of Union-Big Bone Road plans to complete terracing a 12-acre field that was started last fall.

Robert Middleton of Bullittsville is doing his cropping on the contour this year. This is an excellent practice and results are amazing. A 10 to 15% increase in crop yield is not uncommon when this practice is followed. If you and your neighbors are interested, it would be easy to plan a demonstration on your farm; contact your technicians Floyd Kells or Kendrick Keith for a date to explain this practice.

Henry V. Leonard on Burlington-Belleview Road has requested a complete Soil and Water Conservation Farm Plan.

Don't forget, build your farm program on a safe foundation, start your farming operations this year with a complete "Soil and Water Conservation Farm Plan."

Improved pasture can easily produce 200 lbs. of gain per acre on beef cattle, or 200 lbs. of milk per acre from dairy cows. If the 1500 farms in Boone County would improve an average of 5 acres of pasture per farm this would give a possible increase of 1,500,000 pounds of beef or 15,000,000 pounds of milk. Figure this at today's going price of beef or milk and you would have the increase of income this could bring into our county.

Allan Poland of Duckhead, a co-operator of the Boone County Soil Conservation District has bush and bog harrowed 16 acres of land this spring. He plans to use lime, phosphate and a complete fertilizer to treat his soil, and use a grass legume mixture of alfalfa, orchard grass and ladino clover.

R. A. Stephenson, of Verona and Arthur Herring whose farm is located on the Walton-Beaver Road are also planning to bush and bog 3 to 4 acres each. This will be limed, fertilized and seeded to a grass-legume mixture for pasture and hay.

John N. Jordan, whose farm is located on U. S. Highway 25 south of Devon has requested a complete "Soil and Water Conservation Farm Plan." He plans to seed about 5 acres of permanent pasture. Mr. Jordan is using a combination of orchard grass and ladino clover and Ky. 31 fescue and ladino clover in two different fields.

Start your pasture improvement program with a complete "Soil and Water Conservation Farm Plan." Check with your Boone County Soil Conservation District for particulars.

Civil Defense Post At Dayton Goes To Former Boone County Youth

Appointment of Dr. Allen S. Kenyon of the Monsanto Chemical Co., as head of the gas and chemical defense unit of the technical service division, Dayton and Montgomery County civil defense organizations, was disclosed last Thursday. Dr. Kenyon is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kenyon, of Constance. Dr. Kenyon was named by Dr. N. T. Samaras, director of the civil defense technical division, to succeed Dr. R. C. Kinne of the Wright-Patterson Air Force base. Dr. Kinne recently resigned because of Air Force duties. Dr. Samaras said that Dr. Kenyon's immediate responsibility would be the development of a chemical identification and decontamination corps. This would be in conjunction with a radiological and biological defense unit developed under the director of R. A. Miller and Dr. R. A. Zipp.

A native of Boone County, Dr. Kenyon served four years with the Air Force, joining Monsanto in 1947. During his Air Force tour of duty he was chief of the aerial photographic branch at the Wright-Patterson base.

Farm Workers Covered By Social Security

A farm worker is now covered by Social Security—if he is regularly employed by one farm owner. He may receive Social Security credits for his earnings after working for the same farm operator for five months. A farm worker must work one full calendar quarter to show that he is a regular employee. There is no social security credit for this quarter. It is called the qualifying quarter. But then if he works at least sixty days the following quarter and earns $50.00 or more in cash wages, he does come under social security. The farm owner will need to show those earnings on his regular social security quarterly report. As long as a worker continues to work at least sixty days a quarter, he is to be included, provided of course his cash earnings are $50.00 or more. There are still some farm owners who employ regular workers but who have failed to file social security returns. If you are one of these, write the Social Security Administration, 7th and Scott Streets, Covington, Kentucky, and ask for the pamphlet—Social Security for Farm Workers. It will supply all the details for reporting social security for regular farm workers.

Boone Co. Pioneers THEIR ANCESTORS AND THEIR DESCENDANTS

Zimmerman

Christopher (I) Zimmerman proved his "importation" to Virginia in the Spotsylvania County Court in April, 1726, in order to take up land; he "made oath that he came into this country in the year of our Lord, 1717, and that he brought with him Elizabeth, his wife, and John and Andrew, his children." He received a patent for 200 acres. This land was on the Robinson River in what was afterwards Orange, then Culpeper, and finally Madison County.

At a later date he acquired more land, and in his will disposed of more than a thousand acres; he also sold land. In 1729 "Christopher Zimmerman Cooper, conveyed to Frederick Cobler, planter," two hundred acres, and in 1730 he sold to William Johnson 280 acres, part of a tract patented in 1728. He also joined with "William Carpenter and other German Protestants" in securing a patent from the Virginia Council June 10, 1731, "to fifty thousand acres of land on the westerly side of the Great Mountains"—the Blue Ridge—"on condition that the petitioners do within two years bring fifty families to inhabit the land." In the Order-Book of the Augusta county court, April 15, 1746, an entry shows "improvements on 400 acres of land patented by Christopher Zimmerman on the James River" in 1745, consisting of "137 apple-trees planted and carried there 150 miles" for which a credit of three pounds was allowed, and an additional pound for "meat and bread, carried the same distance, and liquor." (The writer is moved to observe that the old boy carried his liquor long and well—W. C. B.)

Among the English planters, plantation-owned and officials of Orange County, as well as among his neighbors in the "German congregation" of Hebron church—sometimes erroneously spoken of as the "Dutch Church," Christopher Zimmerman was thought of as an enterprising, substantial citizen; he was appointed overseer of a road "from Mr. John Lightfoot's plantation into the German road," and "surveyor of the highway from the German Road to Potatoe Run," and in 1740 was commissioned a lieutenant in the Virginia militia. Apparently he was interested, too, in a good horse, for in his will he gives to his daughter Katherine his "sorrel pacing horse branded LtZ," which he probably rode as a Lieutenant in Orange County.

His will, dated November, 1748, and probated in the Orange County Court in March, 1749, was witnessed by Francis Taylor, Francis Strother, and Frederick Cobler, who came to Virginia in 1718. He divided his estate of more than 100 acres among his "six children," and disposed of several "oval tables, beds and chairs,"—hand-made of black walnut, solid not veneer—treasures to make an antique collector covetous;—he mentions his wife, Elizabeth and their children presumably in the order of their ages, 1. John; 2. Barbara Zeigler, (wife of Leonard); 3. Frederick; 4. Christopher (II); 5. Elizabeth and 6. Katherine. There is no mention of Andrew who came to America with his parents in 1717.

John Zimmerman, son of Christopher (I), married Ursula Blankenbaker, daughter of Nicholas, one of the colonists of 1717; they are the ancestors of many citizens of Boone, Kenton and other Kentucky counties.

Frederick Zimmerman married Sarah—; they were members of the church of England (Episcopal) of St. Mark's Parish in Culpeper County. Dr. Philip Slaughter, Rector and historian of St. Mark's notes that in November, 1765, the vestry of the church adjourned "to meet at Frederick Zimmerman's."

Christopher (II) Zimmerman, died 1781, without issue.

Elizabeth Zimmerman married Mathias Weber (Weaver), son of Peter.

Katherine Zimmerman married William Slaughter, son of Robert I. and grandson of Robert I. They immigrated to Kentucky and have descendants in Nelson and Jefferson counties.

John Zimmerman, perhaps Christopher and Elizabeth Zimmerman's oldest child, patented large tracts of land, which he gave to his children in 1776; to his son, John, Jr., and to his daughters Dorothy and Elizabeth, he gave 200 acres each; to Rosanna 300 acres, and to Margaret, Christopher (III), and Maria Zimmerman, 150 acres each. In her book "Clasping Hands with Generations Past," Mrs. Emma Rouse Lloyd, a descendant of John Zimmerman, says he was a Revolutionary patriot; he died in Culpeper County, Virginia, about 1787. He and his wife were both members of Hebron Lutheran Church.

Christopher Zimmerman, III, son of John and Ursula Blankenbaker, married Maria Tanner, daughter of Christopher Tanner and wife, Elizabeth Aylor; Dorothy, daughter of John Ursula, married Jacob Tanner, son of Christopher; and Elizabeth Zimmerman, daughter of John and Ursula married Jacob Holzclaw, a descendant of the colony of 1714.

During the Revolution Christopher Zimmerman (III), was a "Culpeper Minute Man"; this was an organization of "men from the Indian Country," who, according to John Randolph of Roanoke, "were raised in a minute, armed in a minute, marched in a minute, fought in a minute, and were licked in a minute."

In 1810 Christopher Zimmerman, his wife Maria Tanner, and some of their children migrated to Boone County; their son Joshua married (1) Susan Tanner, and (2) Lucy Snyder, who now have large land for a parsonage to Hebron Lutheran Church and a lot in Florence for a school house.

Of Christopher (III) Zimmerman's other children, Elizabeth married George Rouse; Frederick married Rosanna Crigler; Maria, or Polly, married Lewis Crisler; Nancy married John Rouse; Margaret, or Peggy, married John Beemon; and Leana married John Crisler. Descendants of their families are today well known citizens of Boone.

TOURIST REQUESTS JUMP 25,000 IN LAST YEAR

Frankfort, Ky.—The State of Kentucky received 86,802 requests for tourist information during the year ending April 15, according to figures compiled by the Division of Publicity.

The requests were received by the Division of Publicity and Parks and the Department of Highways. The number was far ahead of the figures for last year, when about 62,000 requests were received. Marshall L. Peace, director of Publicity, said that the volume of requests this year will probably show another big gain. About 1,100 a day are being received now and the number is expected to jump to 2,000 within the next few weeks.

Information seekers from all states and many foreign countries wrote to the State last year, Peace said. The state with the largest number of requests was Ohio, with 10,345. Illinois sent 9,099 and Indiana 5,070. Foreign requests totaled 2,678. Each person making a request is sent material covering Kentucky's major tourist attractions and full information on State Parks. Special information is also given in a large number of cases.

Letters Awarded To Athletes At Banquet

Members of the Burlington High School football and basketball teams were honored at an athletic banquet Monday, evening, April 28, at Ram's Restaurant. Humsey Yessin, basketball and football coach of Georgetown College, was principal speaker. Mr. Yessin also showed films of the University of Kentucky basketball team.

Football letters were awarded to twelve members of last year's conference championship team. Those receiving letters were Gayle Rouse, Ray Holbrook, Ronnie Jones, Raymond Smith, Glenn Smith, Jerry Lustenberg, Edgar Rice, Jack Patterson, Billy Ryle, Jerry Ryle, Pat Deck and Kay Kelly.

Basketball letters were awarded to Gayle Rouse, Harold McFarland, Ray Deck, Terry Tillery, Jerry Ryle and Harold Dringenburg. Ryle and Dringenburg were named co-captains of the 1952-53 net squad.

Cheerleaders receiving letter awards were Loretta Maynard, who also was honored at the banquet as 1952 basketball queen, Joyce Kelly and Janet Jones.

Bob Ellis, Cincinnati Enquirer correspondent and feature writer, served as toastmaster. Short speeches were made by Edwin Walton, school principal, Ralph Maurer, basketball coach, and George Maines, football coach. Retiring team captains presented the team football and basketball trophies to the school. Seventy-five students, parents and friends of the school attended the affair.

Florence Over Top In Red Cross Drive

Boone County Quota Raised $175.00 For Flood Relief.

The Florence community and surrounding territory, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Virginia Goodridge have contributed $1,000.00 in the current fund drive of the Boone County Red Cross. This contribution is the result of hard work by the chairman, her fine group of workers and the splendid cooperation of the people, who contributed so generously of their money.

After reading the papers and hearing over the radio and television of the widespread work of the Red Cross in the present floods and tornadoes, many Florence people made a second contribution.

The quota of the Boone County Red Cross has been raised $175.00 for additional assistance to those in the stricken flood and tornado areas. Boone County's quota now stands at $3526.00 of which only $2,502.00 has been donated with Walton and Union drive incomplete.

This year the chapter has acted as the agency of the Department of Defense in collecting blood, has clothed more than 100 persons in the first four months of the "Clothe The Needy" project, has given food and coal to the needy, has given assistance in fires when needed, has brought servicemen home from all parts of the world for deaths and severe illness of their loved ones, has located missing relatives, has taught home nursing classes and first aid classes, has assisted veterans with claims and in one instance succeeded in getting a veteran a bulk cash sum of $800.00.

The Boone County Red Cross Board is composed of the following: Chairman, Mrs. Allen Gaines, Walton; first vice chairman, John McEvoy, Florence; second vice chairman, W. D. Scroggins, Verona; treasurer, Mrs. Violetta Eastman, Florence; secretary, Mrs. Jack Caldwell, Burlington. Board members are: Bellevue, R. D. Frost, Mrs. Courtney Pope, Bullittsville, Mrs. Albert Pfalzgraf, Mrs. H. C. Stewart; Hebron, John E. Crigler, Mrs. Howard Acra, Mrs. John Conner; Petersburg, Mrs. Justin Dolph, Lawrence S. Chambers; Walton, Mrs. Allen Gaines, Mrs. J. B. Johnson, Malcolm Simpson, Mrs. C. C. Pruett; Verona, W. D. Scroggins, Mayro Hayden; Florence, Mrs. Robert Eastman, John O. McEvoy, Mrs. John Bustetter, Dr. John Bustetter, Mrs. S. J. Bradley; Burlington, Mrs. M. A. Yelton, Mrs. Luther Roush, Mrs. Jack Caldwell, Robert Ellis, Mrs. William Rudicill; Constance, Mrs. Jerry Kottmyer, Mrs. Charles Herbstreit; Union, Mrs. Warren C. Miller, Jr., Mrs. A. A. Ch. Furore Fieldmarshal Goes To Show Horse Acres In Burlington

In the process of building one of the top boxer breeding establishments in the tri-state area, the Paul DeLott's of Show Horse Acres, Burlington, Ky., have acquired the good fawn and white Ch. Furore Fieldmarshal from Alnicka Kennels, of Hamilton, Ohio. He goes to head a galaxy of top bitches, among them Amber Von Neff by Ch. Neff of Cross Acres and Anicka Beau Rita by Ch. Nikkwo of Cross Acres, also obtained from Alice Deckbach.

Show Horse Acres is also proud to present Flash Falcon of Volkbox, a most colorful red and white male recently acquired from Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hannaford of Kenwood. The acquisition of Fieldmarshal, currently siring a crop of the top dogs in this area, catapults Show Horse Acres in to the position of first or second high boxer nursery in the Commonwealth of Kentucky. This grand dog is by Ch. Topper of Dan Mar, out of Furore Beryl.

An extensive promotion campaign is planned and modern accommodation for visiting matrons are available. Convenient air transportation facilities via the Boone County Greater Cincinnati Airport, is provided within a mile or more of the plant. Donnie (Fieldmarshal) will stand to selected bitches at $75. Flash, $50.

The season is fast approaching when a man, who gets sore at his wife, can go to the ball park and take out his peeve roasting the umpire.

One Hundred Three Pints Of Blood Given April 30th

Total of 443 Pints Collected In Boone County Since June.

When the Bloodmobile visited Burlington on Wednesday, April 30 under the auspices of the Boone County Red Cross 103 pints of blood were collected for use by the Department of Defense in all parts of the world where United States troops are stationed.

Wednesday's collection brought the total to 443 pints of blood collected in Boone County since the project was started in October.

One more visit is scheduled in Boone County in June with the quota for the Boone County Red Cross set at 500 pints for the year which will end July 1st. It is expected that this last visit will put Boone County well over the quota set.

Plans are being made to continue the blood program next year and for as many years as blood is needed by the armed forces and veterans hospitals. The Bloodmobile will continue to come to Boone County at various towns as it has done this past year. The dates and locations will be announced at a later date.

Total of 292 Boone Countians Receive Insurance Checks

Under Federal Social Security Program, According To Report.

Checks for insurance payments under Federal Social Security went to 292 aged persons, children and their widowed mothers in Boone County for December 1951.

In releasing these figures today, Joseph T. Ware, manager of the Covington, Kentucky Social Security Office, also said that these monthly payments under the Old-Age and Survivors Insurance program amounted to $10,218.00 in this area.

"Without these payments earned by workers under this contributory system, the ability of many people to pay for necessities would have been drastically curtailed or entirely ended," he said.

More than one-third of all people over 65 in the United States who could not count on income from work for support, were getting social security benefits. About 221 persons over age 65 in Boone County were receiving these payments.

Mr. Ware pointed out that this Federal program is affording substantial survivor insurance protection. Three out of every four mothers and young children in the nation are now assured of monthly payments if the insured breadwinner of the family dies.

In this connection, he cited monthly payments totaling $2,018.00 to 59 children, and 12 widowed mothers in the Boone County area. These monthly payments are going to families deprived of earned income by the untimely death of the wage earner. They are making it possible to keep families together, and keep children in school, and at the same time, lessening the drain on both public and private welfare funds, he declared.

The Northern Kentucky Social Security office is located in the Post Office Building, 7th and Scott Sts., Covington, Ky. Phone Hemlock 5274.

Memorial Poppy Honor Dead Of Three Wars

May 17 Announced As Official Poppy Day Observance.

When you put on a memorial poppy on Poppy Day you will be paying individual tribute to those who have died for America in the three wars of the twentieth century," said Mr. Clara Scott, president of the Boone Unit of the American Legion Auxiliary, as the Auxiliary continued its preparations for the annual observance of Poppy Day here May 17.

Although the custom of wearing poppies in honor of the war dead sprang from World War I when the little red flowers grew in such profusion between the crosses, row on row in the war cemeteries in Europe, the flowers have come to symbolize sacrifice of life for America wherever it occurred. We wear the flowers for those who died in the Far Pacific in World War II, as well as those who gave their lives in the European theater where the poppy is a native wild flower. And now we wear them, too, for the dead of the Korean conflict.

When we think of the war dead, we naturally think of those who did not die but suffered disabling wounds or illnesses in defense of our country. Wearing poppies enables us to help these disabled veterans, and the children of veterans who also have privation and hardship because their fathers served. The contributions made on Poppy Day not only pay the disabled veterans who shape the little crepe paper flowers, but form the chief source of support for the vast rehabilitation and child welfare programs carried out continuously by the American Legion Auxiliary.

Poppies were first worn to honor the nation's war dead in 1918, and the custom of contributing to the welfare of war's living victims in exchange for the flowers was begun the following year. This year we hope to see poppies over heart as we honor the dead and aid the disabled on Poppy Day.

Mr. Davis said that he would go to Washington for a short orientation period and for the various immunization shots required for service in that particular part of the world. Immunization shots for yellow fever, smallpox, typhus, typhoid and cholera are required, he said.

Davis, and a widowed aunt, the late Mrs. Martha F. Boyd. A graduate of Lloyd Memorial High School, Erlanger, and the College of Agriculture, University of Kentucky, Mr. Davis' first assignment was as Assistant County Agent in Boone County shortly after the close of World War II. From here he went to Hardin County, Ky., as assistant county agent, and when Holly R. Forkner, former Boone County Agricultural Agent resigned his position early in 1947 to accept a similar position in Woodford County, Mr. Davis returned to Boone County as County Agent.

He served in England, France and Germany in the Air Corps for four years during World War I, as armament officer with the rank of First Lieutenant.

Bolte To Visit Erlanger Thursday, May 15th

Edward J. Bolte, field representative of the Social Security Administration will be at the Post Office in Erlanger from 10:00 to 11:00 a. m. on Thursday, May 15th.

If you desire to file a claim for Old-Age and Survivors Insurance Benefits, or if you have any problem in regard to Social Security, Mr. Bolte will be glad to help you. He explained that the amendments to the Social Security Act passed in 1950 provide for a new method of figuring benefits when the worker has had about a year and a half of work after 1950. The new formula bases the Social Security benefit on the average monthly wage beginning January 1, 1951 instead of averaging the wages all the way back to January 1, 1937. In many cases this will result in a higher average monthly wage and consequently in higher benefits. When it does not, the old method of figuring benefits will be used. The old method will continue to be used when persons worked about a year and a half after 1937 but have not had six quarters of coverage under the new law. Present benefits will not be raised generally unless the worker is under 75, has returned to work, and has been paid at least $50.00 in wages in not less than 12 months since August, 1950.

During 1952 there may be a difference in benefit depending on when the application is filed, Mr. Bolte said. He urges everyone who is 65 or over and plans to retire in 1952 to contact a social security representative so that an explanation can be made as to the best time to file his application. In the case of self-employed people retiring this year, their benefits will be generally lower if they apply before January 1, 1953. For further information write to the Social Security Administration, Room 19 Post Office Building, Covington, or call Hemlock 5274.

Clear Creek Mountain Preachers Bible School Plans Expansion Program

The constant urge of mountain men to answer God's Call to, "Go ye and preach," is taxing the facilities of Clear Creek Mountain Preachers Bible School, located near Pineville, Ky. Despite the 19 cottages, built by 17 volunteers in one day last year, in observance of the school's 25th anniversary, requests for admission to this unique institution exceed accommodations. The Board of Trustees has decided to meet this challenge and voted recently to launch a $1,000,000 capital fund campaign, which will include all of Kentucky and the adjacent states. Funds will be sought from individuals, businesses, foundations and other friends of the school.

Kentucky will be divided into eight districts, with offices opening May 12, in Ashland, Bowling Green, Covington, Lexington, Louisville, Owensboro, Paducah, and the Clear Creek District will share the office of the State Headquarters, located in Middlesboro, which has been functioning since March 31.

An administration building, auditorium, 25 four-room cottages, community center, central heating plant and an infirmary are some of the most needed facilities. A considerable fund could be used repairing roads and bridges and buying furnishings for dormitory and classrooms.

The Mountain Preachers Bible School is unique in accepting men who manifest their faith in God and desire to preach, regardless of their educational background. Most of them have less than grade school training, are married and have children and their average age is thirty years. They cannot meet the entrance requirements of college or theological seminary and were it not for this supplementary institution, these native preachers would be forever barred from serving God in the mountains, where over 6,000,000 people live. Evidence of its value, Clear Creek Mountain Preachers Bible School has grown from 12 students in 1926 to 178 in 1952. They come from 18 states and Ontario, Canada. More than 2,000 preachers have received training at this school.

What Constitutes A Good Pasture, Explained By Soil Supervisors

A good pasture may be defined as an area of land that when properly treated will produce enough forage in a year's time to make at least 200 pounds of meat or its equivalent in milk on a per acre basis.

To obtain this goal we need to select a mixture of grasses and legumes that are adapted to our soil and climatic conditions. Grasses and legumes that will form a dense sod and will protect the land throughout the year, plants that are noted for long growing periods and will be both high yields and tasty to the animal. They should be free of weeds and bushes, and smooth enough to mow.

The quickest and easiest way to get started on a pasture program that will give you these described features is to contact your local Soil Conservation District Supervisors that you will find living throughout Boone County. They are: H. E. White, Burlington; Joseph A. Huey, Union; William Presser, Burlington and Stanley Eichholz, Union.

As the governing board of your local Soil Conservation District, they will take your application and with the aid of technicians, Floyd E. Kells and Kendrick Keith of the Soil Conservation Service will prepare with you a complete soil and water conservation farm plan.

Through aid furnished by the Soil Conservation Service a capability map will be prepared for you by a soil scientist; this is merely a land inventory of your farm, giving you such information as soil type, percent of slope of different fields, and amount of erosion that has already taken place.

As you and your local Soil Conservation Service technician walk over your farm, field by field, and acre by acre, he prepares with you a land use map; this will give you by number your different fields, acreage, existing fences and proposed fences that you and the technician may decide upon. As you and he decide upon treatment and management to be given each field, this is written in narrative form, which gives you an easy to follow guide, year by year.

You may wonder what is my cost for this complete soil and water conservation farm plan? There is no cost to the farmer for the above information. Then you may ask what will be the value of this to me? As an example take pasture improvement, will your pasture, acre by acre produce 200 pounds of meat or its equivalent in milk? Figure this at the price of meat today, 200 pounds at 25 cents per pound equals $50.00.

Need For Foster Homes In Boone County Reported

According To Child Welfare Division; Worker
Visits County Weekly.

There are many unfortunate boys and girls, six years old and older in our state institutions today as well as children throughout the state in their own homes which are inadequate or undesirable. These children, victims of circumstances are just "biding their time" until a real home can be found for them, a foster home where they will receive the individual love attention that only devoted parents can give, along with the privilege of a normal happy family life. This is every child's right.

These children who are "lost" in our institutions have been denied this right by their natural parents, who for some reason are unable to give their children a good home. The children then must turn to "substitute parents."

Are there any of these free foster homes in Boone County? Are there any happy, well adjusted couples who realize the need of a child who is at present looking forward to nothing more than growing up in a state institution, who also recognize the possible happiness and satisfaction they themselves will gain from opening their home to a foster child?

The Child Welfare Division is anxious to place as many as possible of these children in homes of their own and to give them parents who belong to them and the knowledge that this security will last.

If you are interested in opening your home to an older child on a permanent basis, will you get in touch with your local Child Welfare Worker, Miss Glenrose Swango, second floor court house, in Public Assistance office. Miss Swango is in Boone County each Wednesday.

A CUSTOMER'S POINT OF VIEW

We saw a cartoon recently showing a lady at a Teller's window in a bank and she said:

"When are you bankers going to catch up to the times? If the Government runs on a deficit, why can't I be overdrawn?"

That lady had something there.

Big fields are covered in a hurry with this new 4-row cultivator that makes full use of WD Tractor power.

With this outfit, you're ready to go in minutes. Rugged hinged frame opens like a gate for easy drive-in mounting. Power-shift rear wheels move out to proper tread width by engine power.

In the field, parallel linkage with precision bearings assure even depth cultivation, no dodging of hard spots or big weeds. Gauge wheels give accurate control of outer gangs. Hydraulic lift has delayed action for rear bar.

Here's the 4-row cultivator to match the new WD 4-row planters.

Bids For New High School Building To Be Received June 10

College Preparatory Courses Will Be Offered Under New Set-Up.

Sealed bids will be received June 10th at the office of the County Clerk of Boone County on the new Boone County High School which is to be erected on the west side of Price Pike, Florence.

Bids will be received for furnishing material and performing labor for the execution and construction of the project. The building will be of brick, concrete and steel construction, according to H. N. Ockerman, County Superintendent.

When the new building is completed rooms in the four schools which were formerly used by the high school students will be converted into elementary classrooms, thereby relieving the crowded elementary condition.

In the new high school will not only be found a complete college preparatory course in which boys and girls will enroll if they want to seek advanced education, but also a complete course of study in each of the following fields: Commerce, vocational agriculture, home economics, industrial arts, and a well-rounded general high school course.

In the designing of this building, due to the uncertainties of population movements and educational developments, maximum flexibility in size and type of construction was provided for. This building can be expanded readily for future additions.

There will be ten general classrooms to vary in size, and to be of a flexible nature so that the size may be changed to meet specific needs. There will be two commercial rooms with glass partitions, one devoted to typing and the other for commercial subjects. Students may be permitted to practice typing when the instructor is in the next room teaching, and the instructor can still supervise the work done in the typing room.

The science room will be designed for the teaching of general science, biology, and physics; and as the program advances the adjoining classroom can be converted into an additional science room. The vocational agriculture and home economics rooms are to be located on the first floor.

The library of the new school will seat approximately sixty students. Mr. Ockerman stated, and will have open stacks, study area, librarian station and an adjoining librarian work room.

Besides all the above rooms the new structure will have an auditorium, gymnasium, music room, two public rest rooms, four student rest rooms. A large cafeteria and kitchen will be one of the features of the structure.

The building will be a two-story structure and is so arranged as to separate the classrooms from the social areas. For instance when the public uses part of the building for a social function the remaining part is isolated from the crowd.

The playgrounds will boast a modern football stadium, baseball field and many other spots for various sports. A large parking area will also be located on the grounds.

The building when completed will be one of the most modern high schools in Kentucky.

A complete advertisement of bids for the new structure will be found on another page of this issue.

Mr. and Mrs. Winfred Huey, of Cincinnati, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Huey, of Louisville, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Huey and Mrs. Anna Huey were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Easton.

Cincinnati Youths Placed On Probation After Stealing Truck

Two Cincinnati boys, were placed on a one-year probationary period Friday under the supervision of Hamilton County, Ohio, Juvenile authorities when arraigned before Judge C. L. Cropper in Boone County Court on a charge of stealing a truck from the farm of V. W. Gaines of Taylorsport, Thursday night. The vehicle was wrecked when it crashed into a utility pole in Louisville, with damage estimated at $500. The boys were 13 years old.

Judge Cropper arrived at the decision to place the boys on probation after their parents promised to pay all damages on the truck and other expenses incurred. Mr. Gaines told the court that because of tender age of the boys he would not prosecute.

A Hamilton County juvenile officer was in attendance at the private hearing before Judge Cropper. The youths were arrested by Louisville police following the wreck, and released to Sheriff Wendell Easton of Boone County.

The boys were returned to Cincinnati by their parents.

Four Persons Killed In Head-On Crash Near Union Sunday

Bernard Brink One Of Victims; Three From Michigan Killed.

Four persons were killed and two children were seriously injured in a head-on collision of two cars on a curve at the Jones Service Station east of Union on U. S. 42 Sunday.

Bernard W. Brink, father of Janet Brink owner of the Lookout House, and three Michigan residents, Roy Mack Berryman, Frances Berryman and Clyde Dennis, all of Detroit, were the victims.

The Berryman children, Roy Jr., 6 and Pamela 3, were seriously injured in the accident. They were removed to St. Elizabeth Hospital, Covington. The boy suffered right leg and arm fracture and multiple head, face and body injuries, while his sister received a possible skull fracture and head, face, body and internal injuries.

Robert Gordon, Kentucky State Trooper, who was on the scene of the accident, the car driven by Mr. Berryman, crossed the center line on a sharp curve and crashed head-on into the car driven by Mr. Brink, which was traveling west.

The impact telescoped both automobiles, Gordon said, pinning all occupants in the wreckage. Robert Brugh, Boone County Coroner, state troopers and passing motorists worked 20 minutes in extricating the bodies from the twisted wreckage. A crowbar was used to free the children from the rear seat of the Berryman machine.

Trooper Gordon said Mr. Berryman's machine apparently was traveling at extremely high speed. It was reported that both gasoline tanks were ripped from the cars by pressure of impact.

Mr. Brink was reported to have died instantly. His neck and back were broken and his internal injuries were severe. He was enroute to his family near Union when the accident occurred.

Mr. Berryman and Mr. Dennis died in the crash it was reported, while Mrs. Berryman died enroute to the hospital.

Appeal Made By Red Cross For Used Clothing

An appeal is being made to the people of Boone County, not for money but for used clothing, it was announced this week.

The "Clothe the Needy" service was organized in December by the Boone County Chapter, American Red Cross and is under the county chairmanship of Mrs. Bert Markesbery. Headquarters are situated in St. Paul's school at Florence and is open each Thursday from 11:30 a. m. to 2:30 p. m.

This service has been worthwhile in Boone County and is expected to continue on a year round basis. It is interesting to note that this is the only chapter in the United States with this service which is pioneering in this project. The instructions for this service did not come from Washington but the Executive Secretary, Mrs. Elizabeth Goodridge Nestor seeing the need for assistance of this sort from the many contacts and home visits she has made to the needy in Boone County felt that something should be done along this line.

She appealed to Mrs. Bert Markesbery to take the chairmanship, which she graciously accepted, and today the service is a growing project in Boone County which has already clothed many families. Since appreciation is extended to Rev. Edward Carlin for the use of the school basement and to Mrs. Frank Lee Dills for the sewing machine which she gave for the cause.

Mrs. Markesbery has some clothing, but is asking that if anyone has used clothing to please bring it to her, as many of the needy have expressed their desire for clothing for their children in September when school re-opens.

Children's clothing is badly needed in all sizes. A plea is being made for material for underclothing and dressers. Feed sacks make beautiful dresses for girls, it was said. Boys' clothing is also very necessary.

Did you know that in Boone County, some children do not go to school because they do not have clothing to wear? This is the condition that the local Red Cross is trying to remedy. Nothing collected is taken out of the county. It is all taken to one location at St. Paul's school in Florence where it is mended and sized and made ready to give to the needy of Boone County.

Mrs. Markesbery wishes to thank the Idlewild Homemakers Club for a cash donation for this service which the club sent some time ago. Mrs. Markesbery used this money to buy material to make underclothing for children.

Charles K. Hail Funeral services for Charles K. Hail, 78, who operated a grocery at 104 Garvey Avenue, Elmore, were held at 1:30 p. m., Thursday at the Taliaferro funeral home, Erlanger. Burial was in Highland Cemetery, Ft. Mitchell.

Mr. Hail died Monday at Jewish Hospital, Cincinnati, after a short illness.

He is survived by his widow, Maude; a son, William Hail, St. Mary, O.; a daughter, Mrs. Saul Bauer, Cincinnati and three grandchildren.

Poppies Will Honor Nation's War Dead Saturday, May 17

American Legion Auxiliary Will Be In Charge of Sale.

"Wear a poppy to honor the war dead and aid war's living victims." This is the appeal that will be made to everyone in Boone County by the American Legion Auxiliary on Poppy Day, May 17, it has been announced by Mrs. Robert Groger, Poppy Chairman of Boone Unit of the Auxiliary.

Women of the Auxiliary will be on the streets throughout the day, offering the symbolic memorial poppies and receiving contributions for the Auxiliary's work in behalf of disabled veterans and needy children of veterans.

The poppies will be made by the women of the Auxiliary and will be sold for $1.00 per dozen. The poppies which grew "between the crosses, row on row," in the battle cemeteries in France and Belgium. They have been made for the Auxiliary by disabled veterans of both World Wars.

This year the poppy will have added significance because of the long lists of war dead from Korea which have been added to the heroic roll of those who have died for America. Also there will be increased need for the Poppy Day contribution because of the many thousands of young men disabled in the Korean fighting. It is hoped that everyone will understand that the memorial poppy means honor for the nation's war dead and aid for those suffering as a result of war service, and will wear one of the little red flowers proudly on Poppy Day.

MADE $18.70 MORE PROFIT PER HEAD
than steers on grass alone!

E. P. Toulmin & Son, Montgomery, Alabama, cattlemen, proved it pays to feed Purina Range Checkers to steers on grass in a split test with 236 steers. Checker-fed cattle went to market heavier, made better slaughter grades than steers fed pasture only. Checker-fed cattle maintained grade—gained 51 lbs. more per head in 127-day test... were worth more money, too! Cattle getting no supplement lost grade... gained less weight. Here's proof it pays to feed Purina Range Checkers on pasture. Next time you're in town, ask your Purina Dealer about Range Checkers.

Wesleyan College Scholarships Are Available, Is Word

Ten Boone County Students Eligible; Grants Are For One Year.

Scholarships are available for ten Boone County students who wish to attend Kentucky Wesleyan College in Owensboro.

These scholarships are awarded to first and second honor graduates of accredited high schools. There are no examinations required or other formalities except a certification by the high school principal and approval of the college scholarship committee.

The Freshmen scholarships are worth $150 for the school year and may be applied to tuition or other fees.

Dr. Oscar W. Lever, president of Wesleyan, said the purpose of these scholarships is to help students who have demonstrated their ability in high school to continue their education in college. Kentucky Wesleyan is particularly interested in obtaining students of this caliber.

In addition to the Freshmen scholarships, Wesleyan offers a number of other scholarships and grants-in-aid. These are awarded on the basis of achievement in a wide variety of fields, such as band, piano, voice, science, languages and literature, drama, physical education and other subjects.

All grants are awarded for one year on the basis of academic record, financial need, and the promise of future usefulness. No award is made until the student has applied for admission in the college, all necessary credentials have been presented and accepted. Awards may be renewed if the student demonstrates superior proficiency.

Owensboro also offers varied opportunities for part-time employment for students who desire to earn a part of their college expenses. Students interested in scholarships, assistantships or part-time employment should apply immediately to Ray N. Waggoner, Dean of Students.

Boone County Soil Conservation Notes

By Floyd E. Kells

Charles Allen White of Petersburg community explained a good conservation practice he used on his farm last year. He side-dressed his corn with ammonium nitrate. Using a one-horse drill he put in 125 pounds of 33% nitrogen per acre in the middle of the row, he ran 14 rows this way, then skipped 14 rows and repeated the operation. The side-dressed corn had an increase in yield of 15 bus per acre. "I can put in less corn acreage this way and have more of my land in pasture and hay," he explained. He has seeded 15 acres of improved pasture this spring.

Charles Woods of Mt. Zion Road has requested some assistance in staking out guide lines for contour cultivation of his corn.

S. D. Edwards of Union has broken his land on contour this year, he plants his corn this way. Mr. Edwards has also "top dressed" 10 acres of Ky. 31 Fescue with ammonium nitrate. Results can easily be seen as you drive south on U. S. 42 highway out of Union.

George Slayback, of Union has just completed constructing two terraces in one of his fields. This practice will save soil, water and fertilizer. Permanent guide lines for contour cultivation are always assured when this practice is followed. Lassing Huey did the construction for him in about 3 hours with a 3-disk plow.

Dr. A. J. Vesper is doing some bush and bog harrowing on his farm at Limaburg. He plans to use Sudan grass for summer pasture and then seed a cover crop this fall. He will seed his pasture mixture in the Spring of 1953.

It is our feeling that our citizens are entitled to the fullest welcome at our parks."

"The second reason is a matter of consistency. With 24 parks and shrines in the State's system these were the only four on which gate admission charges were still in effect."

Admission charges at the museum, also in the state parks, will be continued, the commissioner said.

Receipts from these charges are used in the maintenance and operations of the museum.

Preliminary Survey Of Water District Show Possibilities

Percentage of Signers Far Beyond Requirements, Says County Judge.

A preliminary survey of the Hebron, Florence, Limaburg and Hebron territory in regard to forming a water district for Boone County shows that a large majority of local residents favor the move.

Judge C. L. Cropper, stated that in this area more than 300 have signed petitions for the Water District, which is far above expectations and far beyond requirements, as only 75 signers were needed, he stated.

The Boone Fiscal Court authorized a survey of the district several weeks ago, at which time Engineers were contacted and employed to make the survey.

In order to proceed with the survey of the Water District must be formed and appointment of water commissioners. A complete notice of this procedure will be found on another page of this issue.

Preliminary tests show that there is a large supply of water in the North Bend Bottoms area, where it is expected that sufficient water could be obtained from driven wells, to supply Boone County and neighboring cities in Kenton County.

Much progress has been made on the project, Judge Cropper reported. If the project is finally approved and set into motion, it would require approximately two years to have the area supplied with water through the system, it was reported.

Indiana Woman Killed In Accident Near Florence Sun.

Sister of Victim Also Injured; Driver Is Held Following Accident.

Miss Nellie Noel, 19, of Madison, Ind., was killed in an unusual automobile accident on U. S. 42 one mile west of Florence early Sunday and her sister, Mrs. Neva Stockdale, also of Madison was injured in the accident.

The sisters had parked their automobile at the edge of the highway and were in the ditch, when Ralph Oder, 25, of Gloucester, Ky., blinded by the lights of an approaching car, lost control of his vehicle, crashed into the ditch and hit the women, according to Sheriff W. H. Easton, who was called to the accident. The accident took place at 1:10 a. m. Mr. Easton reported.

Oder was charged with involuntary manslaughter, and was released under $1,000 bond pending a hearing in Boone County Court.

William McEvoy, Boone County Attorney, said he was investigating details of the accident, and due to the unusual circumstances, Coroner Robert Brugh, withheld his verdict.

Auto Taxes Now Cost More Than All State Taxes In 1944

Much of Tax Burden Placed on Motor Vehicle Owners.

Motor vehicle registration fees and gasoline taxes paid into the state treasury now cost the people of Kentucky more each year than the total of all state taxes cost them in 1944, according to Donald F. Nemitz, Secretary of the Kentucky Tax Research Association.

"This shows how the state tax burden has grown in recent years," he said, "and it also shows how much of this burden has fallen on motor vehicle owners."

Registration fees and the state gasoline tax brought in $48,282,000 to Kentucky last year, Mr. Nemitz said. This tops the state's total tax receipts including automotive taxes of $48,260,000 in 1944, he added.

Besides these state highway user taxes, the federal government levies a whole series of excises on new cars, tires, tubes, parts, accessories and lubricating oil, plus an extra two cents a gallon gasoline tax, he explained.

"In combination, federal and state gasoline taxes total 9 cents on every gallon purchased in Kentucky," he said, "making this the heaviest part of the special tax burden of most car-owners here. These levies alone produced in 1951 $41,468,000 for Kentucky and $11,848,000 for the federal treasury, a total of $53,316,000 in gasoline taxes paid by Kentuckians in 1951."

Florence Council Discuss Water Problem at Meeting

Immediate Relief Is Needed, According To City Engineer.

The City Council of Florence discussed the water shortage suffered by residents of this area during the past weeks, at the meeting held in Florence last week.

Earle Metcalfe, Executive Director of the Kenton County Taxpayers League, who is trying to effect a solution of the water situation, met with the trustees.

He asked how many of the Florence residents would be willing to pay $2 a month for their water. When asked by a resident where he would get the water, Mr. Metcalfe replied that several plans were being investigated.

Noel Walton, City Engineer, told the group that the present water situation in Florence was a matter of finding immediate relief for the water shortage. He proposed that the trustees authorize a study of the feasibility of constructing a grade storage tank with a capacity of from 125,000 to 200,000 gallons.

Mr. Walton explained that this would be a completely sanitary, covered, water-storage reservoir. The reservoir would be filled during periods of low water demand, usually after midnight. The water would not be turned into the Florence mains, he said, until the regular supply got below normal. It would not be necessary to empty the reservoir completely on any one occasion, he said.

"The ultimate solution of the Boone County water situation," Mr. Walton said, "is by the creation of the proposed Boone County water district." He said he had been informed reliably that there was a good showing of water in the North Bend bottoms of Boone County and that the proposal looked feasible.

Ervin L. Bramlage, City Attorney, informed the town trustees that a meeting had been suggested for the town boards of Erlanger, Elsmere and Florence at the Kenton Terrace, Dixie Highway, at 8:00 p. m. May 22 to discuss the water situation further. The trustees voted to attend the meeting.

Trustees present were: George R. Scott, chairman, Dr. John B. Tetter, Bradley Sayers, Frank Trego, and Don Mager, and William Fitzgerald, town clerk.

Ohio Will Retain School For Reserve Aviators, Report

Plans Shelved For Two Million Installation At Boone Airport.

Plans have been shelved for building a $2,207,000 reserve training center at Greater Cincinnati Airport it was announced last week after an investigation by a subcommittee of the House Armed Services Committee.

Three members of the subcommittee flew to the Greater Cincinnati airport and to the Clinton County base recently.

The Air Force had contended it wanted to leave Clinton for the field in Boone County because there was not enough close-in population at Clinton to provide the 2,232 part-time soldiers it proposes to train. The Air Force uses a 25-mile radius as rule of thumb for such calculations.

Representative Brent Spence in commenting on the decision of the subcommittee said, "that air base is not going away from Kentucky, if I can help it."

Mr. Spence stated he will do all he can to make sure the Air Force goes through with its original plans to set up a reserve training center at the Greater Cincinnati Airport in Boone County.

Workers Given Praise For Part In Collecting Blood

General Omar Bradley Points Out Need For Blood.

The necessity of giving of blood is shown by the following statement by General Omar W. Bradley, released by the Department of Defense:

"Americans are rather proud and as you know they hate to plead for help. This is especially true of the soldiers, sailors and the airmen—the men who defend this nation."

"But today we are so short of the blood that is needed to properly take care of the wounded in Korea and our blood plasma reserve stocks are so low that I am cautions any soldierly pride aside—speaking on behalf of these men—for your contribution of blood."

Just before Christmas, the American response was generous. But the number of donations has dropped alarmingly. There must be a continuing supply—and we need blood plasma reserves for any emergency.

"If you have given blood, you have undoubtedly saved an American life. It is one item that all the taxes, all the industry and science and technology of this country cannot produce for our soldiers. This life-saving blood can only be given by you."

Your contribution can accomplish so much. When you give you will know the full meaning of the words which we so often hear in church—"It is more blessed to give than to receive."

The next time the Bloodmobile comes to Boone County, please remember to give blood. If you think you might forget at the time, call Mrs. Allen Gaines, Walton 33, Boone County Red Cross Chapter Chairman and County Blood program chairman or Mrs. Elizabeth G. Nestor, Florence 84, Executive Secretary. Have your name put on the list of prospective donors for the next visit and you will be notified when to come.

Give your gift of blood to save a life.

Constant Watch Should Be Kept for Blue Mold Disease

Spray or Dust Twice A Week With Fomate Will Control Disease.

Tobacco growers have voiced considerable concern over a disease that is attacking many tobacco beds. While many feel the yhave Blue Mold, none of this disease has definitely been found in the county. Most growers are having trouble with Wildfire that causes rotting of the leaf tips and spotting throughout the leaf. This disease is aggravated by the continued wet weather. There is no treatment for this disease now that the plants are nearly ready to set. The only thing to do is try to set out plants that show no symptoms of the disease.

Blue Mold may attack beds at anytime and growers should keep constant watch for the disease particularly if the weather turns warm and muggy. The treatment for Blue Mold is to spray or dust twice a week with Fomate from the time the disease is first reported until setting is completed. For spraying mix 3 tablespoonsful of Fomate with each gallon of water and spray 6 gallons of the mixture on 100 feet of 9 foot bed. For larger quantities mix 1/2 pound of Fomate with 5 1/2 pounds of talc (or Fullers earth or pyrophyllite) and apply 2-3 pounds of the dust to 100 feet of 9-foot bed. Do not mix with lime.

When spraying or dusting be sure to get the material on the underneath side of the leaves. Do not spray with a sprayer that has been used to spray 24D or any other type of weed or bush killer.

Growers who suspect they have Blue Mold would do well to start a spraying or dusting program until they have the disease definitely identified.

Many families fairly

"live out of a freezer"

... and enjoy better meals
while they're saving money!

Some folks buy most of their food... others raise most of theirs on the farm... but in either case, when there's a big home freezer to store quantities of food, setting a good table becomes less of a problem, and they're saving money on quantity buying. There's always plenty of work for both the men and womenfolk on a farm... and when Mother can cut hours off her food preservation time (freezing fruits and vegetables is so simple and quick)—it's just plain common sense that she should have a home freezer!

See your appliance dealer SOON, and select a home freezer roomy enough to take care of your family's food requirements.

RESOLUTION

Whereas, Valley Drive and Fair Court, in the City of Florence, are in serious need of street improvement and the present condition is hazardous to pedestrian and vehicular traffic and the residents on said streets have petitioned the City Council of Florence for the improvement of said Valley Drive and Fair Court.

Now, therefore, be it resolved by the City Council of Florence, Kentucky, that Valley Drive for a distance of 692 lineal feet extending from U. S. Highway 25 to the end of the first subdivision, and Fair Court from its intersection with Valley Drive northwardly a distance of 480 lineal feet be reconstructed as follows: The existing narrow base on said streets will be scarified and reshaped, the earth removed from each edge of said base and sufficient stone added and rolled in place on said edges and on the surface existing to bring said base up to the minimum standards of the City of Florence. Proper drainage and crown will be constructed and the completed base will be given a surface treatment of RC 3 oil applied hot at the rate of .6 gallon per square yard. When this surface treatment has cured, a road mix surface shall be constructed by spreading 80 tons of stone chips along said treated base, and 1350 gallons of MC 3 oil will be applied hot and mixed in place uniformly over said base with a patrol grader, and rolled to proper crown and compaction.

Be it further resolved that said improvement is necessary for the safety, convenience and comfort of the residents on said Valley Drive and Fair Court.

Be it further resolved that said improvement be classed as a stage improvement. The installation of curbs and gutters and storm and sanitary sewer drains are necessary before the street improvement will be complete.

Be it further resolved that 60 feet of the footage of each corner lot which sides on an intersecting street will be exempted from assessment and that such cost be borne by the City of Florence.

Be it further resolved that a copy of this resolution be published in at least one issue of a newspaper of general circulation in the City at least thirty days before the passage of the ordinance ordering the improvement herein described.

Passed, adopted and ordered published this 13th day of May, 1952.

G. R. SCOTT, Mayor.

Attest: William Fitzgerald, Clerk.

How to spot an expert

An expert makes hard work easier.

When it comes to hauling, a GMC truck is your expert—for this very sound reason:

GMC—as the world's largest exclusive manufacturer of commercial vehicles—concerns itself 100% with the development of new and better ways to transport goods.

Each model is the careful answer to specific, tough hauling problems.

The new GMC "302" engine is a case in point. In addition to being America's highest-compression standard gasoline truck engine—it packs more horsepower for its weight than any other on the road! The result is savings in useless "dead weight" by as much as 500 pounds over other engines of equal horsepower.

It's this kind of expert engineering that makes us sure of one thing: whatever model you select at our showroom—panel or pickup, stake rack or platform—you'll have an expert on your next job!

READY FOR DISTRIBUTION

Frankfort, Ky.—Kentucky's 1952 enactments of the General Assembly—229 new laws and 383 pages—will be available for distribution much earlier than usual this year, it was announced today by Robert W. Meagher, chief reviser with the Statutes Revision Commission. Initial copies will be ready this week. Usually it is several months before the official printed Acts of the General Assembly are off the press. This year, the Statutes Revision Commission has compiled several hundred copies through a duplicating process, for the convenience of lawyers and interested officials. Search Made For Accident Witness By Local Officials

Strange Happenings Reported At Scene of Tragedy.

The death of Miss Nellie Noel, 19, of Madison, Ind., victim of a high way accident on U. S. 42 near Florence, Sunday, May 18 was being thoroughly investigated by county officials this week.

At the request of W. P. McEvoy Boone County Attorney, Judge C. L. Cropper continued the examining trial in the traffic fatality until June 20th.

Investigation disclosed that the state police were advised prior to being informed of the accident in which Miss Noel was killed, that a passing motorist observed two persons attempting to place another person in the trunk of an automobile at about the place where the fatal accident occurred.

A search is being made for a Negro man, who stopped at the tourist home and suggested that the operator inform authorities of the incident. The motorist stated he was on his way to Louisville. State police, when on their way to investigate the mysterious occurrence, were notified by radio to go to the scene of the fatal accident which police said was in approximately the same place.

Miss Noel was struck by an automobile driven by Ralph Oder, 25, Glencoe, who told local authorities that he was blinded by the lights of another automobile which was approaching partly on the wrong side of the road. Oder swerved his car off the road, striking Miss Noel and her sister, Mrs. Neva Stockdale, who were in the ditch near the side of the road.

Notes and Comments From the Editor's Desk

Some Difference

Many newspapers recently carried an article by William L. Ryan of the Associated Press which dealt with conditions in Moscow. It was based on information gained from a man who had recently left the Soviet capital. According to him, the Kremlin makes a point of raising living standards a trifle each year. Even so they are far below the level in the United States and many other nations. A constant barrage of propaganda is employed to convince the Russian masses that "nobody" else in the world ever had it so good.

Mr. Ryan dealt briefly with the situation in Russian retail stores. One leading department store, he wrote, "opens at about 11 a. m. At 9 a. m. there is already a queue running far back from the entrance. The store is invariably crowded, as are the food stores. There are some attractive displays in the windows, but usually the purchaser fails to find these items on the shelves."

Contrast this with the average American store—whether it be large or small, a chain or an independent. Long waiting lines are unknown, except in the case of some terrific bargain sale. There is plenty of goods for all who want to buy—and a very wide selection of styles, colors, qualities and so on. There are no phony window dressings—whatever is displayed there is on sale inside. If the consumer doesn't like one store, he is free to go to a competitor's shop. He could not do that in Russia, where everything is a state monopoly.

Next time you shop, whether for such daily necessities as food or for a season's wardrobe, think of the vast differences between freedom and communism. It should make you mighty glad you live here—not in the "workers' paradise" the Kremlin bosses.

Production For Freedom

A nationwide salute to the production miracles of America, which have made this country the bastion of the free world, will be given this fall.

This will show how the outpouring of materials from farms, factories, mills and mines under the American free enterprise system has made our country a world leader. It will highlight the great strides made by agriculture and industry since 1945.

The activities will be carried out under the banner of Production for Freedom, and they will center around the week of September 7-13.

With agriculture and industry hitting new production goals, it will be a startling story that every community has to tell.

The program has the endorsement of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States. The Chamber told its local groups: "Production for Freedom Week is designed to promote economic understanding and a better appreciation of the role of your business firms in the unique American system of Production for Freedom."

Since the availability of electric power has been a major factor in making this production possible, the electric theme will run as a current through the activities. Power use by manufacturers has increased 109 percent since 1940. The United States, with less than seven percent of the world's population, produces one-third of the world's goods. The American worker uses an average of 14,000 kilowatts of electric power a year to do his job—the equivalent of having 210 other men as helpers.

Every type of industry will participate in some form to tell the dramatic story of America's production might.

Resignation Of William Davis Effective May 31

Will Serve With U. S. Agricultural Dept. In India.

The resignation of William E. Davis, who has served as County Agent of Boone County since 1947, will become effective Saturday, May 31. Mr. Davis resigned at a meeting of the Boone Fiscal Court May 6th.

Mr. Davis informed the court that he had accepted a position with the U. S. Department of Agriculture for service in India under the Point Four Program.

He will leave for Washington, D. C., within the next few days for a short orientation period and for various immunization shots required for service in that particular part of the world.

His duties in India will be to give technical advice and assistance on agricultural production problems to one of the Indian state governments. He will fly to New Delhi, India sometime in July.

Joe Claxon, Assistant County Agent of Kenton County for the past five years has been named by the Fiscal Court to fill the vacancy caused by Mr. Davis' resignation. Mr. Claxon will take over his duties here June 2nd.

Mr. Claxon is a veteran of World War II, serving four years in the Signal Corps. He is a graduate of Owenton High School and the College of Agriculture, University of Kentucky.

Mr. Davis, upon completing his last week of work in our county, makes the following statement:

"I wish to take this opportunity to thank the people of Boone County for their sincere friendship and excellent assistance given me during my 5 1/2 years as County Agent. Without the assistance of the many men and women who have served as leaders in both the adult and 4-H and Older Youth programs very little progress could have been made. It is to these workers who have given their time that the credit for any progress made rightly belongs."

"Mr. Joe Claxon, who is succeeding me as County Agent, has over 5 years experience as an Assistant Agent in Kenton County. He comes to Boone County well qualified by education and experience and will do an excellent job of carrying out the extension programs."

"It is with considerable regret that I am making the change to another field of work and leaving the people who have assisted me while in the county."

"The people of Boone County are indeed fortunate to have men in their county offices who have foresight to see the advantages of a higher living standard for farm people and will appropriate sufficient sums of money to provide services for their benefit."—William E. Davis.

Pfc. John Carroll Rogers, of Grant, Ky., who is stationed with the U. S. Air Force in Texas, is enjoying a 30-day furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rogers.

Only the ALL-CROP Harvester has air blast separation. Between cylinder and strawrack, shelled grain and straw are whirled upward in a high arcing blast of air. Kernels are thrown free from the lighter straw and chaff, separating much of the material even before it reaches the big ten-foot strawrack.

This extra separating action saves more grain, beans and seeds — puts more in the bin and more in your pocket. It's another reason why a New ALL-CROP Harvester belongs first on your list for '52.

PUBLIC WARNED OF QUESTIONABLE BARGAINS

Household items offered at substantial savings by one-man mail order houses may not be such a bargain after all.

Reports from throughout the nation indicate that numerous mail order businesses, operated from the home of some individual, are now mailing leaflets into the home of Mrs. Housewife.

Many who are attempting to operate a mail order business from their own home are perfectly honest in their efforts. They have purchased a mailing list and have been told that housewives are eager for their wares.

The Kentucky Retail Hardware Association warns housewives in the purchase of such merchandise. In the first place, postage and all considered, very little if any money is saved. Second, most manufacturers will not permit the distribution of their first quality merchandise through such channels, thus any of their goods received would be seconds.

Finally, even if a small amount should be saved on the purchase of some small appliance, where would Mrs. Housewife take it in case it should prove defective? The cost of repair would more than offset any savings.

Kentucky housewives are warned to check closely on the reliability of such home mail order operations before sending in their check. Their own hometown merchant offers the best bargains day in and day out.

Three Injured In Collision Near Florence Sunday

Three Autos Figure In Early Morning Accident.

Three motorists suffered severe injuries early Sunday morning in a three-car collision on Dixie Highway near Florence, according to police reports.

Those injured were Robert Hobbs, Miamiburg, Ohio, deep cuts on the left knee; Estill Stewart of 338 Baum Street, Cincinnati, shock, arm and foot cuts and Eugene Carter, Negro, Lexington, left wrist cuts.

Carter, driver of one of the cars involved in the accident, was unconscious upon arrival at the hospital. His companion, James Ford Perkins was treated for arm cuts. Robert Gordon State Trooper, who investigated the accident, said Carter lost control of his car on a curve, just outside of Florence. He was southbound.

Carter's automobile sideswiped one driven by Carl Gaines, Cincinnati, who was headed north, then smashed head-on into another northbound car, driven by Mr. Hobbs. Mr. Stewart was riding with Mr. Hobbs.

Both cars involved in the head-on crash were demolished.

Those injured in the collision were taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital, Covington by Ralph Stith of the Stith funeral home, Florence.

Two others cars crashed head-on about 100 feet south of the three-car wreck, while Trooper Gordon was investigating the accident. Occupants of both cars escaped injury, it was reported.

Drivers' Licenses To Be Distributed To Clerks By June 10

Penalty of $1.00 Set Up For Failure To Procure Licenses by July 31.

The new Kentucky drivers' licenses will be distributed to local Circuit Court Clerks by June 10, Robert A. Thompson, Local Relations Director, Department of Revenue, announced in Frankfort today. Circuit clerks are being asked to begin the sale of drivers' licenses as soon as possible after June 10th.

Earlier sale dates are planned this year as the result of a new provision in the law for $1 penalty for failure to obtain a renewal license on or before July 31, 1952. The law provides that no exemptions from the penalty be allowed.

Other important provisions in the law provide that some new licenses will be good for two years while others will be good for only one year. If your family name begins with the letters "A" through "K," your new Kentucky Motor Vehicle Operator's License will not expire for two years. Persons whose family names begin with the letters "L" through "Z" will be issued one year licenses this year, but will get licenses next year which will last for two years. The cost of the two year license is $2, and the one year license remains $1.00.

Persons in the military service who drive in Kentucky are required to have a Kentucky Motor Vehicle Operator's License except when operating an official vehicle on official business with a U. S. Government Operator's Permit.

Information Given Relative To Mail For War Prisoners

No Postage Necessary To Send Letters To War Prisoners In Korea.

The following information relative to known or suspected prisoners of war is released through the Boone County Chapter, American Red Cross:

In an effort to expedite deliveries during current truce negotiations, mail addressed to known or presumed United States prisoners of war will be carried by military aircraft from the United States to Korea by way of Japan. Up until now such mail has been carried by commercial aircraft and delivered at Hong Kong for eventual distribution through Communist channels. The new system entails no change in the existing method of addressing mail to prisoners of war although it is suggested that the name and number of the individual's prison camp, if known, should be added.

Mail should be addressed as follows: Grade, name and service number of the individual, in care of Chinese People's Committee for World Peace, Peking, China, name and number of prison camp if known.

Sender should place the letter in an envelope address as above. No postage is necessary. In the upper right hand corner of the envelope, write the words "Prisoner of War C. L. Cropper's Boone County Chapter, American Red Cross, 100 N. Main St., Burlington, Ky." in the upper left hand corner, the name and address of the sender. The sender should drop the letter in any U. S. mail box.

Under the revised system military aircraft will carry the mail to Japan to a military post office which will be located at a transfer point in Korea mutually agreed upon by the negotiators. Should the new system have to be abandoned for any reason, it was pointed out that the system of delivery by commercial aircraft through Hong Kong will be restored and the existing method of address will be unaffected. Humanitarian consideration prompted the installation of this system.

The Communist proposal for exchange of mail through Panmunjom, a possible channel which the Defense Department decided should be explored. The Department of Defense also pointed out that next of kin may reasonably expect to find Communist propaganda in letters delivered through Panmunjom. Such propaganda has been the rule in letters made available to the Department to date and is likely to continue. The numbers and names of prison camps in North Korea recently furnished by the Communists are as follows: 1, 3, Chiang-Song; 2, 4, 5, 7, Pyok-Dong; 6 and 9, Pyong-Yang; 8, Kang-Dong; 10, Chon-Ma; 11, Puk-Chin.

The Red Cross Chapter will inform the public of any further developments in connection with the work of the American Red Cross sent their representatives to strategic points in Korea so that in event a truce is negotiated and which will involve prisoners of war, that these prisoners will be turned over immediately to the American Red Cross for whatever assistance they may need, either physical or mental. Those needing medical assistance or requesting escort service will receive whatever they desire from the American Red Cross and each man released will be permitted to send a 50-word cable home through the Red Cross.

These and many more services are made possible through your financial donation to your Red Cross in the March fund drive. This is the American principle of neighbor helping neighbor through the Red Cross which is the only organization recognized by the United States government.

For assistance, the Boone County Red Cross is as close as your telephone, call Florence 84.

Large Crowd Attends Opening of Verona Lake Ranch Sunday, June 1

In spite of Bill Monroe's late arrival at Verona Lake Ranch Sunday, there was a large crowd to see the show at the late hour of 5:30. After a threatening sky cleared, there was no doubt about it being a good day for a picnic in the woods.

Some folks arrived as early as 7:00 in the morning and left about that hour in the evening. The young folks rolled and romped thru the woods, while the old folks talked over old times with friends and relatives.

According to Bill Scroggins, operator of Verona Lake Ranch, Sunday's crowd was the most patient one in his experience in show business. "What other type of audience would wait five hours for a show?" he said.

Bussie Huff and Bob Moore entertained the folks during the long wait and they received a good hand from the crowd. It was announced by Mr. Scroggins that a portion of the show this summer would be given over to amateurs, thus presenting a training program for future stars. Details will be announced later.

The Jimmie Skinner show this Sunday afternoon at 2:00 p. m. and 3:30 p. m. should be well attended judging by the fine turnout for his shows last year. Jimmie is one of the best liked radio stars, either on or off the stage.

Reclaiming Land Explained By Local Soil Supervisors

To enable a Boone County farmer to expand his farming business he must do it one of two ways. He may obtain more land either by buying or renting, or he must produce more on the land he now owns. As Boone County is rather thickly settled, and more and more people from the neighboring towns and cities move to the country and build homes this has driven land prices rather high. As a result we find the quickest, easiest and most profitable way to expand our business is increasing production of our present land.

On almost all of our farms we have land that is falling to pay its way from the standpoint of taxes alone. Because we are taxed for it, the better land has to carry this burden. Today with modern machinery, high analysis fertilizers, excellent adopted grasses and legumes, and technical know how, we find there is "gold in them thar hills," green gold that is—grass pasture, or forage, call it what you may, it is excellent food for more livestock.

Operating in our county at present, is one bush-bog harrow pulled by a large bulldozer; in the very near future another will be operating. These are excellent pieces of equipment to bring this land back to a high state of production. The bush-bog harrow is a great overgrown disk harrow, that has approximately 28" disk which are serrated or notched. Pulled behind a bulldozer, these bush-bog harrows cut the bushes and small trees up to 4"-5" into the soil. Larger trees are pushed down by the bulldozer blade and shoved ahead to be piled or put in the hollows. This operation should be done in the fall, winter, on the contour, to catch and hold winter rains in the soil and on the land. Usually this operation can be done at a per acre cost of $10-$15.

This land is now ready for your basic treatment of agriculture time which should be worked and incorporated into the upper layer of the soil in the following spring. As a rule 2 tons of lime per acre at a cost of approximately $4.25 per ton equal $8.50, will be sufficient. In the following spring ordinary farm equipment can be used to prepare a seed bed by dragging and disking. This cost will be about $4.00 per acre. As this disking is being done it would be an excellent time to apply fertilizer, 500 lbs. of 0-12-12 at $1.90 per hundred, $9.50 plus 500 pounds of superphosphate at $1.51 per hundred equals $8.05, and 100 pounds of 33% ammonium nitrate at $5.00 per 100 lbs., equal $5.00. Total $22.55. After a well formed seed bed is prepared, select your grasses and legumes. This cost will be approximately $10.50 per acre.

Total cost of reclaiming one acre of land:

Bush and bog harrowing, average $12.50; lime 2 tons at $4.25, $8.50; preparing seed bed $4.00; fertilizer $22.55; grass and legumes $10.50; total $58.05.

At first glance this appears rather high, but then what could possibly be the returns: 200 pounds of meat at $25.00 a hundred pounds $50.00 or 1½-2 tons of hay at $30.00 per ton, $45 to $60; or if you had seeded Ky. 31 Fescue and wanted to save seed—150-200 pounds at 35c per lb $52-$70.

If you are interested in starting a pasture improvement program contact your local supervisors of Boone County Soil Conservation District, Joseph A. Huey, Union; Hubert White, Burlington; Joe B. Heizer, Union; Stanley Eichholz, Union; William Presser, Walton, or technicians Floyd E. Kells, and Kendrick Keith of the Soil Conservation Service at Burlington, Kentucky.

"RELIEF HEIFER" BROUGHT TO CONSTANCE CHURCH

A one-year-old Holstein "Relief heifer" was brought to Constance, Ky., Church of the Brethren on May 4th by a Sunday School class from Trotwood, Ohio Church of the Brethren.

On the beautiful lawn of the Constance Church was the following dedicatory service:

A solo: "Help Me Find My Place," by Donald Inman.

Walter Smith, in his message said, "We are happy to promote this worthwhile project and to dedicate this heifer (1) To relieve hunger; (2) To promote goodwill; (3) To restore hope; (4) To help spread the Gospel of Jesus Christ to people in need."

The benefits to be derived from this gift: (a) Food values—the great need of milk for children; (b) Foundation stock; (c) Goodwill and restoration of hope."

Lawrence Shank, teacher of the Sunday School class, said, "The cattle of a thousand hills are mine sayeth the Lord." Psalm 50-10. "When we dedicate this heifer unto God, we are adding new responsibilities as stewards of God. As we accept these new responsibilities we should reconsecrate, rededicate our lives to God that this service to day may not be in vain."

"It is interesting to note, that the word heifer is mentioned 18 times in the Old Testament and once in the New Testament."

Mr. Howard Kuns, brother of Mrs. Orion Erbaugh, director of the church at Constance, had the closing remarks, having his sister and Mr. John Dolwick stand beside the truck, and he said, "This heifer is not yours, you are just caring for it, but it belongs to God."

The registered papers of the Holstein heifer were turned over to Mr. John Dolwick and "Constance," which is the name given the heifer was placed on the beautiful "Welcome-In" farm near the church. The heifer will remain here for one year and then will be shipped to a relief station.

The following is the Dedication Prayer:

Dedication Prayer
Father, hear our prayer just now As we dedicate this lowly cow. Add Thy blessings from above Upon this gift of brotherly love.

Might she in her lowliness, Before a messenger of Godliness To many, in a far off place, A help in bringing food and peace.

Bless all, those here, who had a share

In sending her way over there To stock a land so torn by war, We pray for peace forevermore.

Help those whom this gift receive To trust Thee, God, and to believe; Thou hast said, "Love one another" Help those in need, he is your brother.

We feel a sacredness somehow About the common lowly cow, For in the Holy Book 'tis said, The cattle shared the Christ child's bed.

So, Father, bless this gift of love With many blessings from above. Bless her with productiveness, Her new found land with Godliness. Amen

WORLD PRAYER DAY SET SUNDAY, JUNE 8TH

Millions of men and women of every race and creed in all lands will voice a world prayer next Sunday, according to Lay Servers Group, invoking divine will to guide people everywhere in this time of crisis. The Group announced this World Invocation Day would mark the most widespread use in history of a single prayer on a single day by people of all faiths.

"The Great Invocation" as the prayer is called, has been translated into 48 languages and distributed by volunteers throughout the world, two million copies in North America alone. It is being used by religious and educational institutions and organizations in 60 countries. The Group invites all people of goodwill to join in this World Invocation on June 8 for right human relations and true peace on behalf of all humanity:

From the point of Light within the Mind of God
Let light stream forth into the minds of men.
Let Light descend on Earth.
From the point of Love within the Heart of God
Let love stream forth into the hearts of men.
May Christ return to earth.
From the center where the Will of God is known
Let the purpose guide the little wills of men.
The purpose which the Master knows and serves.
From the center which we call the race of men
Let the Plan of Love and Light work out.
And may it seal the door where evil dwells.
Let Light and Love and Power restore the Plan on Earth.

Right To Examine Books And Records Upheld By Federal Judge.

The right of the Office of Price Stabilization to examine books and records of business concerns affected by its regulations has been upheld by Federal Judge John Knight in the U. S. District Court at Buffalo.

Judge Knight denied the argument of the Bleichfeld Bag & Burlap Co., Inc., of Buffalo, that the Defense Production Act of 1950 is unconstitutional. He also denied that OPS and its agents were "on a fishing expedition attempting to secure information to which they were not entitled."

The Court held that OPS is vested with authority and has the duty to enforce or administer the provisions of the Defense Production Act and the regulations and orders issued thereunder.

Student Cases Will Be Studied By Board

C. G. Kelly, clerk of Local Draft Board 108, Boone County stated that the job of reopening and reconsidering cases of students to determine their eligibility for further deferment as students will be studied in the near future.

Among points stressed by the local board is that students desiring deferments for the next academic year should make written request to their local board as soon as school is out, and also that they should request their school to issue Form 109 in their behalf, as it is the obligation of the school—not Selective Service—to keep the board informed as to the students' class standing.

The question of whether they will be given 30 days after the completion of their academic year to enlist in the service of their choice has been foremost in the students' mind. The answer, of course, is that a 30-day postponement is unnecessary this year because local boards must reopen each student case, reconsider it, and allow time for an appeal before issuing induction orders.

National Headquarters said that these routine procedures would afford students ample opportunity to enlist in the service of their choice. Also, there is nothing to prevent a student from enlisting in the service of his choice until he receives notice to report for induction, as the interservice agreement is under suspension until June 30 of this year.

Clore

Michael Clore, one of the colony of 1717, was a leader in the community and one of the first wardens of Hebron Church in which he took an active interest. He patented land in 1726, and again, with his son John, in 1728. His will, and that of his son Peter, were probated in the Culpeper county court on the same day in 1763. Michael names his wife, Elizabeth, and his sons, John and Peter; his grandchildren, (children of his daughter Catherine, who married Martin Wallick); his grandchildren, (children of his deceased son, George Clore); and his daughters, Agnes Margaret, married Michael O'Neale; and Margaret Clore, who married Paul Lederer.

The will of Michael Clore's son George was probated in 1751 in Culpeper county; he mentions his wife Barbara, and three children, all minors, Michael (Jr.), Peter (Jr.), and Elizabeth Clore.

Michael Clore's son Peters, whose will was probated in 1763, names wife Barbara, daughter of Adam, son of Nicholas Yager; and children, Adam, Solomon, Moses, Delilah, Elizabeth and Susanna Clore.

John Clore, probably Michael's oldest son, must have come to America with his father in the colony of 1717, for he proved his importation, and received his "head right" in the Spotsylvania court in 1728. He was twice married; his first wife, and probably the mother of all his children, was Dorothea Kaifer, daughter of Michael, who came to Virginia in the colony of 1717. John Clore's second wife was Catharine, whom he married in 1775 or before.

His will mentions children: 1. George, 2. Michael, 3. John, Jr., who married Margaret Blankenbaker, granddaughter of Nicholas; 4. Milly, 5. Anna, 6. Frances, and 7. Margaret Clore, who married Leonard Crisler. John Clore and his brother George, sons of Michael (Sr.), each had a son Michael, both born in Virginia about 1745-50; one Michael married and died in Madison County, Virginia; this will, probated in 1815, mentions five sons and four daughters, one of whom, Ann, married, 1802 in Madison County, John Fishback, a descendant of the Germanna Colony of 1714. The other Michael, believed to have been the son of John, married Margaret—they had a son Michael, who married Elizabeth Price in Virginia in 1793, and appears to have migrated to Boone County, Ky., where the will of a Michael Clore was probated in 1845. The will mentions wife Elizabeth, and children, Cave, Benjamin, Fanny (m. Griffith), Nancy (m. Hamilton), Polly (m. Deer).

Sallie (m. Goodridge), and Permelia (m. Wright). Cave Clore, son of Michael, married Lucinda Souther, daughter of Abraham and Elizabeth (Wilhoit) Souther in Boone County in 1830; their children, William, Abraham, Harrison, Johnson, Michael, Lucetta, Cave (Jr.), and Inez Clore. All of them lived, married and died in Boone County.

Levi Clore, grandson of John, married Polly Yager, daughter of John, in Madison County, Va., in 1800; his will was probated in Boone County, Ky., and mentions wife Polly, sons Adams and Isaacs, and Grandson Almond, son of Reuben Clore. William Clore, also a son of Levi, married Virginia Crisler, a daughter of Jonas, son of George, in Boone County in 1856.

In 1833 in Boone County, Judy Clore, daughter of Ephraim, grand-daughter of Peter, and great-granddaughter of Michael, the immigrant ancestor, married John Ephraim Utz, son of Aaron and grand-son of Ephraim Utz, a soldier of the Revolution.

Anna Clore, daughter of the first John Clore and his wife, Dorothea Kaifer, married William Wilhoit (Michael-Adam-Michel the immigrant) in Culpeper County, Va., in 1787. In 1800 they moved to Boone County, Ky. Their children: 1. Sally married John Souther, son of Jacob; 2. Elizabeth, married 1811, Joshua Souther, son of Jacob; 3. Thomas, married Parthenia Condy; 4. Anna, married John Carpenter; 5. Frances, married 1826, James C. Carter; their daughter, Frances Carter, married 1860, Thomas F. Hughes, and her sister, Eliza Ann Carter married Robert Wooden; 6. Allen Wilhoit, son of William and Anna Clore Wilhoit, married 1827, Lucinda Hightower; 7. Lavina Wilhoit, who married Benjamin White, and 8. Elza Wilhoit, who married James Aylor had no children.

Some of Michael Clore's descendants changed the spelling of their name to Glore; one of these was Jephtha Glore, son of Nathan Clore; Jephtha married Margaret Crisler, whose parents Silas Crisler and Mary Ann Shaver, were married in Boone County in 1808. Mary Ann Shaver's father, John, was a soldier in the Revolution.

Campaign To Aid Clear Creek Will Contribute To Cause of Americanism
The campaign to aid Clear Creek Mountain Preachers Bible School will be a definite contribution to the cause of Americanism, according to leaders in the movement who met at Lexington, recently.

Mr. Otis C. Amis, a Lexington business man and Kentucky state chairman in the campaign, told the group of district leaders present that the school has already sent out more than 2,000 preachers better prepared to serve rural churches and hence the entire nation.

Presiding at the meeting were C. Roy Johnson, president of Johnson and Associates, and John D. Barrow, state director, who are supervising the campaign. They announced details of the organization and how the district and county programs are to be carried on. Volunteer workers will approach individuals in all parts of the state to contribute to a million dollar fund for the school which is located near Pineville.

Dr. L. C. Kelly, president of the school, outlined the spiritual objectives of the school and how it works to aid preachers. He said eight states are represented in the enrollment for the summer which started May 20.

Mr. Barrow announced that the "kick-off" meetings would be held in the eight districts of the state during the week of June 23, and in the counties during the following week.

Former Boone County Man Named Chamber of Commerce Secretary

The following article was carried under a three-column head in the Clarion Democrat, Clarion, Pa., on Tuesday, May 27, 1952, when Harold Flick a former Boone County boy was named Chamber of Commerce Secretary. He is a graduate of Burlington High School. The article follows:

Harold A. Flick, a young man, who chose Clarion as a place to live because he liked the community's appearance and atmosphere, was elected as the secretary of the newly-formed Clarion Chamber of Commerce last week.

Announcement of his election to the vacant secretaryship followed voting by the Chamber's board of directors, according to CC president, Don Stroup.

The new secretary is already on the job, becoming acquainted with the Chamber's members and conducting a general survey of Clarion's business and promotional needs while doing so.

Mr. Flick's wife is the former Mary Alice Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith of Campbell avenue. They have two children, a son, four, and a daughter, two.

The Flicks had been living in Indiana, where Mr. Flick had been working in a traffic position with a large and nationally-known industry for four years.

He served as a Marine Corps first lieutenant during World War II, with 23 months of service as a freight transportation officer. He was recalled into service and was at Camp Lejeune, N. C., for another 16 months of service. His family returned to Clarion when he re-entered the service, and his second honorable discharge from the Corps was followed by his decision to make his permanent home here.

Mr. Flick is a graduate of Dartmouth College in business administration, graduating in the class of 1946. His hobbies—some of which may have affected his decision to remain in Clarion—include hunting, fishing, woodworking and mechanics.

He will be available to Chamber of Commerce members and others at the Chamber's offices on the second floor of the Wilson Building at Main Street and Sixth Avenue. His home is at 312 South Street.

Cadet Lealand Sullivan Will Attend Summer Camp

Cadet Lealand A. Sullivan, son of Mr. Nathan Sullivan, of Burlington is scheduled to report to Camp Gordon June 20-21 to attend the Signal Corps Reserve Officers Training Corps summer encampment.

Cadet Sullivan, a student at the University of Kentucky, is a member of the school's ROTC unit. His attendance at the six week long camp will be a major step toward qualifying him for a commission as a second lieutenant in the U. S. Army Signal Corps Reserve.

He is one of more than 1,000 ROTC students from almost 70 colleges and universities throughout the country who will receive intensive training in military subjects and the operation of Signal Corps communications equipment.

Climax of the encampment will come during its final week, when the cadets will participate in a field problem under simulated combat conditions.

Camp Gordon is a sprawling, 55,000-acre military reservation located near the historic city of Augusta, in Eastern Georgia. It is the home of the Signal Corps Training Center, where many of the army communications specialists are trained.

The ROTC cadets will be instructed by specially chosen and trained Regular Army officers and enlisted men.

The encampment will last until August 1, at which time the cadets will return to their homes.

325,000 kilowatts (435,600 horsepower) coming up! The Walter C. Beckjord Station near New Richmond, is the latest step in a $123,000,000 electric power expansion program begun in 1946. The first 100,000 kilowatt generating unit has just been put into operation. Two more units of 100,000 and 125,000 kilowatts, respectively, are scheduled for completion in 1953 and 1954.

For the dedication of the new Walter C. Beckjord Station is further evidence of the foresight which has always kept our supply of electric power ready, today, for the bigger job it must do, tomorrow

Down along the river, near New Richmond, a reassuring new hum can now be heard. It's the first of three gigantic new generating units in operation ... at the Walter C. Beckjord Station.

Why is it such a reassuring sound?

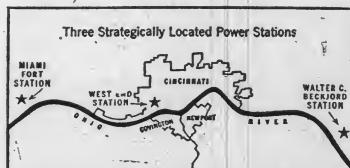

Because it tells you that your Gas and Electric Company is ready again ... as it was in 1941 ... with the electric power needed for expanding defense industries. Ready for the same reason: foresight.

Just as foresight got a new $6,500,000 generating unit under construction 15 months before Pearl Harbor, so was it responsible for starting the present $123,000,000 power expansion program six years ago.

That's why, by 1948, a new generating unit was in operation at the West End Station ... by 1949, another at the Miami Fort Station. And it's the reason the first giant unit at the new Walter C. Beckjord Station is ready, today, to add 100,000 (133,000 horsepower) more kilowatts to the electric muscle of this area.

By the time two additional units are in operation (they're scheduled for completion in 1953 and 1954), the system capacity will be up to 885,000 kilowatts—more than double the capacity available at the end of World War II.

Yes, what's happening today can give everyone in this area a lot of confidence in tomorrow.

As shown above, the three main power stations of The Cincinnati Gas & Electric Company are located along a 37-mile stretch of the Ohio River. These stations are spaced 18 miles apart. Miami Fort Station has a capacity of 346,000 kilowatts. West End Station generates 214,000 kilowatts. And, by 1954, the new Walter C. Beckjord Station will have a total capacity of 325,000 kilowatts. A grand total of 885,000 kilowatts (1,186,300 horsepower) for the industries, business establishments, homes and farms in this area.

Death Claims Should Be Filed Immediately

Some people in the Northern Kentucky area will lose their rights to social security lump-sum death payments if they delay making a claim after the end of this August. Joseph T. Ware, manager of the Covington social security office, directs this statement to survivors of insured persons who died outside the United States after December 6, 1941, and before August 10, 1946. Most of these were men who died in active service during World War II.

"In most cases, those who stand to lose the lump-sum payments are widows or other persons who paid the burial expenses for reimbursement in the United States and who have not claimed social security benefits on the deceased person's account," Mr. Ware says. He advises all such people to get in touch with the Covington social security office during June as no lump-sum payments can be made unless a claim is made before August 31, 1952, and the office expects to be unusually busy during July and August.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express and offer our sincere thanks and appreciation to our relatives, neighbors and dear friends who assisted in any way during the illness and passing of our dearly beloved one, James P. Tanner.

Especially do we thank our pastor, Rev. Amos W. Wilford Mitchell and Rev. Bradley for their consoling words and prayers at his funeral, also for their visits they made and beautiful prayers at his bedside; Russell Mitchell who called at our home each day and was always ready to help in any way to assist us and for the comfort of our dear one who passed on. We thank the organist and Fitzhugh Tanner, who rendered so beautifully the three solos that were his favorites, also that he and Fitzhugh had sung many times together on such occasions; also Dr. Daugherty for his prompt service of calls and untiring efforts to do all he could for Uncle "Jim" as he always addressed him; Mrs. Lloyd Aylor who was faithful to her uncle to the end, also her husband; my sister-in-law, Mrs. Powers, who came to us when we needed her most.

We thank all who sent him cards and letters during his illness and the many we have received since his passing; to each one that called to see him, he enjoyed their visits; to each donor for the many beautiful floral pieces; the pallbearers and Mr. Ralph Stith for his kindness and efficient manner he conducted the funeral services.

We love you all. Again we thank you all and may God bless every one of you.

Bloodmobile Will Visit Boone County Thursday, June 26

Unit Will Be At Walton In Cooperation With the Department of Defense.

On Thursday, June 26, the Bloodmobile will again visit Boone County under the auspices of the Boone County Chapter, American Red Cross to collect blood for the Armed Forces in cooperation with the Department of Defense. This visit will be made to Walton and hours will be from 1:00 p. m. to 7:00 p. m. These hours have proven most convenient to Boone County as so many persons work in Covington or Cincinnati and can give after work. It is believed that these hours suit the farmers better so that they will not have to leave their work during the daytime, and also that housewives can come during the afternoon hours.

The American serviceman has the best guns, tanks, planes, and ammunition that the high skill of our industrial workers can produce. However, the most important life-saving weapon cannot be manufactured—it must be given to our wounded by able-bodied men and women of good will. That weapon is human blood.

In less than an hour you can give a pint of blood at the Walton visit of the Bloodmobile so some wounded American might live. The armed forces need blood. Walton has a quota to fill. Make your appointment today to give a pint of blood. It's painless, it's easy, it can save a life!

The following poem was written by Eunice Mitchell Lehmer, of Berkeley, California:

"American Blood"
Take this blood, my brother, yours and mine,
Brave blood, that held Columbus to his course
And turned the New World into a land of homes;
Blood, calm with faith, that raises altars on the hills
And beats in time with bells that call across the plains.

Young blood, that blazed a trail of courage to the West,
Stern blood that throbs in anger and avenges wrong
In these red drops are gathered armies quick to fight
For homes of free men and the right.
The greatest treasure I can give,
Brother, take this blood and live.

Give this gift of life on Thursday, June 26, at Walton, Ky. For appointment call Mrs. Allen Gaines, Walton 33 or Mrs. Elizabeth G. Nestor, Florence 84.

Water Situation Discussed At Florence Meeting

Plans Of Boone County Water District Will Be Heard By Three Cities.

City officials of Erlanger, Elsmere and Florence have agreed to act as a unit to solve the problem of an inadequate water supply for the three cities. It was announced following a meeting in Florence Wednesday night of last week.

Meeting with the officials representatives from Kenton Water District No. 1, Water District No. 2, representatives met with the group.

Councilmen and mayors from the three cities plan to hear about plans of a Boone County water district now in the process of organization.

Alfred LeFeber, representing district No. 1 told the group a minimum of 22 months to two years would be required before low pressures during summer dry spells could be alleviated.

Council members and mayors of the three communities met at the Florence community center and decided upon a course of uniform action in meeting the water problem.

Drivers' Licenses Now In Hands of Circuit Clerk

The new Kentucky drivers' licenses are now in the hands of Boone County Circuit Clerk, R. S. Hensley. Licenses were mailed to clerks early this year, it was announced.

The earlier sale of licenses is planned as the result of a new provision in the law for $1 penalty for failure to obtain a renewal license on or before July 31, 1952. The law provides that no exemptions from the penalty be allowed.

Some new licenses will be good for two years while others will be good for only one year. Families names beginning with the letters "A" through "K" will purchase licenses for two years, while those with letters "L" through "Z" will be issued one-year licenses this year, but will be issued two-year licenses next year. The cost of the two-year license is $2.00 and the one-year license remains $1.00.

Florence Landmark May Be Sold By City Council, Word

Board of Trustees Discuss Plans For Selling Town Hall.

The disappearance of another historical landmark of Florence and Boone County was threatened when the Florence Board of Trustees discussed the prospects of abandoning and selling the Florence Town Hall.

The old frame building, located at Main St. and Dorothea Ave., was built over 100 years ago and was deeded to the City of Florence and Good Faith Lodge F. & A. M. John Uri Lloyd, famous Boone County resident and author established a fund, the interest of which was to be used in the upkeep of the building. In later years the interest was said to be insufficient for the building's maintenance.

Several of the trustees expressed the opinion that with the existence of the new Florence Community Center as a modern meeting place, the Board had no right to spend town funds to aid in the maintenance of the old Town Hall.

No definite action was taken by the Board and the matter will again be brought before the body at the regular July 8th meeting.

Resolution Passed

A resolution was passed to repair damaged sidewalks and construct new walks throughout the city. Noel Walton, city engineer was instructed to inspect existing sidewalks, mark those in need of repair and make grade and specifications for new walks where none exist.

Property owners will be notified by the City Clerk where this work is to be done and will have 60 days in which to complete this work before the city lets contracts.

The first reading of two ordinances were passed. One for the annexation of the Alan Utz subdivision on Burlington Pike, and the other for the annexation of the Ed Carpenter property off Dixie Highway. The second reading will take place at the July meeting.

Engagement Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. White, 506 Garvey Avenue, Erlanger, announced the engagement of their daughter, Helen Dolores, to Rev. Robert W. Brown, of Burlington, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Brown. The wedding has been set for July 8 at Elsmere Baptist Church.

Both Miss White and her fiancé were graduated from Georgetown College, May 30th. Miss White is organist at Latonia Baptist Church. Rev. Brown is pastor of Visalia Baptist Church.

Indications of a complete sell-out for the afternoon and evening events are apparent everywhere, and ponies from three different states are anticipated. Prize money, trophies and ribbons will be the order of the day in a complete classification of varied classes passed upon by Judge Bud Stevens, of Middletown, Ohio, and MC'd and ringmastered over respectively by Paul DeLott of Burlington and Lillard Scott, of Bellevue.

The Home Of John Pendleton Gaines Mr. Gault's Haunted House

By Mrs. John Brady Walton

Many old houses serve as the setting for stories about ghosts, murder, and the people who have lived or stayed in them. This story is most interesting because the house is located in Boone County on the old Lexington Pike about one mile north of Walton and nine miles south of Florence.

The story has its beginning in the 1700's in Virginia when America was less than a quarter of a century old and her children were still tottering on their weak legs of infancy. The Indians were hostile, transportation was very crude, and the trend was to move westward to settle new lands.

In the year 1785, Abner Gaines grew restless and decided to take his family west, as Daniel Boone had a few years earlier. Mr. Gaines became one of that fearless, sturdy band of pioneers who were building for themselves new homes in the wilderness. It is not known exactly how long it took Mr. Gaines, his wife and several children and his slaves, to make their way down the Ohio River and south into Kentucky. Upon arriving at his chosen location, twenty miles from Cincinnati, Abner Gaines first built a log cabin and began the clearing of land necessary for their crops. A few families lived in the vicinity then, but only a very small settlement existed.

A few years later Colonel Gaines, as he was now called, thought it wise to build a larger cabin for his growing family. He ordered his slaves to hew some trees and the task of building was begun. A short time later a friend who was riding by on horse-back stopped for a visit. This friend, Mr. Walton, who was a well-to-do steamboat captain, asked Mr. Gaines, "Why don't you build a brick house, Colonel?" Mr. Gaines replied, "Mr. Walton, it's like this, I don't have the money." Whereupon his friend answered, "Forget about the money, Colonel, I'll furnish that and you can pay me when you feel like it."

Immediately the construction of a three-floor brick house was started. This was in 1791. Arrangements were made to make the brick on the grounds and the slaves started felling trees for the joists and flooring. Even the nails and shingles for the roof were made by hand.

In June of the following year Kentucky was admitted to the Union as the fifteenth state. Colonel Gaines was now a very prominent man in the settlement. As an act of gratitude, he named the small village Walton, for the man who had so willingly helped him in building his new brick house.

Here, in 1795, John Pendleton was born. In 1812, when he was only seventeen, John left it was his duty to help defend his country. After the war he returned to his beautiful brick house and to his community, where he practiced law and later married.

Colonel Gaines converted the house into a tavern or inn. It became a famous stop for stage coaches which traveled between Lexington and Cincinnati. On a map of Kentucky, printed in Philadelphia in 1836, there is a coach-stop marked "Gaines X Roads." Just above it is Florence with the distance of ten miles printed between the two. The town of Walton isn't given a place on the map, which proves that this Gaines house was quite a necessary and prominent place between Lexington and Cincinnati. Three trips are listed a week.

Many prominent men stopped here on their way from Lexington to Cincinnati. One of these was Henry Clay, who came through here often on his way to Washington. Among others was Richard M. Johnson, who later became vice-president of the United States under Van Buren, the Breckenridges and other equally prominent. In the early 40's it was renowned for its elaborate balls and lavish festivities. John Pendleton's two daughters enjoyed these as many dances and parties were held in their honor. This was also a very popular place for weddings. Many were performed in this house, and large receptions were given here.

It was at one such occasion that the first man was killed here. Two gentlemen who were suitors of the same lady were attending the ball. One man was much older than the other. The story is told that the younger man warned the older one to stay away from his girl and if he danced with her he would pull off his wig. The older gentleman replied, "And if you do I'll kill you." During the evening the elder suitor did dance with the girl and his wig was promptly jerked from his head. Immediately the man turned and stabbed the younger man to death. For a long time afterward, blood stains could be seen at this spot, and not until these boards were removed were they erased.

In 1846 John Pendleton again felt it was his duty to help defend his country—in the Mexican war this time. Again, he left his beloved brick house. Upon his return he found that the people had unanimously elected him as a representative of his state to Washington.

After one term in this office Zachary Taylor appointed John to go to the west coast to help settle what is now the state of Oregon. Here he was appointed the first governor or when it became our thirty-third state. He never returned to his native land on the brick house of his childhood.

The home remained in the Gaines family for four generations and was then sold to a farmer named Ira Cleek. He was very abusive to the lovely interior, using the large front room on the right for hay and grain storage. This caused the floor to sag about six inches in the center and it is in that condition today, although new flooring has been laid. During the Civil War he kept one of his horses in this room so that the soldiers could not steal it.

When General Kirby Smith camped on the old Lexington Pike he used the tavern as his headquarters. He and his men were often here during the war. Just before General Morgan was killed he and his men camped under a large old tree in the yard and used the facilities of the inn.

After the close of the Civil War Jerry Glenn bought the old landmark and called it Drovers' Inn. The drovers who herded their cattle, hogs, and sheep along the pike to the Cincinnati market would stop for food and a place to sleep. The grounds were divided into sections by fences so that the drovers might separate their stock according to ownership. It was also used as a stage horse station where horses were changed and fed.

While the old house was still used as an inn John Goodson, father-in-law of the late John G. Carlisle, visited here, and in a fit of despondency committed suicide. This he did by hanging himself from the beautiful three-floor front stairway.

After many years the "old brick" as it became known to the people living around Walton, was converted into an apartment house. Four families were living here when Mr. John Gault, an antique dealer from Cincinnati, bought it in 1937. His plans were to restore and refurnish it with antiques, as it had been in days gone by. Mr. Gault has succeeded to a remarkable degree in restoring this colonial house to its original beauty. It is now an outstanding landmark of which Boone County and Northern Kentucky may well be proud.

There are three stairways here, two being of cherry. The circular one, in the center hall, goes to the third floor. The original small, slender spindles are cherry as is the entire hand rail and newel post. The ones replaced by Mr. Ira Cleek are curly maple. Places can still be seen where the little Betty or grease lamps burned a they dimly lighted the many weary travelers up their winding way to the guest rooms. Another thing of beauty is this front hall is the elaborate fan transom above the front door. The carving on this was done by some of Colonel Gaines' slaves.

The aged pine floors, which are cut against the grain, are two inches thick. The undersides have been carefully rubbed with beeswax to keep moisture from decaying them. This type of flooring was the first in this part of the country and reminds of the saying, "It goes against the grain."

The two front rooms are 23x24 feet. The room on the right has a secret press, which opens at one end of the beautifully carved Adam's mantle. In the far corner of this press a human skull is hanging just as it was when the press was discovered. Here, too, the well preserved mud, with which the bricks are held together, can be seen. At the other end of this lovely mantle an open press used now to display old china. The floor at the door of this room is so noticeably worn that we can readily imagine many feet keeping time to the music of a Virginia Reel.

In the two rooms above this one can be seen two corner fireplaces with small Adam's mantles. The little baggage room jolt these. The door strip here has "G. Hogrefe 1937" written on the underside.

Altogether there are twenty rooms, two being secret with hidden doors. The ten carved Adam's mantles are all beautiful. The wide, white colonial doors are of the design sometimes called "Cross and Bible." The brass locks and large keys belong to this era.

Another unusual feature was a secret underground tunnel leading out from the rear of the house for three hundred feet. It was used in Abner Gaines time as an escape from the Indians.

Some of the home-made bricks are marked with prints of various animal feet, even deer and turkey tracks. Again, we can easily imagine that as the bricks were laid out at night, wandering animals stepped on some, leaving footprints on the bricks of time.

Mr. Gault has related many stories of ghosts that have been seen there at various times. When Mr. Cleek owned the house a fair-haired child was seen skipping through one of the rooms early in the morning, and several headless men were seen there. Several years ago, while an electrician was wiring the house a ghost appeared at one of the windows and the workman became so frightened he ran two miles to his home, leaving his car behind.

There are many mysterious things about the house that Mr. Gault cannot explain, and he is an authority on old houses. During the remodeling he replaced several window sills; on one he found this message which read, "There is $4500 in gold hidden in the walls of this old brick house. Be careful how you spend it or you will surely die." On another sill the name Sanders was scribbled underneath on the clean wood. Mr. Sanders, a carpenter at that time, wrote that he was receiving $2.25 a day from Mr. Cleek; the date was 1873.

I firmly believe that Mr. Gault has converted his home to a historical landmark, a spot of many unusually interesting happenings since its building in 1791.

Mrs. Walton stated that she had prepared this paper with the assistance of Mr. John Gault and Mrs. Jack Conner.

Special Motor Fuels Covered Under New Kentucky Tax Law

Diesel fuel, liquefied petroleum gases (bottled gas) and all other special motor fuels used to operate motor vehicles on public highways in Kentucky are covered under a new tax law which becomes effective July 1, 1952. The tax is 7¢ per gallon, David K. Walker, Director of Excise Taxes, Department of Revenue announced.

Gasoline is covered under a separate law.

The motor fuel tax is in reality a tax for building and maintaining our highways. The tax is placed on motor fuel because that is the most economical and simplest way to pay for the use of roads. The tax is approximately the same on all fuels, so that no special advantage exists for using a particular type fuel, Walker pointed out.

The new law sets up three classes of taxpayers: dealers, local users, and interstate users, all of whom must report and pay tax. All three classes are required to apply for license and furnish bond by July 1, 1952. Present licenses held by dealers and users of special fuels will expire automatically on July 1.

Walker also said the Gasoline Tax Law, as it affects gasoline terminal storage operators has been amended and operators will be notified of the changes.

Special fuels reports, licenses and bonds will be processed by the Excise Tax Division, Department of Revenue at Frankfort.

Select The Right Grasses and Legumes

Permanent pasture should contain plants that will maintain their stands over long periods of time, be adapted to your soil condition and this climate. Here in Northern Kentucky our primary grasses that will do this job are, orchard grass, Ky. 31 fescue and Kentucky bluegrass.

Wilford Scott manager of Bon-tucky farms believes that orchard grass will do this job for him. On a radio broadcast last summer Mr. Scott told that his main crop was grass, he sold it by pasturing cows and selling the fluid milk on the market. He finds that orchard grass combined with alfalfa will give him a long-lived combination that makes excellent year around grazing, and the surplus is put in silos for grass silage.

Doc Edwards of White Haven farm, at Union, Ky., puts his trust in Kentucky 31 fescue. Last spring he pastured 23 head of cattle on 10 acres from February until middle of June, and still was able to combine approximately 3000 pounds of Ky. 31 fescue seed from this 10 acres. At that time seed was bringing 35c per lb.—a $105.00 income per acre over and above the milk that was produced before this.

A. Nusbauer, of Lima-Hebron Road, likes orchard grass. He believes the mistake most people make in seeding orchard grass is not seeding it heavy enough. He seeds 14 pounds per acre. This prevents stooling, and gives him a dense ground cover throughout the year.

Primary legumes to form your combination with your primary grasses are ladino clover, Louisiana White Dutch, Green acres clover and alfalfa. These legumes are long lived if properly treated and will turn off abundant forage.

Secondary grasses and legumes are red top, timothy red clover and alsike clover. These plants will not recover and grow as rapidly from close grazing and clipping as our primary plants; also, they have a shorter growing period, quicker to die out in the fall, and slower to start growth in the spring. Their nutrient content is lower than our primary grasses and legumes, so it would be best to seed only enough with primary grasses and legumes to help get a quick ground cover.

In starting your pasture program, get your complete Soil and Water Conservation farm plan. Your capability map will give you your land inventory and thus it's easy to build a good program on a strong foundation. Contact your local Soil Conservation District Supervisors, or your technicians, Floyd E. Kells, and Kendrick Keith of the Soil Conservation Service, at Burlington, Ky.

BURLINGTON, KENTUCKY THURSDAY, JUNE 26, 1952

NUMBER 48

Joe Rouse Named Chairman of Clear Creek Campaign

Mr. Rouse Will Select Workers From Various Baptist Churches.

Joe Rouse of Verona, Ky., has been appointed chairman of Boone County in the Clear Creek Mountain Preachers Bible School Fund Raising Campaign. Mr. Rouse in accepting the chairmanship stated that he was willing to give of his time in this important undertaking because of the manifested interest of his grandmother who gave money years ago in order to establish Clear Creek.

Mr. Rouse gave as his plan of organization: the appointment of one or two committeemen from each Baptist Church.

The school is conducting a special gifts campaign of $100 and up to be paid over a period of three years. This would be about 10c a day over the three-year period.

Principal needs of the Mountain Preachers School are an administration building, a health center, an apartment building for the faculty and an improvement of the water system.

During the past year, 213 students have been enrolled. Present facilities are not adequate to take care of the fast-growing school. Clear Creek is not a high school, not a college, not a seminary, and yet it is a combination of all three of these in that a preacher of the Gospel, regardless of the educational background, is permitted to enroll in Bible study and related subjects.

He is survived by his wife Nellie; three sons, William, Robert and James; and two daughters Jean and Patty. Robert is in the service, stationed on Johnson Island in the Pacific while other survivors reside in Florence.

First Broadcast From Verona Lake Ranch Set Sunday

Program Will Be Heard Over WLAP From 2:00 to 2:30 P. M.

The first radio broadcast from Verona Lake Ranch will be heard over radio station WLAP, Lexington, Sunday from 2:00 to 2:30 p. m. it was announced this week by Bill Scroggin, manager of the Verona Lake Ranch.

Work has been completed on the new radio line from Verona to Walton, and all lines will be cleared for the broadcast Sunday afternoon. The broadcast will be sponsored by International Harvest, Calvin Cress & Son, Boone County dealers and others, Mr. Scroggin announced.

Featured on the program are Mattie O'Neil and Salty Holmes, supported by Rome Johnson and his trailblazers, the Barber Shop Quartet, Criswell Sisters of Renfro Valley and other stars.

Salty Holmes treated Mattie O'Neil to a plate lunch one day in Atlanta in 1946 and therein lies the tale of the start of a team whose comedy and novelty numbers were to entertain thousands across the United States.

Both Salty and Mattie, who are now featured on numerous WLW radio and TV shows, like to recall their first meeting. They were both appearing as guests on the Roy Acuff shows from WSM, Atlanta, and when Mattie finished her act she went over and introduced herself to Salty. Seems as if they both had "that old feeling" at first sight.

The first show of the afternoon opens at 2:00 p. m., and the second shows starts promptly at 4:00 p. m. Mr. Scroggin stated. Admission will be 75c for adults and children under 12 will be admitted free.

The new radio line connecting Verona with Walton is expected to help the program at Verona Lake Ranch during the summer months, as many stars booked for afternoon performances will be able to broadcast their program from the Verona Lake stage.

Mr. Scroggin is making an effort to procure the best talent in show business for your entertainment during the summer months and promises an afternoon of high class entertainment to those attending.

Manslaughter Charge Dismissed In Boone Court

No Evidence Produced To Show Criminal Negligence, Report.

Boone County Court, Judge C. L. Cropper, presiding, dismissed a charge of involuntary manslaughter filed against Ralph Ocker, Glasgow, Ky., after W. P. McEvoy, Boone County Attorney made a motion that the charge be dismissed.

Ocker, who was arraigned before the court Thursday, was the driver of an automobile which struck Miss Nellie Noel, 19, Madison, Ind., May 18. She was pronounced dead on arrival at St. Elizabeth Hospital, Covington. The accident took place on U. S. 42, approximately one mile west of Florence.

At the examining trial, McEvoy told Judge Cropper that no evidence had been introduced to show criminal negligence on the part of Ocker.

Mrs. Neva Stockdale, 30, R. 6, Madison, a sister of Miss Noel, testified that the latter had accompanied Mrs. Stockdale and her husband, James 36, on a pleasure trip which originated at Madison. All three were riding in the front seat, Miss Noel on the outside.

When traveling west on U. S. 42 on the return trip to Madison, Miss Noel fell out of the car, Mr. and Mrs. Stockdale testified.

Stockdale told the court that he stopped the car and that Mrs. Stockdale went back to see whether Miss Noel had been injured. It was while Mrs. Stockdale was trying to move Miss Noel that the Noel girl was struck by Ocker's car.

A. D. Yelton, Burlington, represented Mr. and Mrs. Stockdale, and Howell W. Vincent Covington, represented Ocker.

J. D. Wolf, another Alexandria Holstein breeder, won four ribbons, including three firsts, and his yearling heifer was adjudged junior champion.

More than 100 exhibitors and guests attended the show, it was reported. T. A. Burgess, of Grandview, Mo., was judge.

W. J. Scott, Burlington; Nelson Newell, Maysville; W. A. Niemeyer, Covington; Anton Eisen, California and Robert Jackson, Kenton, were named to represent Northern Kentucky in the cattle judging contest at the Kentucky State Fair in September at Louisville.

Exhibitors and guests at the show were served a dinner, buffet style, at the Sperti home.

Boone County School Board Approves Contracts

For Construction Of New School; Low Bid Is $805,000.

The Boone County Board of Education Friday night adopted a resolution requesting Boone Fiscal Court to accept a bid of the Derby Construction Co., Louisville, for the general construction of the Boone County Consolidated High School, Florence, Ky. Derby's bid of $633,000 was the lowest received.

Other successful bidders were the John Van Range Co., Cincinnati, for kitchen and cafeteria equipment, $18,086; B. & J. Jacobs, Cincinnati, for heating and ventilating, $56,870; Barkley Electric Co., Cincinnati, electrical work, $40,695, and William Beutell, Covington, plumbing and drainage, $56,995. These concerns submitted lowest bids.

Actual construction cost, according to the lowest bids submitted, will be $805,646.

W. F. McEvoy, County Attorney; H. N. Ockerman, School Superintendent and H. Richard Elliston, architect for the project, return from Frankfort, Friday after conferring with the State Board of Education. Mr. McEvoy said that the Boone County Board of Education had demonstrated to the state body that the new school could be constructed without any increase in the tax rate. The cost of the new structure will be financed by a bond issue to be amortized over a period of 20 years.

Superintendent Ockerman stated that only eight counties in Kentucky have a lower school tax rate than that of Boone County, which is $1.30. He pointed out that school bus transportation in Boone County is the fifth lowest in the cost per bus mile in the state.

Construction of the school will commence as soon as all legal formalities have been complied with. It is expected that the school will be ready for occupancy within 18 months, Mr. Elliston stated.

Local Engineer Wins $1,125 Suit In Kenton Court

Noel Walton, Burlington engineer, was awarded judgment in a suit, late Thursday, from Crescent Park, Inc., by a jury in Judge Jos. P. Goodenough's Kenton Circuit Court, Covington.

Mr. Walton filed suit for that sum, which he said, was due him for survey work he made at the Crescent Park Subdivision on Buttermilk Pike several months ago. The plaintiff said he was paid only part of its original cost for the survey and that the amount asked represented the balance due.

Dr. F. C. Burkett Draws Heavy Fine In Boone Co. Court

Has Been Resident Of Boone County For Only Three Weeks.

Dr. F. C. Burkett, formerly of Sandusky, O., who moved to Boone County three weeks ago for his health was fined $100 and costs for drunken driving and revocation of his driver's license for six months; $25 and costs for resisting arrest, and a $200 peace bond when arraigned in Judge C. L. Cropper's Court.

Dr. Burkett told Judge Cropper that he had purchased the farm of T. C. Melrose on the Union-Big Bone Road only three weeks ago, and had moved to the farm in an endeavor to find relief from a heart condition.

Sheriff W. H. Easton told the court he had received a call from Mrs. Paul Gross, whose husband is a tenant on the physician's farm, about 11:30 p. m. Tuesday.

Mrs. Gross said that Dr. Burkett was trying to break into the house after an argument with Mr. Gross, whom he charged had been dilatory in his farm work.

While Sheriff Easton was proceeding to the farm, Trooper Gordon received a radio call that a reckless driver had forced two cars off U. S. 42. Drivers of the cars registered as Malcolm M. Bard, 617 Vine St., Cincinnati and William Gross, Florence, Ky.

Trooper Gordon stated that Dr. Burkett was in his car in drunk condition. Gordon told the court that after forcing the two cars off the road, Dr. Burkett ran his car in a ditch 381 feet before stopping, and that he (Gordon) found the car lying on its right side, with Dr. Burkett inside, apparently too helpless to move.

Trooper Gordon was met in Florence by Sheriff Easton and deputy who assisted in bringing Burkett to Burlington. Upon arriving in Burlington, it took the three peace officers, in addition to Jailer Cecil Presser to place him in jail. Dr. Burkett was not subdued or molested in any way the court was informed, as the officers realized that possibly he could be injured permanently if any force were used.

Dr. Burkett pleaded guilty when arraigned before Judge C. L. Cropper.

Interesting Film Will Be Shown By DAR June 27th

At Florence Christian Church; Film Is In Technicolor.

The showing of the film "Williamsburg Restored" will be shown under the auspices of the Boone County Chapter, Daughters of American Revolution, on Friday evening, June 27, at 8:00 o'clock at the Florence Christian Church, Florence, Kentucky.

The film, which is in technicolor, presents a picture of Williamsburg as it was two hundred years ago and as it is today. It vividly portrays the scope of the architectural achievement in the restoration of the town to its eighteenth century appearance. An effort is made to offer a highly condensed pictorial indication which the restored city may afford its visitors through centuries to come.

The restoration of Williamsburg, second capital of Virginia, to its colonial appearance has begun in 1927 and is still in progress. In the course of these years the undertaking has become one of the major educational endeavors ever to be attempted in this country.

The restoration represents the whole span of urban life in the largest and most powerful of the English Colonies in the 18th century; yet, because of the City's unusual nature, the Restoration bespeaks the life of the entire colony of which Williamsburg was the seat of government from 1699 through 1799.

The fields of interest which restored Williamsburg embraces are many and varied. Architecture, decoration, the arts and crafts, horticulture, and scholarly pursuits are all involved, both in their English antecedents and in their American adaptation or development.

This is your heritage. In costume and candlelight, restored Williamsburg, Virginia, recreates for every American who treasures freedom the era of those whose struggle founded our democracy.

The program will be opened by organ and vocal selections and the film will be followed by a Colonial tea in costume and candlelight. Guests fee: adults 50c; children 25c.

The following committees were appointed for this event: Regent, Mrs. Roy Nestor; Music, Mrs. Virginia Goodridge; Registrars, Mrs. Aileen Conner, Mrs. Garnet Tolin; Guest fee tables, Mrs. Louis Braun, Mrs. Wallace Grubbs; Publicity, Mrs. Dean Caton; Tea table arrangement and tea, Mrs. Frances Berkshire, Mrs. John Lewis Feagan; Cookies, Mrs. Charles Goodridge, Miss Margaret Goodridge, Miss Evelyn Tanner; Building decorations, Mrs. Clarence Wolfe (auditorium and basement) Mr. Clyde Arnold; Hostesses, Tea Room, Mrs. Shnyder T. Lockwood, Mrs. Benjamine Bedinger, Miss Jeanette Grubbs; Hostesses, Vestibule, Mrs. John Lockwood, Mrs. Geo. Baker; Ushers, Mrs. Joseph Wolfe, Mrs. Ashley Logan, Mrs. Clifford Coyle, Mrs. Davis Gaines.

Attending the meeting were Mesdames Sam Denham, Mr. Harold Conner, Frances Dempsey, Sam Denham, Jr., Grant Maddox, Wm. Wesler, Nell Markland, Ruby Hollis, C. F. Blankenbaker, Geo. Morith, L. D. Rennecker, T. Vastine, Roy Lutes, Wm. Fitzgerald, Paul Chaney, Fanny Scott, Miss Jane Scott, E. E. Abbott, A. W. Fullerton and Ralph Cody.

THEIR ANCESTORS AND THEIR DESCENDANTS

Jacob Crigler I, joined the Virginia Colony of 1717, soon after it moved from Germanna to the settlement on the Robinson river in what is now Madison County, Virginia. The Crigler name appears in the records in various forms, Krugler, Krickler, Cragler, etc., depending on the phonetic spelling of the English court clerks and their inclination to anglicize all foreign names. In his "Winning of the West," Theodore Roosevelt tells of a Frenchman who came to America in Colonial times; his name was Blanpied, and the court officials thought it would look better if translated into English, so they wrote it "Whitefoot," and that's the name of the Frenchmen's descents to this day. It is believed that the Criglers, Clores, Koachs and Carpenters were related before they arrived in America; inter-marriages among these families have established a kinship since they came to this country.

Jacob Crigler may have been in Pennsylvania before the colony of 1717 settled in Virginia, or he may have come directly to Virginia before 1728; in that year he and Michael Koch jointly patented 400 acres, and in 1728 he patented 400 acres in his own name. He died in 1734, and Susanna Crigler, probably his wife, was appointed administratrix. In 1742 Michael Koch (Cook) sold to Christopher Crigler 200 acres, part of the patent of 1728, and in 1757 Christopher and his wife, Catherine sold part of the joint patent to Nicholas Crigler. Then, Nicholas Crigler and his wife Margaret conveyed to Christopher, part of the patent to Jacob Crigler, (1728), "father of Nicholas and Christopher Crigler." There is no record of other children.

Nicholas Crigler died in 1789; his wife was Margaret Kaifer, daughter of Michael, the Immigrant. Nicholas "Krickler," probably the son of Nicholas and Margaret, is the first Crigler name recorded in the birth register of Hebron church, their children were, Elizabeth, married Adam Crisler; 2. Aaron, married Catherine Crisler; 3. Margaret; 4. Nicholas; 5. Susanna; 6. Anna; 7. Abraham; he married Lydia Carpenter, a daughter of Michal Carpenter, Jr., cousin of the Rev. Wm. Carpenter. This branch of the Crigler and Carpenter families immigrated to Nelson and Bullitt counties in Kentucky. Descendants of Elizabeth and Aaron Crigler settled in Boone at an early date.

Christopher Crigler, son of Jacob, married Catherine Finks; their children: 1. Maria, b. 1751; 2. Reuben; 3. Jacob; 4. Elizabeth; 5. Susanna; 6. Lewis (Lndwig); 7. Anna; 8. James; 9. William, and perhaps 10. John, and 11. Christopher Crigler.

Lewis Crigler, a Major in the Revolution, son of Christopher, married Anna Carpenter, daughter of Andrew and Barbara (Weaver) Carpenter, and a sister of Barbara who married Henry Aylor.

Lewis and Anna (Carpenter) Crigler's children were: 1. Nancy, b. 1787, married Ephraim Carpenter, son of Michael, Sr., an uncle of the Rev. William Carpenter; 2. Fanny; 3. Fielding; 4. Lovell; 5. Lucy; 6. Anna Barbara Crigler.

Lucy Crigler married the Rev. Michel Meyerhoeffer, who succeeded the Rev. William Carpenter as pastor of Hebron church in Virginia when the latter moved to Boone county, Ky., to become the pastor of Hebron church. It was during the Rev. Meyerhoeffer's pastorate that Jacob Crigler, II, a member of the Hebron congregation and a student for the ministry, was authorized "to hold exhortations in his congregations."

The Rev. Jacob Crigler was the second American-born member of the Hebron Lutheran church to enter the ministry, and he followed the first, William Carpenter, as pastor of Hebron church in Boone county. Jacob Crigler was a son of Aaron Crigler and Catherine Crigler, and was born in Culpeper county, Virginia in 1778. His grandparents were Nicholas and Margaret (Kaifer) Crigler. Jacob was a soldier in the War of 1812; he did not begin his theological studies until 1819; his first wife was Lydia Utz, daughter of George and Dinah Utz; she died in 1805, and Jacob married (2) Nellie Tanner, daughter of Frederick, Silas and Eleanor Crigler were the children of Jacob's first wife; Silas Crigler married Katherine Zimmerman, whose parents, Frederick and Rosanna (Crigler) Zimmerman moved from Madison County, Va., to Boone County, Ky., in 1805. Rosanna Crigler was Jacob's sister. Jacob began his pastorate in Pennsylvania where he remained for fifteen years; in 1834 he moved with his family to Boone County. He and his second wife, Nellie Tanner, were the parents of 1. Lydia, M. Joel Tanner, 1828; 2. Mary Ann, m. Henry Rouse, 1835; 3. Julia m. 1836, Aaron Crigler, her cousin, son of Jacob's brother Lewis and his wife Jimima Utz, daughter of Ephraim; 4. Susan, m. William Rouse; 5. Harriet, m. 1838, Jacob M. Strafer; 6. Aaron Frederick, m. Rhoda Rouse; (Aaron was in possession of his father's family Bible);

7. William Yager, m. 1860, Annie White. There may have been other children, as Jacob is said to have been the father of a family of fifteen. Those named above were all early citizens of Boone County. Joshua Crigler, a brother of Jacob, was a pioneer settler in Boone County and married, 1810, Sarah Conner.

Pastor Crigler assisted in organizing three Lutheran Synods, one in Pennsylvania, one in Ohio and one, the Synod of the West at Louisville, Kentucky. He preached for one year at Portsmouth, Ohio, and organized two congregations there. He died on his farm near Florence in 1847.

HELPERS' CIRCLE MEET

"Pray have me excused! So said the guests invited to attend a dinner prepared by the rich man in a parable told by Jesus. The excuses they give for their absence seem hollow indeed. Still it is possible we are guilty of offering equally poor alibis when asked to do our part in the work of the church. Even attendance is too much to ask of many."

"I'm just as good a Christian as the people who go to church; I belong to too many organizations now; the members are not friendly; the sermons are dull; they are always asking for money"—I'm sure you have heard, perhaps used some of these excuses.

Such was the subject of the lesson at the May meeting of the Helpers' Circle of the Hebron Lutheran Church, which was held at the home of Mrs. Virginia Earl Stutzman. The lesson was ably presented by Mrs. Evelyn Lancaster and Mrs. Margaret Dolwick and was the subject of a lively discussion period by the members.

The business meeting followed. Officers elected for the next year were Mrs. Henry Anderson, president; Mrs. Elizabeth Morehead, vice president; Mrs. Evelyn Lancaster, treasurer; and Mrs. Julia Walton, secretary.

A delicious lunch was served by the hostess. The June meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Doris Hempling June 26. Members and friends are urged to attend.

Osborn-Grant

Of particular interest in the Florence community was the beautiful candlelight wedding at 7:30 p. m. June 14, 1952 at the Florence Baptist Church uniting Miss Virginia Osborn and Mr. Benny Grant. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Osborn, of Florence and Mr. Grant is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Grant, of Burlington R. D.

The altar was banked with graceful palms and ferns, enhanced by baskets of white carnations. White Candelabra entwined with asparagus plumosis holding white burning tapers cast a mellow glow over the nuptial scene. Prior to the ceremony Edward Cooper, Jr., sang the ever popular "Because" and "Love You Truly." Miss Joyce Ogg was organ accompanist and gave the beautiful Clair De Lune as the bride's mother was being escorted to her seat. Miss Ogg also played "Lohengrin's Wedding March" as the bride party entered the church. Rev. Howard Gordon performed the impressive double ring ceremony.

At the close of the ceremony while the bride party knelt at the altar, Mr. Cooper sang "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father the bride was radiant in a gown of lustrous white slipper satin designed with a snug fitting bodice, pointed in front, a row of self-covered buttons down the back, long sleeves pointed over the hands and the top of the bodice was scalloped over nylon net extending to the neckline to form a yoke. A floral design and edge trim of seed pearls was carried out in each scallop. The attached full skirt fell into a sweeping train. The bride's only jewelry was a double strand of pearls, a gift from the groom. Her long lace-veiled veil was held in place by a halo of tiny clusters of pearl flowers. She carried a colonial arrangement of red American Beauty roses and stephanotis combined with white net and long white streamers.

Miss Jennie Lee Tanner, the bride's only attendant was beautifully gowned in pink nylon net over pink taffeta with which she wore a crownless picture hat of nylon net. Her flowers were identical to those of the bride except for pink net and streamers.

The groom and his best man Dawson Lancaster were attired in dark suits, maroon bow ties and red carnation boutonnières. Chester Grant, Jr., and David Osborn, Jr. served as ushers.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Osborn chose a navy crepe gown accented with a white lace collar, white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

The groom's mother wore a pink ensemble and her corsage was also of white carnations.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The bride cake was a white creation, three-tiered and topped with a miniature bride and groom.

Following the reception the happy couple departed for a bridal tour through southern Kentucky. The bride's going away dress was white crepe with navy trim and accessories.

The bride graduated from Florence High School in the class of this year, where the groom graduated from Hebron high in the class of '51.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hitzfield, of Lawrenceburg, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hawkins and daughter, of Ft. Wayne, Ind., and Mr. and Mrs. Chester Grant, Jr., of Alabama.

Following their bridal tour Mr. and Mrs. Grant will reside in their new home on the Hebron-Bullittsville pike and he will engage in farming. We join their many friends in wishing them health, happiness and prosperity as they go down the pathway of life together.

Burlington Softball Team Marks Up Two In Win Column During Week

Burlington men's softball team chalked up two victories during the past week, trouncing Crittenden and "Gay 9" Negro team. The Crittenden contest went 13 innings before the final outcome was decided, which gave Burlington a 4 to 3 win. Ivan Gulley was on the hill for the winners with Patterson behind the bat. "Pip" Clore and Seebie each had two hits for Burlington. Flynn had 4 hits for Crittenden. The game was highlighted by the excellent field work of local players.

The Burlington team met the Gay 9 squad Monday night and set them back by score of 11 to 4. Ivan Gulley was again on the hill with Poole and Patterson receiving his pitches. "Gerald Clore" was the hitting star of the game with two home runs, a double and a single in four times at bat. This made the seventh straight win for the Burlington team without a defeat.

Burlington will meet the Covington Merchants at the Burlington ball park Monday night, June 30 at 8:15. The Covington team has a loss, so this may be a tough one for Burlington's team.

Any team or manager desiring a game with Burlington should call Bill. McBee, Burlington 343.

Boone Co. Book Club Review Interesting Book

The attractive home of Mrs. Joe Hogan on the Hebron-Limaburg Pike was the scene of the June meeting of the Boone County Book Club with Mrs. Hogan presiding at the business session.

A program of unusual interest followed when Mrs. Stanley Ranson reviewed the Agnes Keith book "White Man Returns."

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess to the following members and guests during the social hour: Mesdames Roy Lutes, R. C. Garrison, J. Snyder, Harold Conner, Barney Hogan, Thomas McCann, H. Oberpoh, A. L. Pfalzgraf, Lee Marshall, John Kyle, Joe Northcutt, Stanley Ransom and Misses Ann Lutes and Mattie Kreylich.

A fortune nowadays has been defined as a place to sleep and enough to eat.

SPECIAL NOTICE OF THANKS

Why my delay? I have been at the bedside of my daughter at the hospital. When reading my card of thanks in The Recorder, my heart sank when I failed to see the names of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Tanner. No two people were ever more faithful than they during the illness and passing of my husband. They both came to me in my darkest hours of sorrow.

I recopied what I sent to said paper and I take the blame on myself for I must have overlooked their names in recopying. Also W. A. Fox who was so faithful in many ways. I sincerely hope you will forgive me for my error.

Larger Social Security Benefits To Workers

A new benefit formula now in effect will mean larger social security payments to many workers who file claims on or after July 1st, according to Joseph T. Ware, manager of the Covington, Ky., Kentucky field office.

He went on to explain that the new method uses average monthly wages after 1950, while the old formula is based on average wages since 1936. Here is how the new formula works. Take 50% of the first $100 of the average monthly wage and add 15% of any remainder up to $200. For example, if your average monthly wages are $50, the benefit would be $25; if the average monthly wages are $200, the benefit is $65. Under this formula, the benefit may be as high as $80 a month.

Mr. Ware pointed out that this is not an automatic increase for people already receiving benefits. It is a formula applying to new claims and to beneficiaries under age 75, who have worked steadily at good wages for the last year and a half. He also pointed out that some people now reaching 65 and filing claims will receive higher benefits under the old formula—and when this is the case, it can still be used.

Although retired workers who are 65 or over will generally find it advantageous to file their claims on or after July 1st, this is not so in the case of self-employed persons. Most people in business for themselves will do better if they do not retire before the end of this year and do not file claims before January 1953—but there are some exceptions to this. Mr. Ware strongly urges self-employed persons to consult someone connected with the Social Security office before retiring. Learn the facts; just how they will work in each individual case; and then decide when you will retire and when you will file your claim. The Social Security office for northern Kentucky is located in room 19 of the Post Office Building, 7th and Scott Sts., Covington. Telephone HE4000, 5274.

New Hunting License Raised To $3.00 For State

Individual county hunting and fishing licenses in Kentucky passed out of the picture Thursday when a new law went into effect.

In the past a person was able to obtain a hunting license in a county for $1 and a state license for $3. Under the new law, all hunting licenses except for juniors, are $3 and fishing licenses $2. All are statewide.

Provision is made under the new law for issuance of junior hunting licenses to persons under 16 years old. These will cost $1. Stanley Shelton of the Kentucky Fish and Game Commission, delivered a supply of new junior licenses last Thursday to Boone County Clerk, C. D. Benson.

Out-of-state residents obtaining fishing licenses now may obtain temporary permits good for 10 days for $2.

Social Security Officer Will Visit Erlanger July 1

Mr. Edward Bolte, field representative of the Social Security Administration, will be for the first time in Erlanger from 2:00 to 3:00 p. m. on Tuesday, July 1st.

He will receive applications for old-age and survivors insurance benefits under the new security law, as well as issue social security account number applications.

Many people, who for the first time began working under social security on January 1, 1951, will be eligible to receive their old age insurance benefits during this month, said Mr. Bolte. The newly covered groups such as household workers, self-employed individuals, and farm workers, to mention a few are most directly concerned.

If you are a newly covered worker and plan to retire in the near future you are urged to contact Mr. Bolte so that an explanation can be made as to the best time to file an application for benefits.

C., is stressed by Miss Mary Kelly, Navy Employment Representative, located in the Navy Recruiting Station, Cincinnati. Bonds Will Be Issued For Construction Of New Boone School

Bonds Totalling $825,000 Will Be Advertised In Near Future.

A formal resolution was adopted by Boone County Fiscal Court Wednesday directing the County Judge and the County Clerk to advertise the sale of $825,000 of school building revenue bonds. Proceeds from the sale of bonds will be used for construction of the Boone County Consolidated High School on Price Pike, Florence.

Bidders have until 11:00 a. m. July 14 to submit sealed bids for purchase of the bonds, according to the resolution.

The resolution also provides that a deed from the Boone County Board of Education covering the new high school be accepted by the Boone Fiscal Court, which, as agent of the board, is holder of the property until the bonds are amortized.

Annual rental, equal to annual interest and principal payments necessary to retire the bonds over a 20-year period, will be charged the Board of Education by the Fiscal Court, Wm. P. McEvoy, County Attorney, said.

The bond issue was set at $825,000 instead of $905,000, in order to cover approximately $20,000 interest payments during actual construction and before occupancy of the building, Mr. McEvoy said.

Spence Announces For Congressman From Fifth District

Submits Candidacy On Record of Service To Fifth District.

Hon. Brent Spence formally announces his candidacy for Representative in Congress from the Fifth District of Kentucky, subject to action of the Democratic primary Saturday, August 2, 1952.

Mr. Spence needs no introduction to the voters of Boone County, as he has served them many years in the House.

In making his formal announcement he issued the following statement:

"I submit my candidacy on my record of service to the people of the Fifth District. Their continued support has enabled me to attain a position of influence which I have used for their benefit. There are but sixteen chairmanships of major committees in the House, and I am chairman of the Committee on Banking and Currency which has referred to it some of the most important legislation for the welfare and prosperity of our people. That Committee reported the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation law which insures the deposits of our people in the banks of the Nation; the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation law which performs the same service for those who invest their money in savings and loan institutions; the Commodity Credit Corporation law, the mechanism by which prices of agricultural products, including tobacco, are supported and but for which many of them might now be selling at a price that would bring no profit to the producers. It also reports all measures relating to our monetary policy upon which is dependent the purchasing power of our money and the protection of the savings of the people. I have been deeply interested in the loans for purchase of tobacco by foreign countries which were made by the Export-Import Bank, also created by the Banking and Currency Committee.

"I regret the redistricting of Kentucky in the manner it was made, and I did all I could to prevent it. However, if I am renominated and reelected, I pledge to the people of the entire District the fealty to duty and the aggressive interest in their welfare that I have demonstrated in the past."

Mr. Spence enclosed the following letter from the Burley Tobacco Growers Co-Operative Association, Inc., Lexington, Ky.:

"Dear Mr. Spence:

"I do want to congratulate you in securing the loan of ten million dollars from the Export-Import Bank for the purchase of American tobacco for Germany. In your long years of service in the Congress, you have never failed the tobacco growers of Kentucky and have always taken a position of leadership in matters affecting their benefit. I want to express to you the appreciation of the burley people.

"With all good wishes, I am, 'Sincerely yours,

"John W. Jones, President."

Another letter received by Rep. Spence from the Burley and Leaf Tobacco Export Association, Inc., Washington 5, D. C., follows:

"Dear Congressman Spence:

"This is to express our appreciation of your vigorous and effective assistance with the negotiations that led to a loan of ten million dollars by the Export-Import Bank to the German Government for the purchase of U. S. leaf tobacco. The loan is, of course, to be repaid and the question of credit risk was, I understand, not involved. However, it is my opinion that without your assistance the loan could not have been successfully negotiated.

"The purchase will include Burley tobacco for use in the manufacture of cigarettes and smoking tobacco in Germany. This loan is important to both German tobacco manufacturers and to U. S. tobacco growers as it enables the Germans to complete their import program of U. S. leaf necessary to maintain the brands of products that contain Burley and other U. S. leaf tobacco. This loan should do much to perpetuate the market for Burley tobacco in Germany.

"The negotiation of the loan is another example of your genuine interest in the welfare of farmers, and this interest has been evident from your stand on all past legislation and other efforts for the betterment of agriculture.

"Thanking you again for your recent and previous assistance to tobacco growers, I am

Sincerely yours,

Executive Secretary,"

Many Cisterns Being Put In Use Due To Water Shortage.

Many cisterns are being put into use in the Florence area, due to the water shortage, Donald Brown, Boone County Sanitarian reported last week.

Cisterns which have not been in use for several years or which have not been cleaned and tested recently should not be used until water has been properly tested, Mr. Brown stated. Water testing will be made of any cistern in Boone if the owner will call the Boone County Health Department office, Florence 302.

Drivers Have Ten Days To Report Auto Accidents

New Amendment Gives Drivers More Time To Report Accidents.

Drivers now have 10 days in which to report injury or property damage from automobile accidents to the Department of State Police, Frankfort.

The Financial Responsibility Law which requires reporting of accidents is jointly administered by the Kentucky Department of State Police and the Department of Revenue.

Explaining an amendment passed by the 1952 session of the Kentucky General Assembly, R. A. Thompson, Director, Division of Local Relations, Department of Revenue, pointed out that accidents in which less than $100 damage is caused need not be reported unless someone is injured or a fatality occurs. Formerly any accident involving damage of $50, injury or death, had to be reported "immediately" to the State Police.

The amendment gives drivers more time to report. The law still requires that the report be in writing. Reports are necessary only for accidents which occur within Kentucky. Thompson stated, and standard report forms can be obtained from most police officers and insurance companies in Kentucky.

Section I
That it hereby orders and requires the reconstruction of Valley Drive for a distance of 692 lineal feet extending from U. S. Highway 25 to the end of the first subdivision, and Fair Court from its intersection with Valley Drive northwardly a distance of 260 lineal feet as follows: The existing narrow base on said streets will be scarified and reshaped, the earth removed from each edge of said base and sufficient stone added and rolled in place on said edges and on the surface existing to bring said base up to the minimum standards of the City of Florence. Proper drainage and crown will be constructed and the completed base will be given a surface treatment of RC 3 oil applied hot at the rate of .5 gallon per square yard. When this surface treatment has cured, a road mix of surface shall be covered by spreading 80 tons of stone chips along said treated base, and 1350 gallons of MC 3 oil will be applied hot and mixed in place uniformly. Upon completion of said mixing, said stone chips and oil will be spread uniformly over said base with a patrol grader, and rolled to proper crown and compaction.

Section II
Said improvement shall be made on the present grade of Valley Drive and Fair Court and said work shall be done in accordance with the specifications prepared by the City Engineer and approved by the City Council of Florence, all of which specifications are hereby adopted as the specifications for the improvement herein ordered and are hereby declared to be a part of this ordinance as though fully set forth herein; and said improvement shall be made in accordance with the plans and estimates as filed with the City Council by the City Engineer.

Section III
Said improvement is hereby declared to be a stage improvement. The installation of curbs and gutters and storm and sanitary sewer drains will be required before the street improvement will be complete.

Section IV
The City Council hereby declares said improvement to be necessary and the materials provided in such specifications suitable therefor and the City Clerk is ordered to advertise for sealed proposals for the doing of said work and the furnishing of the materials therefor by the insertion of an advertisement in the Boone County Recorder once a week for two consecutive weeks prior to the date set for opening the bids. Said advertisement will require the prospective bidders to state the amount for which they will furnish said materials and do such work. Said proposals shall be accompanied by a certified check or bid bond in the amount of 5 per cent. of the bid and are to be read and opened before the City Council at its regular adjourned meeting on July 22, 1952, said City reserving the right to reject any and all bids. The contractor whose bids is accepted shall enter into a written contract with the City of Florence and execute a bond with a recognized bonding company in a sum equal to 50 per cent. of the bid conditioned on the faithful performance of said contract; and shall complete said work within 60 days from the date said bid is accepted and the contract entered into by said City Council; provided, however, that said time may be extended for a reasonable period in the discretion of the City Council if the contractor or is prevented from completing said work within said time without any fault on his part. All of said work is to be done under the direction of the City Council and the City Engineer. The Engineer of the City of Florence shall be the referee in all decisions pertaining to the completion of the improvement herein ordered and his decision shall be final wherever the compliance with plans, estimates and specifications is involved, but the City Council may reject said work if it is not done in a workmanlike manner and to its satisfaction. The City Engineer is hereby required to report to the City Council when said improvement is ready for acceptance and he shall prepare a full and complete certificate of apportionment, showing the total cost of the improvement, the number of assessable units of benefited property, according to the number of feet abutting on said improvement, the cost per assessment unit, the names of the owners of the benefited property, and the number of assessable units owned by each person. Said certificate shall be delivered in duplicate by the Engineer to the City Clerk and a copy thereof transmitted by the City Clerk to the City Council and the City Attorney.

The City Council, upon receipt of the certificate of apportionment, shall delegate its Street Committee to inspect the work and report to the City Council as to whether the same should be accepted. The Committee shall fix a time and place at which it will inspect the work and the City Clerk shall then cause to be published, in one issue of a newspaper of general circulation in the City, a notice stating the time and place so fixed for the inspection of said work. The property owners concerned, or their agents or representatives, may appear and be heard before the Committee as to whether the improvement has been made in accordance with the orders and the contract therefor. When the Committee is satisfied that the work should be accepted, it shall so report to the City Council. If the Committee is of the opinion that the work has not been done in accordance with the contract or that the certificate of apportionment is incorrect, it may require the contractor to complete the work in accordance with the contract or it may modify the apportionment of cost to conform to the facts, or both.

Section V
The entire cost of said improvement, together with the cost of intersections, shall be done at the exclusive cost and expense of the owners of lots and parts of lots, or land, fronting or abutting thereon, except that 60 feet of the foot of each corner lot which sides on an intersecting street will be, exempted from assessment and such cost will be borne by the City of Florence; and that when completed the entire cost and expense of thus improving said street shall be ascertained and shall be apportioned, levied and assessed upon and against the lots or parts of lots, or land, fronting or abutting thereon, and the City of Florence. Burlington Teacher Enrolled At U. K. Graduate School

Miss Frances Horlacher, teacher of vocational home economics at Burlington High School, has enrolled in the University of Kentucky Graduate School.

As a part of her summer work, Miss Horlacher is studying recent developments in home economics teaching techniques. She also attended the Family Life Institute which was held on the campus July 1-2.

One of the program highlights of Family Life Institute is a discussion led by Mrs. Mildred Weigley Wood. Mrs. Wood, head of adult education in home economics in Arizona, is serving as a visiting teacher in home economics at the University this summer.

"My countrymen are too much used to corn blades and corn shucks; and have too little knowledge in the profit of grass land."

—George Washington.

Farmers Should Use Care in Employing Out-of-State Painters

Farmers and property owners in Boone County should use care in employing painters to decorate their buildings.

Many property owners throughout this section have learned too late that it does not pay to employ out-of-state painters. In some instances buildings have been severely damaged by materials used by these traveling painters.

Boone County property owners are urged to use caution in employing their painter. There are many well known painters in this and adjoining counties, who have followed the trade for many years, and who guarantee their work. This alone, should be enough proof that it does not pay to employ foreigners.

Probably there are many traveling painters who use good material and probably do first class work, but if their work proves faulty there is no way of contacting them to back up any guarantee they may give. The local painter is easily found and will no doubt be ready to rectify any mistake that has been made.

I. O. O. F. Cemetery Deeded To Local Organization

Clean-up Program Planned Following Organization.

For more than two years, the residents of Burlington and surrounding community have been anxiously awaiting a decision by Grand Master of the I. O. O. F. of Kentucky to transfer title and ownership of the Burlington cemetery to local citizens in order that the grounds could be cared for and certain improvements could be made.

This has now been accomplished, as a clear deed of ownership was obtained last week by a committee of three men meeting with the Grand Master of Odd Fellows at Lexington. J. R. Eddins, Wilton Stephens and A. D. Yelton represented the Cemetery Corporation which will be known as the Burlington Cemetery Corporation, and after the organization has been completed, will have complete control of the management of the cemetery and will make rules and regulations to govern the care, maintenance and operation in the future.

An organizational meeting has been set for Friday evening at 8:00 p. m. at the courthouse in Burlington. The purpose of this meeting will be to elect directors, secretary and supervisor for the cemetery and discuss plans for a complete clean-up program to get underway just as soon as possible. All persons living in this area, and especially all lot owners and relatives who are interested in seeing our local cemetery cleaned up and eventually endowed for perpetual care, are urged to attend this meeting and be a part of the newly formed Burlington Cemetery Corporation.

Elsmere Volunteers Quench Fire With Cistern Water

Men, Women and Children Carry Water To Pumps.

Elsmere and Erlanger men, women and children turned volunteer firemen last week when a fire was reported in a two-story frame house at 287 Fox St., Elsmere, occupied by families of Mrs. Katie Robinson and Mrs. Olivia Pinkerton.

The water shortage in this area has caused much apprehension among firemen for several weeks. When the fire sirens were sounded the Elsmere and Erlanger Fire Departments rushed to the scene and extinguished the blaze without attaching a hose to a single fire plug.

Approximately forty volunteer firemen answered the call, with men, women and children forming bucket brigades, carrying water from nearby cisterns and dumping it into the tanks of the pumps.

Firemen stated that they did not hook on to a fireplug as would have been useless, but the fire was brought under control in a very short time.

The fire which evidently started from defective wiring, caused damage to the building estimated at between $500 and $750.

Cisterns in the area were replenished from a 1,000-gallon tank of water sent by the Kenton County Water Commission.

"Pat" Scott Spends Brief Visit Here

"Pat" Scott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Scott, Burlington, and member of the Fort Wayne Daisies of the American League Girls baseball team, spent Monday and Tuesday with her parents.

Pat is one of the Daisies' star hurlers and has a record of five wins against 4 defeats in nine starts this season. She was after her sixth victory Tuesday night when she took the hill for the Daisies against Grand Rapids, Mich.

Commercial Seiners Barred From Taking Minnows In Streams

Permanent Regulation Ordered By Game and Fish Commission.

The seining of minnows and crawfish from the streams of Kentucky for commercial use has been barred by a permanent regulation filed today with the Statutes Revision Commission. Seining of minnows for commercial use had been barred previously by an emergency regulation.

The issuance of the regulation was ordered by the Game and Fish Commission and the Commissioner of the Department of Fish and Wildlife Resources when it was found that the streams of the state were being depleted of minnows and crawfish by the exceedingly heavy demand on them as bait. The regulation will be effective immediately.

The regulation points out that this order does not interfere with any licensed resident seining minnows and crawfish from these streams for his own private use, but that such a person may not have in his possession more than 500 creek minnows or more than 200 crawfish at any one time.

It is further pointed out in the regulation that no ban is placed on the taking of shad minnows for commercial purposes in the waters of Herrington Lake, Dale Hollow Lake, Kentucky Lake, Dewey Lake, Cumberland Lake and all streams under lock and dam, but not above the last lock and dam up the stream.

Have You Clipped
Your Pastures Yet?

By Floyd E. Kells of Soil Conservation Service

Stanley Eichholz supervisor of Boone County Soil Conservation District was clipping his pastures about the middle of June. Everett Flynn of Richmond Road has clipped his pasture for the second time this year. He hopes to clip once more in the fall.

As you already know, pastures are high in protein early in Spring and late fall. This is due to plants actively growing. Weeds will rob your grasses and legumes of needed water during times of drought. For example, it will take 800 lbs. of water to make a pound of dried weeds and only 500 pounds of water to make a pound of dried pasture or hay of our grasses and legumes.

Several new ponds were constructed in the county this month, among these was a pond constructed for George Rehman, Jr., on Hopeful Road that would put water in his dairy barn by gravity flow. Charles Reeves, whose farm is in the rear of Hebron school constructed a large lake. Joe Dringenburg on Burlington road built a new one.

Walton Youth Begins Fire Control Course At Washington, D. C.

Beginning a 40-week course at the U. S. Naval School, Washington, D. C., in the Fire Control Technicians School is John R. Houston, seaman apprentice, USN, of Walton, Ky., R. 1.

Fire control in the Navy is the technique of delivering effective gunfire on a given target. It includes the material, personnel, and organization necessary to harness, damage and destroy the enemy.

The success of our Navy in their many night engagements during World War II is due to taking advantage of the information supplied by their fire control and radar equipment.

Technical developments in the field during and since World War II have not only doubled the Navy's fire power, but have also increased the complexities of the maintenance and repair problems involved in the upkeep of this equipment.

Squirrel Season Opens August 25th

The squirrel season for this year will open on August 25th and extend through November 5, according to a regulation filed with the Statutes Revision Commission by the Department of Fish and Wildlife Resources. The bag limit, according to the regulation, will remain at six per day or a possession limit of 12 after two or more days of hunting. Dates and bag limits for other game and birds have not yet been set by the Commission and the commissioner of the Department.

Eugene Cuneo Held Without Bond, After Confession.

Eugene (Monte) Cuneo, 24, of near Hebron, charged with raping a 12-year-old Covington girl early Saturday was held without bond by Trial Commissioner Melvin T. Stubbs for preliminary hearing in Kenton County Court July 23.

Gene Huff, 20, a companion of Cuneo, who resided on Lower River Road, Kenton County, was held under $5,000 bond charged with being an accessory before and after the fact of rape and with contributing to juvenile delinquency.

Joseph R. Huey, Union, member of the Boone County Production Marketing Association Board, presented his resignation Monday, to become effective immediately. Mr. Huey had been a member of the board for more than ten years.

Mark Cook, Burlington, serving as vice chairman, has been named to succeed Mr. Huey, while Ralph Cason, Grant, moves up to vice chairman and Cloyd Kannady, Verona, is the new alternate.

Branch of Red Cross Office To Be Closed Two Months

Service Will Be Resumed
In September, According To Report.

Mrs. Bert Markesbery of Florence has announced that during the months of July and August the "Clare the Needy" project in Boone County under the jurisdiction of Boone County Chapter, American Red Cross will be closed. She is the very able chairman of this project which was organized to clothe the needy of Boone County, and which since its opening in December, six months ago, has clothed over 100 men, women and children in Boone County.

This is a Boone County project and nothing will be taken out of Boone County. This service will be resumed the first Thursday in September at St. Paul's School in Florence under the leadership of Mrs. Markesbery. She is requesting that everyone search their closets and save any clothing they do not need, and bring it to her at St. Paul's School in Florence when the project is resumed in September, as she has been informed that many people will apply there to get the clothing to put their children in school for the coming year.

Mrs. Markesbery is also soliciting material to make clothing, buttons, pins, patterns, etc., and anything that can be used to make clothing for the people who need it so badly.

Both Mrs. Markesbery and the Boone County Chapter, American Red Cross wish to thank all who have contributed clothing, etc., and the ladies who have met each Thursday to size, mend and help in many ways.

Contributors can be assured good use has been made of all money and clothing donated, under the careful eye of Mrs. Markesbery.

Special thanks were extended to Rev. Edward Carver, pastor of St. Paul Church who so graciously extended the facilities of the school at no cost, for this worthy project.

Magnus & Co. Low Bidders On Boone County School Bonds

Work Expected To Be Completed In One Year
On New Structure.

Magnus & Co. & Associates, Cincinnati investment concern, was the successful bidder on the $225,000 worth of Boone County school revenue bonds when bids were opened Monday in Boone County Court.

The successful bid was $1,010.01 for each $1,000, with an interest rate of 3 1/4 per cent for bonds maturing between 1954 and 1961; 3 1/2 per cent on bonds maturing between 1962 and 1967, and 3 3/4 per cent on bonds maturing between 1968 and 1973.

The court received only two bids. Hill & Co., Cincinnati, bid $1,010 on the $1,000, with an average interest rate of 3.2593 per cent. The difference between the Hill bid and the Magnus bid was only .0024 per cent, and involved a total of only $1,309 on the entire $225,000 issue.

Members of the State Board of Education, Frankfort, were present at the opening of the bids, and it was their recommendation to the court that Magnus & Co. & Associates offered the lowest and best bid.

H. Richard Elliston, Cincinnati architect, and H. N. Ockerman, Boone County School Superintendent, said that construction on the new school, to be erected at Florence, would start as soon as the bonds have been issued. Construction is expected to be completed within a year.

FERTILIZER BOOSTS LADINO AND FESCUE

Without planning a demonstration on the importance of lime and fertilizer on fescue and Ladino clover, Eli Brashear of Estill county has an excellent one, observed Fred Brockman, county agent with the University of Kentucky.

Last August, Mr. Brashear treated four acres of broomsedge and scrub oak with two tons of lime and 500 pounds of 3-12-12 fertilizer, per acre, and then seeded fescue and Ladino clover. Using a jeep to spread lime and fertilizer, Brashear left an untreated area in each corner. There the fescue and clover fail to cover the ground, while on the treated areas the Ladino has made good growth and the fescue is expected to produce 400 pounds of seed to the acre.

Almost 200 homemakers in Bourbon county made their spring hats by covering buram frames.

A recent luncheon at Duncan Tavern in Paris, the Shrine of the Kentucky/DAR, concluded meetings of the Boone County Chapter the Daughters of the American Revolution until fall. Mrs. Roy Nestor, Regent, presided over a brief business session.

The highlight of the day was an address given by Dr. Stevens Jones, vice president general of the National DAR. In her address on "Patriotism" she not only stressed the value of the Love of America, but emphasized the importance of the American flag. Also, how proud we should be, to have the freedom in a country as democratic as America. It is the duty of every American citizen never to let another flag take the place of the American flag which we all respect and love. Mrs. Jones' work in the National DAR has been outstanding, and she has been honored many times for her achievements.

All members and guests enjoyed visiting the beautifully furnished Tavern and the well established library on lineages from various States and counties. Those attending the meeting were Friends of Verne Arnold are glad to know he was able to return home from Jewish Hospital, Saturday. He is able to be up and around with the aid of crutches. However, he makes daily trips to the hospital for treatment.

Having completed his term of enlistment, Robert Idol has been discharged from military service and returned home recently.

Chester Brown and Butch Hoffman recently enjoyed a few days angling at Wolf Creek Dam. The finny tribe must be plentiful at this point as they landed about 100 of them while there.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Peeno, of N. College Hill and Misses Patsy and Carolyn First, of St. Bernard, were Thursday evening guests of the Clyde Arnolds.

Mrs. W. R. Miller accompanied Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Renaker to the annual Renaker reunion at the Methodist Church, Renaker, Ky. Mrs. Genie Kothman, of Covington, was a two-day guest of her sister, Mrs. Clyde Arnold during her vacation the past week.

Major Cornelius L. Reagan, his wife and son Patrick arrived recently from Waco, Texas to visit his mother, Mrs. Bertha Bauers of Sixth and Greenup, Covington. Major Reagan is a native of the Florence community, graduating from the Florence High School in the class of 34 and also attended the University of Kentucky. A member of the U. S. Air Corps he served in Japan during World War II and was confined three and one-half years in a Japanese prison camp and subjected to starvation and other brutalities with many others at the hands of the captors. Following the visit to his mother he will be stationed at Montgomery, Ala., and Washington, D. C., for training and in approximately a year expects to be assigned to Japan for Foreign Diplomatic Service.

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Grant, Mr. and Mrs. Carrigan and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kirkpatrick were recent guests of the Clyde Arnolds.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Carpenter and Pete Eades and girl friend enjoyed the Fourth at Cumberland Falls.

Mrs. Geo. Miller, who has been suffering with arthritis is improved we are glad to report.

Mrs. Eva Osborn, Mrs. Bert Stevens, Mrs. Geneva Arnold and Harry Morgan were visiting Verne Arnold at the hospital, Friday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Robt. England and son and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Aylor have returned from Tavares, Fla., where they enjoyed a vacation and visit of two weeks with Mrs. Aylor's brother Carl Clutterbuck.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Eades, of Covington, Mr. and Mrs. Eades and family and Mr. and Mrs. Homer Eades and daughter were among those from this section attending the Eades family reunion at the home of Mrs. Thomas Vivien, of Winchester, Ky.

Mr. and Mrs. Hal Highhouse and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ramey and family were guests Saturday evening of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Arnold. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Jones, Misses Vera Mae Conrad, Martha Lucille Jones and Stella Pearl Whitaker have returned home after visiting Mrs. Jones' sisters, Mrs. Ed Denning and Mrs. Pete Brautigam in Brush, Colo. They also visited Denver, Colorado Springs and other interesting spots in the Pikes Peak region. They reported traveling through Kansas one day when the temperature was 116 degrees.

ARMY WORMS DAMAGE CROPS IN CALDWELL

Army worms destroyed 100 acres of Kentucky 31 fescue on the farm of Clift Bros. in Caldwell county. UK County Agent R. A. Mabry said the 100 acres would have produced seed worth $10,000 to $15,000. Clift Bros. saved 200 acres of grass by spraying with toxaphene at the rate of 1 1/2 to two pounds an acre. About 1,200 acres of fescue and orchard grass were sprayed in Caldwell county. Losses from worm attacks were put at $40,000 to $50,000.

STAND AND SIT ERECTN. TULCH

Foot Comfort Specialist at—PEOPLE'S SHOE STORE
814-816 Madison, Covington

Standing and sitting erect require less muscular effort than the slumped posture for the normal healthy person. With the body in an erect attitude the center of gravity passes more nearly through the center of the body and places the weight on bones and ligaments that are by nature equipped to meet this demand, the shoulders droop, the spine curves and the abdomen bulges; then muscles must take on more and more of this burden of weight bearing a burden for fatigue and later actual deformity of certain of the bones and joints.

The first necessity in good posture, is good feet.

Show me a person with good posture and bad feet. It's almost impossible. But show me a person with good posture and I'll show you a person with good feet, for good posture starts with good feet. The foundation of any super structure is the most important.

Don't suffer another day with your feet. No matter how many shoes or trial supports you have tried, try just one more and have one of our foot comfort specialists make a free foot analysis and show you how to get rid of all foot pain, leg pains, backaches and headaches. Even arthritis and rheumatism pains are often mistaken—most times when feet are corrected the pains vanished. We know we can help you to stand up straight—Adv.

Third Annual Boone County Masonic Picnic Will Be Held At Burlington Fair Grounds Sponsored By Six Lodges Masons And Families From Surrounding Counties Are Invited; Basket Dinner Will Be Served At Noon Hour, According To Chairman.

The third annual Boone County Masonic Picnic will be held Saturday, July 26, at the Burlington Fair Grounds. The affair, starting at 10:30 a. m., is sponsored by the six Boone County Blue Lodges, assisted by the four Boone County Eastern Star Chapters.

As usual, it will be for Masons and their families, and Masons in surrounding counties are most cordially invited to join with Boone County Masonic families in this most neighborly and exhilarating experience. The only requirement for everyone is that each bring a picnic basket.

Robert Orr, Past Master of Verona Lodge No. 876, is chairman of the tables committee. He will take the baskets, for all the lunch is combined. Mr. Orr suggests that picknickers place a strip of adhesive tape containing the picknickers' name on the bottoms of the plates and dishes. Mr. Orr said that if this were done, no trouble would be experienced in identifying the dishes when it came time to go home.

James E. Ransom of Verona 876 and Charley Brown of Burlington 264 are in charge of the games and stunts. They promise about 45 minutes of real fun.

James S. Ryle, of Tadmor 108, Warsaw, and Noel Walton, Burlington 264, have charge of the sound equipment. Mr. Ryle is bringing a fine selection of records for the entertainment of everyone.

Riley J. Presser, of Boone-Union 304, has purchased two prizes for the Masonic Lodge and the Eastern Star Chapter having the largest attendance present in proportion to their membership.

Wilford Fleck, of Petersburg 926, says there will be enough ice cream for everyone, and Raymond Cave of Hebron 757 says he has ordered enough soft drinks so that no one need go thirsty.

Richard Snelling of Hebron 757 says there will be plenty of hot coffee and iced tea.

The picnic committee furnishes cups, spoons, forks and plates, ice cream, soft drinks, tea, coffee, but no food. The picknickers bring that.

The following Blue Lodges are participating: Burlington 264, Petersburg 926, Hebron 757, Boone-Union 304, Walton 719, and Verona 876.

W. Robert Ellis, Burlington, is general chairman. Mr. Ellis said that he anticipated the largest attendance Boone County has ever had. The final committee meeting will be held Friday night at the fair grounds, he said.

S. S. CLASS MEETING HELD

The Friendship Class of Florence Christian Church met at the church Wednesday evening, after being rained away from the home of Mrs. Harry Goodridge. A large number attended, everyone bringing a covered dish. After refreshments the evening was spent playing games and having a good time.

Fire Destroys Large Barn At Petersburg Tuesday Afternoon

Damage Estimated At $14,000; Machinery And Hay Destroyed.

Fire destroyed a large barn on the farm of Joe North, located west of the city limits of Petersburg Tuesday afternoon, when lightning struck the barn, igniting hay which had been recently stored there.

The barn was struck by lightning during one of the most severe wind, hail, rain and electric storms to strike this section in many years. Residents of the community reported telephone and electric lines down, trees severely twisted and damaged and some property damage was reported, due to high winds. Crop damage due to hail has not been reported.

Both Burlington and Hebron fire departments were summoned, but the fire had practically destroyed the building before arrival of firemen.

Loss was estimated at approximately $14,000. Besides the large barn, several pieces of farming equipment, and a large amount of hay was destroyed, according to firemen.

Ens. Cave, flying with an attack bomber squadron from the aircraft carrier USS Princeton, dropped 8000 pounds of high explosives inside the target area at Chosen. The hydro electric plant there was left in flames.

The flight was made through light rain with the planes going in on the target through the only opening in the sky.

Flak over the area was described as heavy.

Ens. Cave is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Cave, of near Burlington. He is a graduate of Burlington High School.

Lexington Man Fined On Drunken Driving Count In Boone Court

Ernest E. Bowman, Lexington, was fined $100 and costs and his driving rights suspended for a period of six months, when he pleaded guilty when arraigned in Judge C. L. Cropper's Court Monday.

Bowman was arrested by State Trooper Ralph H. Cline Friday night on U. S. 25 south of Florence.

Sentence Suspend

Dr. F. C. Burkett, of Union, who failed to appear in court Wednesday of last week, was given a 30-day jail sentence, 26 days of which were suspended, when it was brought out in court that he was ill.

Sheriff W. H. Easton arrested Dr. Burkett Friday on a bench warrant issued by Judge Cropper. He was arrested June 24 by Trooper Ralph H. Cline, who found him asleep in his automobile, which was in a ditch on U. S. 42. Dr. Burkett was under a driving suspension at the time. When the doctor appeared in court on June 25, Judge Cropper continued the case until July 16, at the physician's request.

Conferees held in the office of Judge Cropper between Dr. Burkett, members of his family, County Attorney W. P. McEvoy and Judge Cropper, disclosed that Dr. Burkett was undergoing medical treatment for a heart condition and other illness, brought about by overwork. After studying all information given during the conference Judge Cropper credited Dr. Burkett with four days spent in Burlington jail and suspended the remainder of the sentence.

Two others were fined by Judge Cropper, one on a charge of being drunk in a public place and the other on a charge of reckless driving. Both were fined $19.50.

Social Security Payments Will Be Increased

No Application Is Necessary For Increase, Says Manager.

More than 7000 people in Northern Kentucky will receive higher Social Security payments as a result of the Social Security amendments which President Truman signed into law last Friday. The first increased checks will be for the month of September, delivered early in October.

Joseph T. Ware, manager of the Covington social security office, emphasized that no one needs to apply for the increased payments. "The Social Security Administration is already changing the amounts," he pointed out. "We expect to get them changed in time to have them in the mail October 3, the regular delivery date, but if in a few cases we don't meet that schedule we'll send the regular check and make up the difference in a later check."

Mr. Ware pointed out that although nearly every family receiving payments would receive an increase, the additional amount would not always be divided among all the members of the family receiving monthly checks. In some cases the entire increase will go to the retired worker.

Under terms of the law, most families will get an increase of about $5; some will get less, some will get more. A few benefits now being paid, and most of those payable in the future, will be based on earnings after 1950 instead of after 1936. The amended law provides a new formula for determining the amount of the payments in these cases. Under it, a retired worker's monthly benefit would be 55% of the first $100 of his average monthly earnings plus 15% of the remainder up to $300.

Beginning September 1, the new law increased to $75 a month instead of $50 the amount of money

Warning Issued Concerning Animal Health In State

Disease New Threat To Cattle Health In This Country.

Official disclosure that the disease, bovine leptospirosis, has invaded still another state, brought a warning today from the American Foundation for Animal Health that this problem is now becoming one of the serious new threats to cattle health in this country.

Foundation authorities cited these points for farmers to remember, in guarding against the disease:

"Leptospirosis is caused by a spiral-shaped germ that gets into the blood stream of cattle through the skin, or through the digestive respiratory and reproductive tracts. It is spread by contact with infected animals, also by rats.

"Symptoms in some cases may include sudden illness, loss of appetite, fever depression and abortion. In other cases, however, the only warning may be a thickening and yellowness of the milk, and a drop in milk production.

"As many as 30 per cent of the pregnant cows may lose their calves. Death losses average about 5 per cent, although 70 percent of the herd may become infected," the Foundation said.

"Cattle that recover can remain carriers for months, and spread the disease to other animals.

"When leptospirosis is suspected it is necessary for the veterinarian to have careful laboratory tests made before a sure diagnosis can be given. Authorities say that early diagnosis and treatment are important both in curbing losses and in getting milk production back to normal."

Record Crowd Attends Verona Lake Ranch Program, Sunday

W. D. Scroggins, manager of Verona Lake Ranch, Verona, Ky., announced this week that the largest crowd to attend any performance since the opening of the grounds was present for Sunday's performance. The large amphitheatre was filled to capacity, he said.

Featured Sunday at Verona Lake Ranch will be Bonnie Lou and Harpo Kidwell, WLW-TV and radio entertainers, supported by Jimmie Skinner, Criswell Sisters, Rome Johnson and His Melody Train Blazers, Steve LaRue and his roping act, "Bussie" Huff, local talent and other stars.

Two shows are scheduled each Sunday at 2:00 and 4:00 p. m. The program will be heard over WLAP Lexington from 2:00 to 2:30. Mr. Scroggins announced. Children under 12 will be admitted free.

Mr. and Mrs. Reginald "Rags" Ryle and children, of Hollywood, Fla., are spending several days with relatives and friends in Boone County. He was a pleasant caller at The Recorder office Tuesday morning.

The following is an outline of the organization of the Boone County 4-H and Utopia Club, by John E. Crigler, president of the Council: The Boone County 4-H and Utopia Club was started by the 4-H Club and the Utopia Club, as the name implies. There has always been from ten to twelve 4-H Clubs in the county since the beginning of the fair. There are about five hundred boys and girls who belong to the 4-H Clubs in Boone County and they range in age from ten to twenty-one. They carry some project and keep a record book on that project from the beginning of the year until it is completed in the fall or winter. Some of the most important agricultural projects which either boys or girls may carry are: Poultry, calf, sheep, swine, vegetable, tobacco and corn, while the girls have several additional projects such as sewing, foods and canning.

Each community club project is supervised by an adult in the community. This makes a total of over one hundred adult 4-H Club leaders in the county. Four-H Club work is organized and supervised by the County Agricultural Agent and Home Demonstration Agent, who at the present time are Joe Claxton and Nank, McClaskey Aylor, respectively.

Four-H Club work was first organized in Boone County about 1915. The Boone County Utopia Club was organized in 1930 with about thirty charter members and they represent our young rural leaders of today. They are young men and women 19 years of age or older, interested in agriculture and home economics improvement. They are pioneers in Boone County's hybrid seed corn, breeding work and other important projects. The Utopia Club enrolled about 60 members, holds regular monthly meetings, conducts demonstrations in improved practices and promotes a program for a more full and wholesome rural life. The Utopia Club was the second club of its kind to organize in the state and is now the oldest club to be active.

This is the twentieth consecutive year for the Boone County 4-H and Utopia Fair, having started in 1933. The fair started after the discontinuation of the Northern Ky. Fair at Florence and the first few fairs were held on that grounds. After the grounds were sold, the 4-H and Utopia Fair moved to the Boone County Harvest Home grounds for several years and then that ground was sold and the next year's location of the fair moved to the Burlington School ground. It was not the oldest club to be active.

Women's Auxiliary To Hold Meeting

The regular monthly meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of Florence Volunteer Fire Department will be held at the Community Center at 8:00 p. m. Thursday, July 24. All members are urged to attend.

—because 1/2- to 2-ton trucks built by GMC have all these heavy-duty features—features most other manufacturers reserve "for big trucks only!"

Compare GMC point by point with any other truck!

Full-pressure lubrication protects all main bearings—force-feeds even to the piston pins!

Airplane-type main & rod bearings stand up under heavy pressures and high speeds—last longer!

Deep, rigid frame construction—just like the big GMC's—backbones the rugged, truck-built chassis!

"Shockproof," four-point cab suspension—same as heavy-duty

GMC's—prolongs the truck's life and protects the driver!

Recirculating ball-bearing steering mechanism assures "passenger car" ease in handling!

Long, "pillow-action" springs smooth the going, cushion the load!

"Luxury-type" seat cushions have individually wrapped coil springs like the big GMC road-liners—contribute to driver comfort and efficiency!

until January 16, 1942 that the present site was purchased from Smith Brothers, which adjoins Burlington and is located on the Burlington-Idelwild Road. The grounds consist of about 28 acres and were purchased by donations from 345 public spirited individuals and organizations. A large lake was constructed on the grounds and a combination barn and refreshment stand were built the first year.

The title of the grounds was put in the name of the Boone County Fiscal Court, but the 4-H and Utopia Club council have the exclusive right to use, occupy, control and improve the grounds for recreational and educational purposes, but if it should for a period of five years cease to be used for these purposes then the Boone County Fiscal Court has the option of the use and possession of the grounds as it may see fit.

The Boone County 4-H and Utopia Fair decided in 1948 that it would be best to incorporate the fair, so on August 16, 1948, the Articles of Incorporation were officially filed with the Secretary of State, Frankfort, Ky., and then recorded in the clerk's office in Boone County, along with the By-Laws of the organization. The Articles of Incorporation point out that the object of the organization is to conduct an annual fair, encourage better farming, livestock and household practices, to advance interest in disseminating knowledge of such practices, to cooperate with and sponsor other farm organizations with similar aims and for community recreation. There are eleven incorporating directors: Namely John E. Crigler, John M. Taylor, Dave Tanner, John L. Conner, Mrs. Vernon Pope, H. E. White, R. V. Lents, Joe Hogan, Mrs. Eustace Pett, Mrs. Sterling Dickey and Grant Maddox.

The By-Laws of the Boone County 4-H and Utopia Council Incorporated provide that the membership shall consist of one community leader from each organized 4-H club in the county, five outstanding citizens selected on their interest of the Boone County Home-makers organization has no dues and is strictly a non-profit organization and the income of the organization shall be used exclusively for furthering the purposes of the organization. The By-Laws call for an annual meeting for election of officers, who are elected for a one-year term and special meetings as the business of the organization warrants. The meeting place is the County Agent's office, Burlington, Ky.

During the first years of the fair, premium money was limited, only about $300.00 being offered to 4-H and Utopia Club members. Now approximately $3,000 in premium money is offered and classes have been added for Homemakers and for open class competition in addition to the horse show, which is rated as one of the best in Northern Kentucky.

In addition to the barn and refreshment stand that were built the first year, other buildings that have been added are: A grand stand, a floral hall, two horse barns, cattle barn and another refreshment stand. A poultry shed is being added this year, besides additional sections to the grandstand and a secretary's office and band stand.

The executive council of the Boone County 4-H and Utopia Council for 1952 are: John E. Crigler, president; Mrs. Vernon Pope, secretary; John L. Conner, treasurer; H. E. White, Mr. Albert Pfalzgraf, Mary Rector, Grant Maddox, R. V. Lents, advertising manager; Joe Claxon, County Agent, and Nancy McClaskey Aylor, Home Demonstration Agent.

The date for the 1952 fair has been set for August 7, 8 and 9th, which is the first year that a three-day fair has been scheduled. Several free acts will feature the evening show on August 7, while the horse show will be the main attraction on August 8 and 9 with shows Saturday afternoon and evening.

School Plant Care Vital To Welfare Of School Children

Plans for improving custodial services in the public schools throughout Kentucky were complete at a two-day conference of school leaders recently on the University of Kentucky campus. Realizing that adequate school plant care is vital to the health and welfare of the pupils and that dirty, unattractive school buildings have a depressing effect upon their attitude and morale, the conference leaders made plans to train custodial staffs of schools at the State's twelve area vocational schools.

Further information about this free training for school janitors can be secured from the Northern Kentucky Area Vocational School at Covington, which serves Boone, Bracken, Campbell, Carroll, Gallatin, Grant, Kenton, Owen and Pendleton counties, or the State Department of Education at Frankfort.

KEEP SPENCE IN WASHINGTON

No member of Congress has done more to secure fair and good prices for burley tobacco and dairy products, than has BRENT SPENCE.

His very recent action in securing millions of dollars for the purchase of burley tobacco for export shows his interest, ability and alertness in looking after the growers' needs.

No one has accomplished more for the people of Boone County as their Representative in Washington, than has BRENT SPENCE. No one can or will accomplish more in the future than will BRENT SPENCE. The people of this County need to keep him in Washington.

When you cash your check from the Burley Cooperative Association, remember it was through the efforts of Brent Spence and his Committee that this was made possible.

a beneficiary may earn and still receive the monthly benefits. Self-employed people entitled to old-age and survivors insurance benefits may receive the payments for each month of the year if their net earnings during the entire year are not over $900.

The amended law contains a provision of special importance to self-employed people who have retired or plan to retire during 1952. Before the passage of the amendments their earnings for the year in which an application was made could not be used to figure their old-age benefit payments. Now, those self-employed people who originally applied for benefits in 1952 may re-apply at the close of the taxable year and have their 1952 earnings used in figuring their monthly benefit payments. In general, this will increase the monthly payment to self-employed persons.

A similar change in the law now permits insured wage earners who retire in 1952 to have their wages for this year used immediately in figuring the amount of their benefit payments. Heretofore, it was necessary for them to come back after the end of the year in order to have all of their covered wages for 1952 included in the computation of the benefit amount.

Another amendment allows beneficiaries aged 75 or over already on the rolls to take advantage of the higher benefit payments provided under the new formula, if they have had at least a year and a half of covered work after 1950.

The amended law allows social security wage credits of $160 for each month of active military or naval service after July 24, 1947. This provision is simply an extension of the one which already gives social security wage credits to servicemen of World War II. It applies to service in the armed forces up to January 1, 1954.

Of advantage to the survivors of deceased service people is a provision in the amended law extending the time for claiming a lump-sum death payment. This applies to servicemen who die abroad and are later returned to the United States for burial or reburial. Survivors who pay the burial expenses may now claim reimbursement up to two years after the reburial instead of two years after the serviceman's death.

Remember always to get the facts—gossip is poison, but truth is the antidote.

Work Under Joint Control Of Civil Authorities and Air Force

Volunteers are urgently needed as "Ground Observers" for the Ground Observer Corps, a part of the extensive Air Defense System, at the Burlington Center it was announced this week by James Gayle Smith, Observation Post Supervisor, and Ralph G. Maurer, Chief Observer. "A number of patriotic individuals have volunteered their services already, but many more are needed," the local leaders stated.

The Ground Observer Corps works under the joint control of the civil authorities and the United States Air Force. In each state, the organization of the Corps is the responsibility of the state authorities. Most states, including Kentucky, have created departments for carrying out this important civil defense mission.

The Burlington observation post is located on the roof of the Burlington High School and according to Air Force authorities is one of the best vantage point locations in the state. The Burlington Post has already had a number of "live" drills in which all aircraft flying over this area were reported to the Kentucky Filter Center at Lexington. These exercises have been three-hour observations, but according to Air Force officials twenty-four-hour exercises will be held in the near future.

If the Burlington post is to function properly during these extended exercises, it will be necessary to have many more volunteer workers," local leaders said. There is no age limit or special qualifications needed to be a ground observer. The chief prerequisite is being a "patriotic American."

Anyone interested in aiding in this worthy and worthwhile cause should get in contact with Mr. Smith or Mr. Maurer.

Election Polls Will Be Open 6 A. M. to 5 P. M.

C. D. Benson, County Court Clerk announces that election polls in Boone County will open at 6:00 a. m. and remain open until 5:00 p. m., Saturday, August 2nd.

This is a new law, Mr. Benson stated, giving voters one hour more in the afternoon in which to cast their ballots. Polls formerly closed at 4:00 p. m.

Tobacco Reporters Needed By PMA Office

Tobacco reporters to measure tobacco are needed in Boone County, according to Walter Brown, Chief Clerk of the P. M. A. Office in Burlington.

Bus Passenger Injured In Accident On U. S. 25 Friday

Bus Leaves Highway Crashing Through Fence At Rosegate Farm.

Hugh Duvall, passenger on a bus was injured slightly Friday night, when a Trailways bus, failed to make a turn on U. S. 25, four miles south of Florence, and knocked down trees and fences on both sides of the road before coming to a stop.

Duvall, a resident of Cincinnati was taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital, Covington in a private car where he received treatment for leg injuries.

The driver of the bus was Harry Davenport, 36, of Knoxville, Tenn.

Seven Arrested After Complaint Of YMCA Youths

Three Men Identified By Boys As Ones Tossing Fish From Creek.

Seven Covington men were arrested Monday by Sheriff Wendell Easton and Deputy Byron Kinman after a complaint of the director of Camp Ernst on Gunpowder Creek.

Running to ascertain its cause, they found the waters of the creek boiling and very muddy, with fish floating on the surface. Some of the Covington men were in the water, throwing the fish on the banks, while several others were seen running away. Mr. Wiseman camp director, said. He accused the men of dynamiting Gunpowder Creek.

Sheriff Easton and Deputy Kinman took the men into custody on Camp Ernst Road. Three of the men were identified by the boys. They were Thomas Myers, William Rothfuss, and Hooter Hayden, all of Covington.

The men were charged with unlawful trespassing and were released under $200 bond each pending and investigation by Stanley Shelton, District Conservation Officer, as to whether the stream actually was dynamited. Food Purchases In Boone Co. Schools Total $48,340.37

Government Donates Food Valued at $7,511.47.

School lunchrooms in Boone County, Kentucky received a total of 879 cases or units of USDA donated commodities valued wholesale at $7,511.47 during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1952. H. N. Ockerman, Boone County School Superintendent, said today.

These commodities were donated by the U. S. Department of Agriculture under the supervision of Thomas A. Lewis, Director of Commodity Distribution.

Donated commodities represent dollars to schools—dollars that buy lunches at prices children can afford to pay. The lunch program serves a dual program of safeguarding the well-being of Kentucky children by creating a local market for farm products.

Mr. Ockerman pointed out that the donations make up only a small percentage of the total amount of food used in school lunchrooms in Boone County totaling $48,340.37 for the fiscal year.

In addition to donated commodities, school lunchrooms which participate in the National School Lunch Program also receive cash assistance from the U. S. Department of Agriculture for the purchase of food from local sources.

Kentucky's share of this cash assistance is made available to eligible schools in the Commonwealth through the State Department of Education. Distribution to schools is made under the supervision of Miss Mary Lois Williamson, State School Lunch Director. Boone County's share of cash assistance received in Kentucky during the past school year was $16,274.05, said Mr. Ockerman.

Of the foods donated by the U. S. Department of Agriculture and distributed to schools in Boone County, 552 cases or units were purchased by USDA with funds appropriated by Congress for the operation of the National School Lunch Program. These foods, which included dry beans, canned green beans, peanut butter, American process cheese, canned soups, canned peaches, canned peas, canned tomatoes, tomato paste and dried prunes, were distributed only to schools operating under the National School Lunch Program.

The rest of the donated foods which amounted to 327 cases or units in Boone County, was from stocks acquired by USDA under price support and surplus removal programs. They included fresh apples, nonfat dry milk solids, concentrated orange juice, strained honey, shelled pecans, and dried eggs. The schools, said Mr. Ockerman, paid freight charges on dried eggs as required by law. All non-profit school lunchrooms were eligible to receive the foods acquired under the price support and surplus removal programs. Some of these commodities which require no preparation were distributed to schools which have no lunchroom facilities.

Local school authorities in Boone County have cooperated to the extent of effecting distribution of donated commodities within the county, thereby making commodities available on an equal basis to all school and affording each and every school an opportunity to participate in providing a noon-day meal for Boone County children.

Boone Water Board To Advertise For Well Drilling Bids

Reservoir In Florence Area Will Be Studied By Commission.

The Boone County Water Commission voted Monday to advertise for bids for drilling a test well in the North Bend "bottoms" section of Boone County in order to ascertain how much water was available for the proposed Boone County water system.

Bids must be advertised for the period of 30 days under revised Kentucky statutes.

Full information regarding the drilling of the test well can be obtained from the commission's office in the courthouse, Burlington, Stanley M. Graves, board chairman announced.

Plans were made to investigate the possibility of constructing a large reservoir near Florence in the event the test wells do not show a flow sufficient for the proposed water system.

Such a reservoir which would probably cover approximately 100 acres, would provide fishing and recreation facilities.

Boone County topography is ideally suited for such a project, board members said.

A spokesman for the commission stated that every avenue will be explored to obtain a water system for Boone County, equal to any in Kentucky.

The accident occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Kyle where a car driven by Lewis Morris struck a utility pole Thursday night breaking the pole. Morris escaped with minor injuries. Light service throughout the area was disrupted for several hours.

WHAT OTHERS SAY ABOUT JOE B. BATES

"As to the record made by the two candidates, Mr. Spence and Mr. Bates, in their previous Congressional careers, there can be little doubt that Mr. Bates has best served his district and the nation. He has shown evidence of independent thinking and action, which are qualities that brought down upon him the vengeful punishment of the state party machine." . . . J. T. Norris of the Ashland Daily Independent.

"Fierce in his loyalties . . . a good turn for Joe Bates will be remembered" . . . John F. Day of the Courier-Journal.

"The thunderous ovation given Joe Bates when he was introduced at the Jackson-Jefferson Day dinner in Louisville must have made the party bigwigs shudder. Party regulars know that Joe Bates is a real Democrat." . . . The Greenup News.

Joe B. Bates is one of the cleanest men in the field of politics today. His morals are above reproach and his honesty and integrity are not to be questioned . . . Boyd County Observer.

"Joe Bates does not lack in courage. That is one reason he was gerrymandered . . . The issues involved in this Congressional race are more important than the political fate of one man or the people he represents." . . . Rowan County News.

"None can criticize Joe Bates' record or his consideration and service to the

"Joe Bates has risen in the esteem of all thinking Kentuckians because only good men are purged by those who seek to control both state and national politics." . . . Grayson Journal-Enquirer.

If you believe in self-government . . . if you detest the one man domination of our Democrat party in Kentucky . . . go to the polls August 2, and vote for Joe B. Bates. No opposition can condemn his record, and his defeat is sought by those selfish political leaders who will sacrifice a good public official whom they cannot control. A vote for Joe Bates is a vote against the Clements steam-roller tactics that we in northern Kentucky know so well in obnoxious taxation and disregard of our needs as a part of Kentucky.

MONEY CROP

Farmers of Boone County are now interested in maturing their tobacco crops to get the most money. Priming is one way to do it. Primings last year brought from 55 to 68 cents per pound. After priming, the crop can stand longer and make a better quality of tobacco.

If you cannot prime the whole crop, try a portion anyway and see the wonderful results. Those who have primed in the past always continue to do so. The bottom leaves are lost on unprimed tobacco.

Do You Want To Be Represented In The Congress of The United States?

Under our Democratic form of government, the only means by which the people can be represented and heard in the United States Congress is by the presence and votes of their duly elected Senators and Representatives in Congress.

Unless these Members of Congress are present and vote on the Bills before Congress the people are not truly represented.

It is only the vote that counts.

What is the comparative record and the votes of the two candidates for Congress in this District?

From June 6, 1952 until the adjournment of the last session of Congress, there were fifty-three roll calls in the House of Representatives (more than one-third of the total number of roll calls during the entire session beginning January 8, 1952). Congressman Bates was absent, and did not vote on any one of these fifty-three roll calls. Congressman Spence was absent on only three of these roll calls, and voted on twenty-six of these roll calls.

Among some of the most important Bills upon which the House of Representatives voted during the period following June 6, 1952 were the following:

H. R. 7800. A Bill to increase Old Age and Survivors Insurance Benefits. Congressman Bates was absent upon the vote for the passage of this Bill. Congressman Spence was present, and voted for the passage. This Bill was of great benefit to each person who holds a Social Security card.

H. R. 8210. A Bill to amend and extend the Defense Production Act of 1950. Congressman Bates was again absent, and did not vote on the passage of this Bill. Congressman Spence, as usual was present, and voted for the passage of this Bill.

This Bill involved the very security and defense of every American.

H. R. 8122. A Bill to continue the existing method of computing parity prices for basic agriculture commodities, including tobacco. Again, Congressman Bates was absent, and did not vote for the passage of the Bill. Congressman Spence was present and voted for the passage of this Bill. Every tobacco producer was assured by the passage of this Bill of continued good prices for tobacco.

H. R. 7656. A Bill to provide Vocational Readjustment, and to Restore Lost Educational Opportunities to certain persons who served in the armed forces. Again, Congressman Bates was absent, and did not vote. Congressman Spence was present, and voted for the passage of this Bill by voting for the Bill. This Bill provided well earned benefits to the boys who have been fighting for us in Korea.

Such is the record.

If you want to be truly represented in the Congress of the United States, vote for Brent Spence on Saturday, August 2, 1952. He will not be absent when Bills affecting you and your rights are up for passage in the Congress of the United States. He will be present and voting.

For State High SchoolsKentucky's Department of Education is encouraging all high schools in the state where such training does not exist to inaugurate driver training courses, according to Superintendent of Public Instruction Wendell P. Butler.Butler said a new manual on driver education, which will be issued this fall, will push classroom study of driving in addition to actual automobile practice. Many schools have not been able to teach driving because of the impossibility of obtaining automobiles, he said."Although the ideal training includes on-the-road instruction by a qualified teacher, lack of cars should not prevent schools from teaching driving. Much valuable instruction can be given in the classroom that will benefit the student when he starts the actual operation of an automobile."Under the State's present course of study, it is recommended that students spend twelve hours in an automobile during a semester course. Six hours are spent in observation and six hours behind the wheel. The rest of the course is in the classroom.Butler said teacher training courses in driving are being given this summer at the University of Kentucky and Morehead State College, and that he hopes similar courses will soon be offered at other State colleges.E. B. Whalin, director of Health and Physical Education for theDepartment of Education, said about 75 Kentucky high schools offered driver training last year to approximately 3,000 students. He expects an increase during the coming school year.
The department is cooperating with the Governor's Highway Safety Committee in promoting the training.Madison Avenue Sporting Goods, Inc.805 Madison Ave., Covington, Ky. AXtel 1495

State's Farmers Borrow Less From Banks, During 1951

Kentucky agriculture is in such excellent financial condition that the state's farmers found it necessary to borrow less money from banks during 1951, and savings and income of farm families reached record levels, according to A. B. Renaker, president of the Peoples Deposit Bank, who represents the Kentucky Bankers Association as Boone County Agricultural Chairman.

"In recent years, the state's banks have cooperated closely with their farm customers in modernizing the plant and equipment of Kentucky farms," he said. "This program has been so successful that the state's farms are now in the best condition in our history, and farmers have found it possible to maintain high production of vitally needed farm products and still reduce their borrowing."

"This healthy situation has been particularly valuable in the past few months when farmers have been faced with rising costs of the things they buy and lower prices of the things they sell. Under those conditions, production is the key to keeping agriculture profitable."

Quoting from the eleventh annual national survey of agricultural lending by the Agricultural Commission of the American Bankers Association, Mr. Renaker noted that "the vast majority of farm loans made by banks are for production and operating requirements. In 1951, the last full year of operation, Kentucky banks serving agricultural communities loaned $72,409,000 to 76,861 farmers to meet all types of financial needs. Of this amount, $33,945,000 was borrowed by 67,107 farmers to finance production and operating needs. This compares with $6,246,000, during 1950. The production loans were quickly repaid, too, and only $50,031,000 were outstanding at the end of 1951.

"The year 1951 was also marked by a decline in farm real estate borrowing and a very small increase in the total amount of bank-held farm mortgage debt, indicating that farm mortgage borrowing is likewise being held a minimum. At the beginning of the year, the total agricultural mortgage debt held by Kentucky banks was $48,403,000. During the year, banks made 8,754 additional farm real estate loans in an aggregate of $18,464,000. Yet, so much of the mortgage debt was paid off during the year that, on December 31, 1951, the amount of this long term debt outstanding had risen only $55,000 to a total of $48,458,000.

"The fact that the state's banks are serving particularly the operators of small and moderate-sized farms is shown by the size of the average loan made by banks during the year. The average production loan was $792 during 1951, and the average farm real estate loan was $2,109.

"The total of all bank-held agricultural debt outstanding in Kentucky on January 1 of this year was $98,489,000, excluding C. C. loans," Mr. Renaker said.

Mrs. Alan Gaines, of Walton, chapter chairman and chairman of the blood program has announced that the quota for the new Red Cross fiscal year which is just starting is 500 pints for the year. She appeals to each and everyone to make every effort to give blood and requests that each person give as many times during the year as possible. People are permitted to give every two months or not more than five times a year.

The Bloodmobile in the past year touched almost every spot in the county or was available to each locality. Mrs. Gaines is very anxious that those who gave, give again. This is something that cannot stop. Blood must go through to the wounded on the battlefields or in veterans' hospitals. Give a pint of blood in honor of some serviceman you know who is now living and may need it, or in honor of some serviceman who has made the supreme sacrifice and given his life that we may live and have the freedom that we so earnestly want for ourselves, our families, and our country. Let us not forget to give blood at Union, on Friday, August 15.

Allotment of Funds Made For Kentucky Farm Housing Loans

Office Located In Peoples Deposit Bank, Burlington.

Samuel T. Harrison, County Supervisor for the Farmers Home Administration, advises that Kentucky has been allotted $350,000 for the fiscal year for Farm Housing Loans.

The Farm Housing Loans are made to construct, improve, alter, or repair a house or other farm building essential to the operation of a farm.

To be eligible for a Housing Loan, you must be a farm owner and unable to get the necessary credit from other lending institutions to finance the building improvements. Farm Housing loans bear four percent interest and may be amortized over a period of 5, 10, 15, 20 and 35 years. Under this program, a farm is considered to be a parcel of land which would have an annual gross income of $400 per year at average prices.

Farm owners seeking more information about the Housing Program may call at the Farmers Home Administration office at their convenience. The office is located in the Peoples Deposit Bank Building, Burlington, Ky., and is open each Tuesday morning.

Since he was ten, Ernie has sung for his own pleasure, lingering and leaning towards the English folk songs brought to this country by his forebears.

His career started in 1940 when Red Foley, star of a network show became ill. Picked from an audience, Ernie filled the role and stayed for four more years, doing solo and emcee work.

In 1944 he went to Detroit radio, where he remained until 1947 when he came to WLW. A byword from WLW and WLW-Television in mid-west homes, Ernie's records have also carried his fame from coast to coast.

As one of the top personalities on WLW radio and television, Ernie draws his popularity almost equally between rural and urban people. His easy chair entertainment is the kind to sit back, relax and listen to with the pure pleasure given by a born entertainer.

Three Covington Men Held For Grand Jury Action

Accused Of Setting Off Dynamite In Gunpowder Creek Near Camp Ernst.

Three Covington men, were held under $1,000 bond each when arraigned before Judge C. L. Cropper in Boone County Court Friday charged by O. M. Wiseman, director of Camp Ernst, of dynamiting Gunpowder Creek near the YMCA camp.

The men registered as Thomas Myers, 423 John St.; William Rothfuss, 211 W. Third St., and Hooter T. Hayden, 115 W. Second St. State Conservation Officer, Alfias Lynn, of Williamson, testified that he made an examination of several fish he found floating on top of the water at Camp Ernst on Monday of last week and said that every fish which he examined had died as a result of an explosion set off in the water.

County Attorney W. P. McEvoy said he would recommend that the grand jury investigate the activities of four other Covington men who were seen with Myers, Rothfuss and Hayden at the time of the explosion. Because several YMCA boys were unable to make positive identification of the four, no charges were placed against them.

CONVENIENT KITCHEN ATTRACTS HOME MAKERS

The Ewing Homemakers Club members in Fleming county found the kitchen of special interest in the new home of Mrs. Earl Cannon. Short in stature, she planned low base cabinets and sink for greater convenience. The homemakers noted also, said Miss Kathryn Seebree, UK home agent, her step-saving U-arrangement of equipment, the use of storage in her built-in cabinets, revolving lazy Susan shelves in her mixing center, and a planning center. Mrs. Cannon carried out a blue and red color scheme.

Continued soil depletion by erosion on crops will limit crop production just as lack of deposits to a bank account will restrict the checks that can be drawn on it.

CONEY ADMISSIONFREE COCA-COLA DAY

Distribution throughout Greater Cincinnati and 22 counties of Ohio, Northern Kentucky and Indiana of several hundred thousand free admission tickets for the second post-war Coca-Cola Day at Coney Island has just been completed, according to local Coca-Cola dealers.

The tickets, now ready for distribution to the public, admit holders to the grounds absolutely free on Wednesday, August 13. Readers need only ask for tickets the next time they stop at their food store, drug store, or other refreshment spots.

Once in the Park, guests will have an opportunity to share in the 50,000 free ride tickets that are to be given away on Coca-Cola Day. At the same time, according to the Coca-Cola dealers, prices of most refreshments, amusements and games have been reduced to a nickel in honor of the annual occasion. Admission to the Coney Sunlite Pool has been lowered to 50 cents for adults, 30 cents for children, tax included.

Music for dancing in famed Moonlite Gardens will be Teddy Phillips' Orchestra. It is predicted that thousands of families from this region will avail themselves of the free picnic grove, shaded by large trees and two shelters. Ample transportation will be provided by King Brothers buses, leaving Government Square, Cincinnati, every five minutes.

Cover crops will aid more in preventing erosion if planted on the contour.

FLORENCE CHRISTIAN CHURCH

The Missionary Society of the Florence Christian Church motored to Cane Ridge meeting house, eight miles beyond Paris for a meeting Friday, August 1st.

The day was perfect for the drive with beautiful scenery most of the way. When we arrived the well preserved old log church and the large old trees presented a beautiful picture.

Beside the front of the church were picnic grounds with a table and seats, ready for the splendid lunch which was highly enjoyed in this beautiful setting.

After lunch we explored the cemetery where Barton W. Stone and many other prominent people are buried.

The meeting was called to order by our president Mr. Harold Conner and after a short business session we went into the old Cane Ridge meeting house and Mrs. Conner gave a complete account of the building. The seating arrangement is most unusual and it has a large balcony which if nothing unforeseen happens will be there for many years. Mrs. Clarence Wolfe had a paper on the life of Barton W. Stone, his work as a well known evangelist and what can be accomplished by a Christian man with lots of zeal and courage.

Mrs. Walter Rybolt came out from Cincinnati joined us at Florence and added much to the pleasure of the day.

Kentucky Listed As One of States In Drouth Area

Farmers Assured Aid From Government Agency.

Kentucky is listed as one of several states which has been designated a disaster loan area because of severe drouth, thus assuring the state's farmers financial aid from the federal government's Farmers Home Administration.

Kentucky drouth damage is running into millions of dollars, it was reported. The federal action will enable farmers who have suffered losses to obtain loans with which to buy hay and other feed for livestock.

The method by which a farmer gets an emergency drouth loan from the Agriculture Department's farmers home administration after his county has been declared a disaster area is set out.

He explains to the county FHA supervisor the losses or damage suffered on his farm from the drouth and signs an application which includes the statement that he cannot obtain adequate credit from other sources.

Loans may be made to pay "normal expenses of continued operation"—for the purchase of feed, seed, fertilizer, livestock and equipment or to replace or repair damaged buildings, fences, drainage and irrigation system or for land-leveling and clearing of debris on farms when necessary.

Loans will not be granted to refinance existing indebtedness or compensate the farmer, directly or indirectly, for losses suffered during the drouth.

A three-member county committee must sign a certificate that the applicant is eligible, and that they believe he will carry out to the best of his ability the obligations required of him under the loan. Loans for under $2500 may be approved by the county supervisor and borrowers of this amount usually receive their checks in less than a month after they apply.

RICH REUNION HELD

A family reunion was celebrated Sunday, August 6, 1952 at the home of Miss Evelyn DeVoss, West 4th St. Covington, Ky. After a delicious dinner was served, games, music and singing was enjoyed. A very delightful day was spent by those in attendance.

The Richs are the immediate family of the late John T. Rich, Beaver Lick (Big Bone Creek). Those present were Mr. and Mrs. J. Paul Rich, Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. Rich, Mrs. Frances Rich, Mrs. Grace Rich, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gutman, Miss Sandra Kendall, Miss Bonnie Sue Rich, Ervan Rich.

Unless runoff rain water is controlled, much of the fertilizer applied may be lost.

Boone Co. Shows Increase In State Income Taxpayers

Total of 49,938 More Paid State Income Taxes For 1951.

Boone County shows a sharp increase in the number of individuals filing and paying 1951 State income taxes, according to a report from the Department of Revenue. According to figures Boone County totals 1,543 filed for the year 1951, while only 1,112 filed 1950, returns, an increase of 431 over 1950.

A total of 49,938 more individuals paid Kentucky state income taxes for 1951 than paid them for 1950. Commissioner of Revenue H. Clyde Reeves announced in Frankfort.

The total number filing for 1951 was 264,707. This meant that 89.9 persons per 1,000 population filed returns. The average payment for each return was $47.17. This does not include non-resident returns.

Jefferson County's 93,208 pay-returns was Monroe County's $83.99 each. This is probably explained by the recent oil development there. There were 182 pay-returns from that county. The lowest average per return was in Menifee County where the 50 pay-returns average $17.40 each.

Reeves reported the total amount of money collected on Kentucky's resident individual income tax for 1951 was $12,945,149.23. This compared with $10,914,125.22 collected for that classification for 1950.

Knox and Rockcastle counties were the only counties showing a drop in pay-returns and in amount of dollar total. Knox County showed an approximate 4 per cent drop and Rockcastle about a 17 per cent drop in dollar payments.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank all our friends and neighbors who helped in any way during the fire at our farm. We also wish to thank the Hebron and Burlington Fire Departments who came to our assistance.

Dr. J. D. Northcutt, Dr. E. W. Northcutt, Dr. A. J. Vesper and Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Gaines.

Record Crowds Attend Three-Day 4-H and Utopia Fair Held At Boone County Fair Grounds Last Week

Horse Show Rained Out Saturday Night, Held Sunday Afternoon; Exhibits Numerous And of High Quality.

Record crowds attended the Boone County 4-H and Utopia fair held at the fairgrounds, Burlington on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of last week, according to officials of the fair board. Attendance was heavy from the opening day and continued throughout the three-day affair.

Four-H entries were of high quality and 4-H club members showed increased interest. All entries and exhibits of every department were larger than previous years.

The horse show was extremely good, and according to those in attendance, it was one of the best in this section of the country.

The horse show scheduled for Saturday night was postponed until Sunday afternoon due to an electrical rainstorm which hit the fair grounds shortly after the show opened.

The Boone County fair in all, was a huge success. This success was made possible through cooperation of exhibitors, 4-H and Utopia members, and those who participated in any way in making this fair possible, by giving of their time at various jobs.

Amendments Are Outlined Concerning Social Security Act

Beneficiaries Permitted To Earn As Much As $75 A Month.

The 1952 amendments to the Social Security Act will permit beneficiaries to earn as much as $75 a month without losing their benefits beginning in September, announced Joseph T. Ware, manager of the Social Security Administration's office for Northern Kentucky. It is important he said, to notice that the new rule is not effective until next month. During this present month of August the old rule still applies to all retired workers, their families, and survivors of deceased workers.

If a living retired worker earns even one cent over $50 in August, he must notify the Social Security Administration, and not only he, but also his wife and children, if they are beneficiaries, must surrender their benefits for August. And if any wife, widow, child, dependent parent or dependent husband or widower earns even one cent over $50 in August, he or she must report it and return the benefit check.

Beneficiaries are limited to earning $50. Even if they are not paid more than $50 in a month, if they earn over that amount, they must return their benefit checks. For example, if a beneficiary is paid $12.50 a week and his pay day is Thursday, he will be paid exactly $50 in August. But assuming he works five days a week, Monday through Friday, he earns $2.50 a day, and since he will have 21 work days in August, he will earn $52.50, and therefore not be entitled to benefits.

Beneficiaries are perfectly free to earn any amount of money providing they report to the Social Security Administration when they earn more than $50 in this month, or more than $475 in September and succeeding months. After they have once reported, they need not do so again, and they are no longer earning more than the permitted amount. After that they will receive their benefit checks when they return and again return any benefit checks they may receive. It is important that they report and return their benefit checks when they should, because additional deductions, sometimes in large amounts, may be made from their benefits for failure to do so.

Persons receiving Social Security benefits who have any questions about reporting their earnings, should visit, write or telephone the Social Security Administration, Seventh and Scott Streets, Covington, Ky. Telephone HE 6006 3274. The same office will, of course, be glad to answer any other questions about Social Security.

Consolidated Telephone Company Will Make Extensive Improvements In Boone County Telephone System

Will Involve Complete Change-Over of All Telephones To Dial System; Several New Exchange Buildings Planned.

Subject to the approval of the Public Service Commission of Kentucky, an extensive expansion and improvement program, involving a complete change-over of all Boone County telephones to the dial system, was announced last week by G. B. Foscoe, Jr., General Manager, Consolidated Telephone Company, Florence.

Application for such permission will at an early date be formally filed with the Commission.

Mr. Foscoe said that the company planned to build several new telephone exchange buildings, including a new central administration building in Florence.

"These new exchanges, with our new dialing system," Mr. Foscoe explained, "have been designed so that they may be adaptable to the proposed national toll dialing scheme if and when such scheme becomes fully effective across the country."

Mr. Foscoe said that the proposed dial letters for the Florence exchange will be ATLANTIC; Union will be DUPONT; Walton will be HUDSON; Hebron will be designated as TUXEDO; Burlington as JUSTICE. It is contemplated that if the new Ohio River bridge between Lawrenceburg, Indiana and Kentucky, near Petersburg is constructed, and development thereabouts is sufficient to so warrant, the company will, at a later time, consider the construction of an exchange at or near Idlewild.

New cable, of sufficient capacity to take care of estimated potential subscribers in any given territory, with full consideration being given to real estate and industrial development, will be installed. The new cable will replace, to a large extent, the open wire system now in effect, Mr. Foscoe explained.

Contemplated plans call for the construction of cable from Burlington to Florence; also from Union to several miles down the Big Bone Union Road, as well as on U. S. Highway 42 beyond Union; Hopeful Road, between Ky. Highway 18 and U. S. Highway 42; Florence to Walton, and Walton to Verona; Hebron to Constance, and on River Road on both sides of Constance. New cable also will be installed in the Kentaboo neighborhood. Mr. Foscoe said that all present cable in Florence will be replaced with larger cable.

Mr. Foscoe pointed out that the conversion to the dial system will necessitate the replacement or conversion of every telephone in the county except those phones already on the dial system. "One of the most desirable features of the new system is that there will be one hundred percent selective ringing for all telephones. This means that when a subscriber's phone rings, only his phone will ring, and not all the other telephones on the party line, as heretofore. 'This, of course will eliminate, to a great extent, 'listening in' by subscribers on conversation in which they have no concern," Mr. Foscoe said.

Another feature of the new instruments will be that the subscriber will be able to set his own instrument so that it rings loud, medium, or light. "If the baby is asleep, the instrument can be set for a light ring, or if the subscriber wants to be out in the yard for awhile, the instrument can be set for a loud ring, and he will be sure to hear it," Mr. Foscoe explained.

The first conversion in the new system will be made at Union. This conversion has been scheduled first to give immediate relief to the present burden on the Florence exchange.

Present plans call for the completion of this entire program in two major steps. It is contemplated that the first step will be completed in about three years and that the second a step will take approximately two years longer, or a total of about five years before the Company's present plans are fully completed. All of the construction program is, of course, contingent upon the company's ability to obtain the critical materials required.

Mr. Foscoe pointed out that plans for this conversion have been under way ever since his father, G. B. Foscoe, Sr., purchased the Consolidated Telephone Company in 1947. At the time the present management purchased this Company, the service was poor and the plant in a far from satisfactory serviceable condition. The new management recognized the fact that service would have to be improved and that the company would be put in a better earning position in order to attract the outside capital required for the extensive program then contemplated, and now under definite planning.

In order to improve, as rapidly as possible the serviceable condition of the plant, the Company has, during the present administration, not paid reasonable and fair dividends on its common stock, but instead has used a large amount of its funds for the purpose of rehabilitating the plant as quickly as possible.

The company, under the present administration, could not earlier announce its plans for the reason that it was not determinable as to when it could do the large amount of financing that would be required. In order to bring the earnings up sufficiently to attract outside capital, the company made application about two years ago for an increase in rates. The opposition to this increase, and subsequent delay resulted in its being unable to obtain the full funds applied for and estimated as required, further delaying the announcement of these plans.

In view of the fact that this entire proposed program will require approximately five years, Mr. Foscoe has stated that in his opinion, no operator presently employed by the Company need be dropped from employment due to this proposed conversion. As has always been the practice of this company, it will continue to employ local personnel to the extent that it is able to obtain qualified employees locally.

Mr. Allen, track coach and assistant football coach at Holmes High School, Covington, served as assistant camp director earlier this summer when boys were there. Mr. Allen had left the camp ten days before being stricken ill. His condition was reported as "fair."

Camp Ernst Is Closed Upon Advice Of Health Officer

Camp Director Admitted To St. Elizabeth Hospital For Polio.

Camp Ernst, located on Gunpowder Creek, near Burlington and operated by the Covington Y. M. C. A. as a summer camp for boys and girls was closed last week after A. D. Allen, assistant camp director, was admitted to St. Elizabeth hospital, Covington for polio.

The camp was ordered closed by Willard L. Wade, executive director of the Y. M. C. A., upon advice of Dr. H. C. White, Kenton county health officer. One hundred twenty-five girls were sent home at that time.

Mr. Allen, track coach and assistant football coach at Holmes High School, Covington, served as assistant camp director earlier this summer when boys were there. Mr. Allen had left the camp ten days before being stricken ill. His condition was reported as "fair."

Covington-Florence Highway Proposed At Kenton Meeting

Proposal To Be Brought Before Boone Fiscal Court September 2nd.

Three Kenton County Commissioners informally agreed Monday night to approve the continuation of Watson Road from Donaldson Road to Price Pike. The decision was reached at a meeting of the Covington-Kenton County Chamber of Commerce at Doc's Place, Elsmere.

The new proposed highway would run from Covington to Florence, it was reported. One-third of the cost of the road will be paid by Kenton County from gasoline tax money received from the state.

Interested persons along the route will present the project to the Boone Fiscal Court at its regular meeting September 2nd. No action has been taken by Boone County concerning the proposed highway, it was reported.

It was stated that construction of the road in Kenton County will not begin until Boone County assures the commission that it has the right-of-way to complete the road to Price Pike.

Walter Scott and Joseph Kuchle, who own most of the property through which the proposed road would run have informed the Chamber of Commerce that they will donate that section of their land to both counties.

At a meeting of the Covington-Kenton County Chamber of Commerce held in June, Judge Cropper informed the group that Boone County had spent all of its 1952 gasoline money, and that the county would not receive any more money from the state until 1953.

Byrne-Bullock

The Florence Christian Church was the scene of a lovely wedding Saturday evening, August 16, when Miss Patsy Carol Byrne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George M. Byrne of Florence, Ky., and Mr. George Lee Bullock, son of Mrs. Mamie Bullock, of Hebron, Ky., were united in marriage at 6:30 p. m.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Richard White in the presence of the immediate families.

Nuptial music by Miss Sue Ashcraft included "I Love You Truly" and the traditional Wedding March.

The matron of honor was Mrs. Janet Byrne Abbott, sister of the bride, and Mr. James Bullock, brother of the groom was best man.

The bride was lovely in her white ballerina gown styled with a bouffant skirt of tulle and net over skirts. A fitted jacket of chantilly lace set off the rounded collar and full length sleeves. From a tiara of seed pearls hung her fingertip veil of nylon illusion edged in lace.

She carried a bouquet of American beauty rose buds interspersed with baby breath and fern.

The matron of honor wore a powder blue ballerina gown styled similar to the bride's with an off-the-shoulder effect of nylon net. The short sleeves and bodice were of lace. Her bouquet was identical to the bride's.

Following a small reception of the families at the home of the bride's parents, the couple left for a honeymoon trip through the Southern states. For her going away trip the bride chose a navy dress with white accessories.

Construction Work Completed On Ashby Fork Bridge

Cost of Structure Set at Approximately $6,500.00.

Construction work on the Ashby Fork Bridge, Com. 24 y. and Petersburg Road, has been completed, according to Judge C. L. Cropper. Cost of the new bridge was set at approximately $6,500.00.

Traffic has been routed around this section during the past several months, following an accident when a car driven by an Indiana man crashed into the old iron structure knocking it into the creek below.

The new structure is erected of multiple steel arch, which is bolted into a concrete abutment, then backfilled with earth and stone.

The new bridge has the appearance of a large culvert, as the actual span is completely covered with earth and stone.

Traffic was allowed to pass over the bridge several days last week, it was reported.

Evangelist, Wm. Bill Stevens

Revival services will begin at the Elsmere Baptist Church September 7th and continue through September 21, it was announced this week by the pastor, E. V. Howell. Services will be held each evening at 7:45 p. m.

Wm. Bill Stevens, of Charleston, W. Va., will bring the messages, and the music program will be under the direction of the pastor E. V. Howell. Rev. Stevens is an internationally known evangelist, and recently returned from meetings in Ireland. He is a safe, sane scriptural preacher.

The public is cordially invited to hear this man.

Hay Available To Boone Farmers In Drouth Emergency

Prices Range From $28 To $36 A Ton, Boone Chairman Reports.

Hay will be made available to farmers to replace hay and pasture lost or damaged by the drouth at prices ranging from $28 to $36 a ton, depending on the kind of hay, Mark Cook chairman of the Boone County Agricultural Mobilization Committee, said here today.

Prices of hay to be supplied under the drouth disaster hay program are: $36 a ton for alfalfa or clover hay; $32 a ton for mixed grass and legume hay; and $28 a ton for timothy or other grass hay of recognized feed value.

These prices are for hay received at the car at Erlanger, Ky., the rail distribution point selected by the County Agricultural Mobilization Committee for Boone county farmers.

Cost of hauling the hay from the rail distribution point will be borne by the farmers.

No additional charge will be made for the hay, however, even if the purchase price and handling charges exceed the price quoted.

The hay will be purchased in North Central states—largely in Iowa, Wisconsin, and Michigan—by PMA committees in those states, acting as agents of the Commodity Credit Corporation.

Requests for the hay may be filed in the county PMA office. A deposit of $5 a ton will be collected when the hay is ordered and the balance will be collected when the hay is delivered at the rail distribution point.

The County Agricultural Mobilization Committee will determine the quantity of hay to be supplied under the program and the eligibility of farmers to purchase the hay, basing this determination upon current needs to avoid liquidation of livestock.

Farmers purchasing hay through the program will be required to certify that the hay is needed to feed their own livestock and agree not to sell the hay except upon approval of the county PMA committee.

The county PMA committee will designate persons to receive, weigh, and distribute the hay to farmers when it arrives.

Specifications for the hay to be purchased and supplied under the program require that it be sound, of reasonably good color, and well cured.

Legume hay, to sell at $36 a ton, shall be alfalfa or clover (excluding sweet clover) and may contain not more than one-fourth timothy or other grasses of recognized feed value.

Mixed hay, to sell at $32 a ton, shall be alfalfa or clover with timothy or other grasses of recognized feed value, containing more than one-fourth but less than three-fourths legumes.

Timothy or grass hay, to sell at $28 a ton, shall be timothy, broom, or other grasses of recognized feed value.

PROPOSED CONTINUATION OF WATSON ROAD OVER PRICE PIKE TO FLORENCE

Probation Granted Covington Men By Judge Yager

Given One Year For Dynamiting Gunpowder Creek.

Three Covington men were granted probation of one-year prison sentences and a $1 fine by Judge Ward Yager in Boone Circuit Court, Thursday. The men had been sentenced on a charge of dynamiting Gunpowder Creek, near Camp Ernst.

Those placed under probation were Thomas Meyers, 25, of John Street; Hooter Hayden, 46, of W. Second Street and John Warfield, 23 of John Street.

Judge Yager placed the three men under probation in sustaining a motion filed by Stuard Wegener, attorney for the defendants.

Judge Yager warned the men that the probation depended on their future conduct. "From now on any violation of the laws of the commonwealth will get you in the penitentiary in a hurry," Judge Yager said in probating the sentences.

Under the order the men will be required to report in person to Judge Yager at noon December 8, when the next term of Boone Circuit Court opens.

EVANGELIST

Joe Canzoneri, Sr.

MUSIC DIRECTOR

Joe Canzoneri, Jr.

Father and Son Will Conduct Revival At Bullittsburg Church

Father and son will be working together in a revival meeting which begins next Sunday, August 24 at the Bullittsburg Baptist Church. Joe Canzoneri, pastor of the Lebanon Junction Baptist Church, will be preaching. His son, who is pastor of the Bullittsburg Church, will direct the music.

Mr. Canzoneri has had wide experience in evangelistic work. Before beginning his work as pastor of the church at Lebanon Junction in 1941, he had been engaged primarily in this type of work. He traveled throughout the South as both preacher and singer in revival meetings.

As a boy in his teens he made the journey from his native land of Sicily to this country, arriving here in 1903. After working for a time in New York he went to Louisiana and later to Purvis, Miss. He had learned the barber's trade and eventually bought his own shop there. It was in this town that he was introduced to the Bible and began to study it for himself. It was in his barber shop sometime later that he accepted the Lord Jesus Christ as his own personal Savior.

When he was called to preach the gospel a short time afterward, he sold his shop and went to school to prepare himself for service. In 1918 he graduated from Mississippi College, married the daughter of a Baptist preacher, and went to Camp Jackson, in South Carolina, to work with the YMCA until after the war. In 1919 he entered Southwestern Baptist Seminary in Fort Worth, Texas. From the time of finishing his work there until December, 1941, most of his time was given to evangelistic work.

Those who attend the services during the next two weeks at the Bullittsburg Church will be delighted and inspired by Mr. Canzoneri's fresh interpretation of God's Word and his deep insight into spiritual things.

Larry Aylor, our genial postmaster with his family has embarked on a two weeks' well earned vacation and tour of southern Kentucky. The Adult Class and other members of the local Methodist Church joined together Friday evening at the church for a covered dish dinner short program and talk by Rev. R. R. Patton, District Superintendent. However, the main event was the presentation to Rev. C. N. Ogg, pastor, a piece of luggage and a wrist watch by Mortimer Moss, as tokens of appreciation from the congregation. It had not occurred to Rev. Ogg that his birthday was so near, and needless to say, he was surprised and overcame with emotion. We join in wishing him many happy returns of the day.

Seventeen times as much plant food is lost each year from crop land by erosion as is removed by the crops grown.

THE NAILS

N. TULCH

Foot Comfort Specialist at—
PEOPLE'S SHOE STORE
814-816 Madison, Covington

The nail, like the hair, is a specialized epidermal structure. It is composed of two layers, the mucous or the soft layers, and the horny which constitutes the nail proper. The nail bed is the tissue covered by the nail. The posterior end of this is the matrix from which the nail grows. The exposed portion of the nail is termed the body and the posterior portion embedded in the groove is the root. Occasional white spots on the nail are due to the presence of air between the lamellae.

Ingrown nails is a condition in which the free edges of a nail have penetrated through the skin layers and become imbedded in the soft parts of the toe.

In 96% of the cases shoes are the cause. How often have you put shoes on in a store (that knows nothing about feet) that are long enough when you are sitting down, and the minute you stand up they are short. It is an absolute impossibility to fit feet unless you can control feet with the shoes you are being fitted in. This is important. The foot must be locked at the arch so as to hold the foot back against the heel so that the shoe that gives you one-fourth of an inch clearance when selling does not get short when you stand up.—Adv.

In 1/2- to 2-ton GMC models you will find many of the same extra-value heavy-duty features that make larger GMC's today's standout performers on the road—features you do not get in other trucks of this size.

That's why you can expect more from a GMC—you get more value for your money. Come in and get the full story.

Get a Real Truck—a GMC with:

Full-pressure lubrication to all main bearings—forced even to the piston pins!

Paul DeLott Acquires Peavine's Fancy Queen

The sensational five-gaited bay bomb-shell Peavine's Fancy Queen has a new home at Paul and Barbara DeLott's Show Horse Acres, Burlington, Ky.

Blazing a path of victories thru the tri-state circuit under the clever saddlesmithing of Bud Stevens, Hickory Hill Farm, Middletown, O. Peavine's Fancy Queen was the contender to beat at all of the top shows from Dayton thru Alexandria. For four seasons, when you said Peavine's Fancy Queen, you were talking of blue-ribbons in a pile. From the day she left the hands of Art Shouse as a finished two-year-old at the original Ridgefields Farm in Kingsport, Tenn., she was an object of fear and delight to the assembled thousands who watched her rack and trot the opposition into the ground. Then Russ and Mrs. Stevens sold their horse interests and went to Florida. Peavine's Fancy Queen was let-down, went out of training and was unheard of for two years with the exception of winning the stake at Delaware for Eli Long, Jim Dickey riding.

And now she is coming to Show Horse Acres, taking the place of the flashing Stormy Midnight for Barbara DeLott. If for some reason she cannot be accomplished, it is planned to breed her in the spring with the hope of procuring a colt or filly able to cause half the devastation of its mother's conquests.

Paul has been busy on the judging and announcing circuits of such recent shows as Hunting and Crawfordville, Indiana; Burlington, Ky., and the Pony Promotion Ass'n. all pony show in June. However, with all the activity including the operation of a grand champion Boxer kennel business, trophy and ribbon and advertising business, the farming of 89 acres and the raising of twins, Peter and Paul—to say nothing of the breeding activities of McDonald's Silver Flash, standing at Show Horse Acres, the DeLott's are planning big things for their new mare.

We hope and trust Peavine's Fancy Queen will find the love and judicious treatment accorded her by Judge and Babe Stevens, duplicated in kind on the Kentucky side of the river. It's a certainty that this five-gaited wonder mare will have everything done for her to bring her back to her former eminence under the Show Horse Acres banner.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to take this opportunity to thank everyone who has in any way assisted me during my recent illness; for all of the beautiful cards and flowers and the Rev. Howard Gordon and R. A. Johnson for their unending prayers. 11* Mrs. Alberta Staggs

NEW SERVICE ELIMINATES SCRATCHED FLOORS

Use of a new method in shoe repairing eliminates the use of hard nails and thereby scratching of polished floors and linoleum has been stopped, according to Joe Littrell, Joe's Shoe Shop, 358 Main St., Florence, Ky.

"The Auto-Soler method of shoe repairing," says Mr. Littrell, "is a great advance in many ways. The old slow hammer and nails method of putting on heels is a thing of the past with us. We simply slip the shoe under the Auto-Soler and press a pedal.

"The Auto-Soler uses soft wire from a reel that is heavily knurled so it grips the leather. The machine cuts off a fastener to the correct length and squeezes it into the shoe, much faster than I can tell about it. This wire fastener wears down as the leather wears, so that no sharp nail end ever sticks out to dig holes or to scratch floors."

The Auto-Soler machine has changed more than just the quality and speed in the Joe's Shoe Shop. It has changed the physical appearance of the shop itself. To those accustomed to the picture of a shoe repairer with a mouth full of nails, driving each nail painfully with a hammer, the sight of the lightning operation of the Auto-Soler is a revolution, indeed.

WOMAN'S SOCIETY MEETS

Mrs. C. S. West, vice president gave the devotion and program at the meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service at the local Methodist Church August 6. The devotion opened with a song by the group and closed with prayer by Mrs. West. For the program she gave an interesting talk on "The World Federation of Methodist Churches." Mrs. S. J. Bradley president presided over the business session. Reports were heard and the meeting adjourned with prayer by Mrs. Mildred Munday.

Attending were Mrs. S. J. Bradley, Mrs. C. S. West, Mrs. A. T. Knox, Mrs. Nannie Mitchell, Mrs. Leila Allen, Mrs. Eva and Mrs. Geo. Miller, Mrs. Paul Chaney and Mrs. Mildred Munday.

Large Amount of Marihuana Found On Cincinnati Men

Arrested By State Troopers Near Richmond Thursday.

Two Cincinnati Negro men, registered as Harvey Harris, 24, of 959 Gest Street and Melvin Wright, 23, of 1203 Chapel Street were taken into custody by two Kentucky State Troopers Wednesday on U. S. 25 at Richmond.

A flat tire led to the arrest of the men and confiscation of between $5000 and $10,000 worth of green marihuana.

State police had received a tip the two men were en route to Cincinnati from Lexington in a gray automobile. Troopers were assigned to watch U. S. 25 and U. S. 27. Robert Gordon and Chester Henderson spotted the auto, but were unable to stop it without a search warrant unless a traffic violation were to occur. The car had a flat tire. The troopers checked to see if Harris, the driver, had his operator's license. When Harris was unable to produce the license, the troopers searched the car and found 15 pounds of the recently-cut weed under the rear seat.

The men were taken to Burlington jail where Harris found his license. They were transferred to the Williamstown barracks two hours later, and federal authorities removed them to Lexington Wednesday.

Four Sites Selected In Boone County As Observer Posts

Aircraft Spotters Are Needed, According To Report.

Four sites in Boone County have been selected for Ground Observer Corps observation posts, according to an announcement by the State Office of Civil Defense.

The communities where the posts are located and the post supervisors are: Burlington, James Gayle Smith; Big Bone, Alva Woods, Jr.; Walton, George W. Ryan; and Florence, Leo J. Brophy, Jr.

General Jesse S. Lindsay, State Director of Civil Defense, has urged persons willing to work as aircraft spotters at the posts to contact his office in Frankfort.

About 100 persons will be needed to man each post should Kentucky be put on an around-the-clock watch as several neighboring states to the north and east have. The observers, all civilian volunteers, will spot aircraft and telephone information to filter centers where it will be relayed to the Air Force. Most of the state is served by centers in Lexington and Louisville but Nashville and Knoxville, Tenn., and Columbus, Ohio, are used in some sections.

About 400 posts will be already in Kentucky and 325 have been set up with supervisors, Lindsay said. Of this number, only 165 have enough volunteers to carry on even part-time work and none are at full strength.

Registration Books Will Close Sept. 5 In Boone County

Proper Registration Is Necessary To Vote In November Election.

Registration books for the November election will close September 5, and persons whose names are not on the voter registration roll may not vote, Attorney General J. D. Buckman, Jr., reminded today.

To spur increased voter participation in government, civic groups over the State have joined in a drive to register eligible persons not registered to vote or who have moved into new precincts since the preceding election.

"We commend the movement on the part of so many public-spirited groups in urging greater participation in government—and in getting all potential voters properly registered," Buckman said.

To be eligible for registration, one must be a citizen of the United States, a resident of Kentucky a year, have lived in the county of residence at least six months and in the precinct 60 days.

C. D. Benson, Boone County Court Clerk, stated that his office will be open daily except Sunday until September 5th for the registration of Boone County voters.

City of Florence Receives New Fire Pumper Friday

Volunteers Raising Money To Pay For New Equipment.

The Florence Volunteer Fire Department has received its new fire pumper, according to Fire Chief A. E. Hue. The cost of the new pumper was reported at $13,000.

Members of the Volunteer Fire Department are raising money to pay for the pumper, Chief Hue said. The down payment, $3100, was collected last year by a house-to-house canvass in the community. The remainder of the $13,000 will be raised through contributions.

Florence's only expense for its fire fighters and equipment, is the accident insurance it carries.

The new pumper carries 1200 feet of 2½-inch hose, two reels with 150 feet of 1½-inch hose each, and a 1½-inch hookup for the regular 2½-inch fire plugs. It has a 300-gallon water tank.

The new equipment, one of the latest pumpers, was manufactured by the American Fire Apparatus Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

In an interview, Mr. Ockerman said, "The teacher shortage is still acute throughout the state. This is because other states pay larger salaries than Kentucky, and also because industry pays more than teaching. When checking a building project in Boone County recently, we found the following: The lowest paid man, a common laborer, makes $2.03 a day more than a college graduate teaching in the county; a carpenter makes $7.52 a day more. So you can see there is little incentive for a youngster to go to college and prepare for the teaching profession. Although Boone County ranks high in comparison with other counties in the state in teachers' salaries, it cannot compete with industry and out-of-state salaries."

There is at present a temporary vacancy at Constance. The new teachers we have secured have college degrees or are eligible for certificates. According to the State Board ruling, teachers with certificates must be given positions before those teaching on permits.

The following is a list of all teachers in the Boone County system, released by Mr. Ockerman:

Control Of Black Shank Outlined By Boone Co. Agent

Important To Take Precautions To Prevent Spread Of Disease.

Black Shank in tobacco has been found on a number of farms in Boone County, according to Joe Claxon, County Agricultural Agent.

Most of the tobacco fields where the disease has been found has been in the Ohio River bottoms, which has been overflooded. Therefore, the disease has been spread by water of the river carrying the germ.

Black Shank may be carried on tools, machinery, animal hoofs or soles of shoes, especially in wet weather.

It is important to take precautions to prevent the spread of the disease in fields where Black Shank has been found or where there is a possibility of the disease. It is suggested that the affected plants be removed from the field, put in a tight paper bag and burned and the spot treated with nabam.

If this is done thoroughly, the disease will not spread from that point and there should be no carry-over to the next year. If the first plants are not removed and a rainy period follows, there is grave danger of a wide spread of the disease in the field.

After loosening the soil, the spot where the diseased plants are removed should be drenched with a solution of nabam, 3 tablespoons to 10 quarts of water. The use of nabam is a precaution that should be followed in every field where black shank appears or where plants suddenly collapse and turn yellow, whether in black shank areas or in areas that previously have been free from the black shank disease.

Every grower who has black shank must take action immediately if he is to prevent excessive losses in the future. In neighborhoods where the disease is not present, growers should be on the alert to keep it off their farms or, if it appears, to eradicate it.

Boone County Man Seriously Injured In Plane Crash

Was Making Routine Flight From Local Airport To Chicago.

Bernard Antor, 29 of Youell Road, was seriously injured in the crash of a Lake Central Airlines plane at the Weir-Cook Municipal Airport, Indianapolis, Thursday. Antor was reported to be suffering from head and possible internal injuries in an Indianapolis hospital.

Mr. Antor, the airline's station manager at the Greater Cincinnati Airport, and two other men were in a single engine, four-passenger plane making a routine flight from the local airport to Chicago when the accident occurred late Thursday.

Witness reported the plane was approximately 75 feet in the air when its right wing dipped suddenly and it crashed to the ground about 300 yards short of the runway. The impact hurled the engine fifty feet from the plane.

Mr. Antor was thrown clear of the plane when it struck the ground, according to reports. The other two occupants who were critically injured, were Capt. Jerry Haas, 36, of Indianapolis, the pilot, and David T. Best, 33, of Springfield, Mass., an executive of the Standard Oil Development Co., Elizabeth, N. J.

The ill-fated plane left the local airport at 2:30 p. m. Thursday and made one stop at Connersville, Ind., before arriving at Indianapolis.

Hunting Season Will Open Nov. 20, Closes January 18

Bag Limits Unchanged By Action of Board At Quarterly Meeting.

The rabbit and quail hunting season was made eight days longer by the State Fish and Wildlife Resources Commission, Saturday.

The action was taken at a regular quarterly meeting at which hunting dates and bag limits were set and new officers were elected. Tom Theobald of Grayson was named chairman; Noble Lanier, Franklin, vice chairman, and Roscoe Davis, Hazard, secretary.

Three members of the nine-man commission who recently were appointed to four-year terms by Governor Wetherby were sworn in. They were Dr. A. W. Boltz, Fort Thomas, reappointed; Tom Baker, Cadiz, who succeeded Dave Sigler, Paducah, and Al Cockerill, Frankfort, who succeeded Robert Sparks, Lexington.

In fixing the quail and rabbit season for November 20 to January 18, inclusive, instead of ending it January 10, the commission said the supply of rabbits and quail was great enough this year to justify the action. The bag limits of 20 for quail, and of eight and 16 for rabbits were left unchanged.

The commission had set the squirrel season to open Monday of this week and to end November 5, with a bag limit of six and possession limit of 12, the same as last year.

In other actions Saturday, the commission: (1)—Set November 20 for a start on hunting ruffed grouse which will continue through January 18 instead of closing December 15, as it did last year. The bag and possession limits for grouse were left unchanged at two and four.

(2)—Set the open season for trapping raccoon, possum, mink, muskrat, skunk and red fox for November 20 to January 18, in place of last year's December 1 to January 31. The commission also approved taking raccoon and possum with dogs only, October 21 to November 19, inclusive.

Health Department Recommends Simple Polio Precautions

Normal Routine For Entire Family Is Best Policy.

The mention of polio strikes terror in the hearts of parents everywhere. However, when polio is prevalent it is most necessary that parents remain calm, as emotional upset is conveyed very easily to children.

Normal routine for the entire family is the best policy. However, during a polio epidemic, extra emphasis should be placed on cleanliness and rest. Simple precautions against polio recommended by the Kentucky State Department of Health are:

1. See that children have an afternoon nap or rest in bed. (Adults too should get an adequate number of hours sleep daily).
2. Do not overexert or assume increased physical activity.
3. Eat a well-balanced diet.
4. Wash hands thoroughly before meals and after toilet, and practice personal and household cleanliness.
5. Get rid of flies.
6. Avoid fatigue and chilling.

It is pointed out that there is no objection to swimming or bathing but avoidance of chilling and fatigue is important. However, only clean pools and lakes should be used.

Long trips which may cause physical exhaustion are to be avoided and it is not recommended that children be taken from an area relatively free of polio to one where there is a high incidence of the disease.

In case of any suspicious illness, the patient should be put to bed and a physician summoned for diagnosis and treatment.

UK FALL SEMESTER TO OPEN SEPT. 15TH

Activities at the institution ceased on August 9 with the close of the 1952 summer session. Classification tests, physical examinations, class schedules, registration lines and dormitory accommodations will face freshmen when they report on September 15. Old students will return on Sept. 18, and after a three-day registration and classification period classes will begin on Sept. 22.
